

Corner Concerns

(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. Joe Stephenson was so unfortunate as to lose one of his team by inflammation, a loss that is felt, as he had to buy another to replace it at once.

There was a good turnout to church on Sunday to hear Rev. F.G. Hardy's farewell address and witness the baptismal service of William Robert George Lee.

Miss Jessie Marshall is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. McNally of Traverston at present.

We did not send in our usual budget last week. There was so much illness of one kind or other to report that when we had it made up it was such a sickly looking affair that we thought no one would care to look at it.

We notice by your Traverston correspondent's budget last week he is about to move into his fine new house and we wish himself and family much happiness therein.

St. Paul's Vestry Meeting resulted in the re-election of last year's officers. The finances were better than usual, showing the church to be in a progressive state.

Mr. Charles Lane, after travelling over a good bit of country in the past year, has returned again to work for Mr. Thomas Wilson, which leads us to think this must be a very good place after all.

The prevailing epidemic has caused Dr. McLellan of Holstein to expand his acquaintance in a very satisfactory way.

There was a social gathering of St. Paul's people last Friday night at the home of Mr. Earl Matthews. The guests of honor were Rev. F. G. and Mrs. Hardy. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, games and eats, an impromptu program was arranged and during its disposal the two guests were called on to the carpet and an address expressive of the feelings of the parishioners was read them and a purse accompanied it. Rev. Hardy replied with thanks for the mark of appreciation and for the way they had stood by him in making the four years of his ministry so successful. He earnestly urged them to do the same by his successor, whom he recommended as a fine young man whom he had known in college. The hearty singing of "For He's a Jolly, Good Fellow" was led by the Warden, Mr. Arthur Lee.

The Young People's meeting at the Methodist Church on Monday evening was made specially interesting with readings from Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities," illustrated with fine lantern slides.

Nurse Irene Wilson leaves on Wednesday for Morris Plains, New Jersey, to take the position of supervisor in Greystone Hospital there. Her sister, Miss Evada, will accompany her to enter on training for nursing. At the Methodist Church on Sunday evening Miss Wilson favored the congregation with a sweetly rendered solo. Her sweet voice and helpful service will be greatly missed here, as will also her musical sister, Miss Evada.

By a copy of the Manor, Sask., Advocate, just received, we learn that Mr. Archie Cairns, a former highly respected resident here, and his esteemed wife, formerly Miss Jessie Scott of Durham County, recently celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding day when a number of their friends assembled at their home near Manor to convey congratulations and join in the pleasure of the event. A pleasing part of the proceedings was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Cairns of Life Membership certificates in the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church of Canada accompanied by an appropriate address to which fitting reply was made by the recipients expressing appreciation of the unique gift and manifestation of esteem. A congratulatory letter from the Saskatchewan Board of Missions, Regina, was also read to Mr. and Mrs. Cairns, special reference being made to the distinction attained by Mr. Cairns in being the first gentleman in Saskatchewan to be honored with a Life Membership.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton of the Munshaw House gave a farewell dance on Monday in honor of the Misses Wilson, leaving this week for New Jersey.
