

Priceville.

(Our own correspondent.) J. M. McGillivray, so far, is Priceville's 1923 champion fisherman. Of several good catches, one on Monday contained two beauties.

The play, "The Land of Promise," put on in the Orange Hall at Swinton Park last Friday night by Priceville talent, was pronounced good by the residents of the Park district. A full house greeted the performers, and they were not disappointed in the quality of the play placed before them for their approval.

Mr. D. G. McLean, our veteran merchant, whom we reported last week as slowly recovering from a recent attack of pneumonia, still continues to improve slowly. Mr. McLean is now able to be up and go outside for a short period every day when the weather permits.

Miss Garbutt, our teacher, spent the week-end at her home near Meaford, and returned with a Chevrolet Baby Grand car.

Postmaster Conkey has improved the front of his office building during the past week, which adds very much to its appearance.

It was rumored around town on Tuesday of this week that Frank Reiley was in negotiation with a man from Guelph for the purchase of his blacksmithing business. Dame Rumor, however, is a fickle maid, and as we have been unable to confirm the report can not give any definite information on the subject just now.

The road work, reported to commence on Monday of this week, has been postponed till next Monday. Some of the County officials and officers of the good roads commission met here a day or two ago, and it is reported that several heated arguments took place.

Green Grove beef-ring has made a fine start, with two prime fat heifers, the first by Robert Lindsay dressing 185 pounds, and the second by D. Davis dressing 150. We get our meat at first cost by way of the beef-rings.

Local happenings are few this week, but the seeding is the all-important thing at present, and it is being rushed with some speed. The ground is all dry—no delay on account of wet spots. We hear of a large acreage being sown last week. Mr. William Gordon has got a home boy to assist him with the chores, and a fine looking young chap he is. It is about the only kind of labor that can now be got to work on farms, and we understand the supply is about exhausted.

Flesherton.

(Our own correspondent.) At the Presbyterian Guild meeting on Tuesday evening last week there was a large attendance and the proceedings throughout. Mr. Frank Chard presiding, were especially interesting. The first part of the program consisted of an ably conducted debate, the subject being, Resolved: That Capital Punishment Should be Abolished. The affirmative was taken by Miss Ada Acheson and Mr. Russell Patterson of Proton, and the negative by Mr. James Harrison and Rev. F. G. Fowler, Flesherton. The judges were Mr. J. E. McKee, Miss Holmes and Miss Maud Acheson who after careful consideration of the excellent arguments on both sides, decided in favor of the affirmative.

Following the debate a chorus was sweetly sung by the Bethany Mission Band, after which Mrs. Fowler, who organized the class two years ago, gave a very interesting and helpful missionary address. Mrs. Fowler announced that hereafter Mrs. (Dr. Turnbull and Miss Mary Paton would take charge of the Band. Rev. and Mrs. Fowler, leaving the congregation, were then called to the front and presented with a purse of money, accompanied by an address expressing the congregation's high appreciation of the faithful and successful labors of the beloved pastor and his wife in this charge and also conveying to them the genuine and deep regret felt by all at their removal. Mrs. McCallum made the presentation and Mr. T. B. McKenzie read the address to which Mr. Fowler very fittingly replied, expressing the hope that he would some time visit this field again. A pleasing quartette was rendered by G. H. Cairns, E. W. Duncan, Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Alf. Down. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable social time spent.

Mrs. (Rev.) Oke had the misfortune to slip from a chair last week and injure her knee badly. Dr. Turnbull was called and fearing an injury to the bone the patient was taken to Durham Hospital for an X-ray examination, which showed that fortunately no fracture had occurred, but otherwise painful injury had been sustained. Mr. Oke and Dr. Murray accompanied the doctor and patient to and from the hospital.

There was a large congregation at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday to hear Rev. Mr. Fowler's farewell. His sermon was an interesting one, being a brief summary of over 20 sermons of 150 he had preached during his ministry here. His parting message to the congregation was Matt. 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Though it was not expected, Mrs. Fowler sang again in a duet with Mrs. McCallum. Mr. Fowler thanked the congregation, and also the Methodist congregation, of which many were present, for all the kindness shown him during his pastorate here.

Rev. and Mrs. Fowler were presented with gifts last week from their Eugenia and Proton congregations. From the former a framed address and purse of money and from the young people in the latter, an address and cheque.

WILLIAM RUSSELL HERE

IN "A SELF-MADE MAN," William Russell, who is among the most popular of film stars, is offered in another Fox production at the Veterans' Star Theatre to-morrow and Saturday nights, May 11 and 12. The film is called "A Self-made Man" and describes the adventures of a young man who is sole heir to his father's fortune. The son drives a fast car and studies art with a capital A, but has little use for business. He breaks into the newspaper headlines because of his peculiar exploits and his father, in an angry moment, disowns him. Then his sweetheart turns him down. The future seems black, but events prove him to be a go-getter, and he comes out at the top of the heap.

Reviews from cities where this photoplay has been shown recommend it very highly. It has many bits of amusing comedy, generally praiseworthy acting, artistic settings and direction of a high order. From all reports it is deserving of public patronage.

With "A Self-made Man" will be run the two-reel Sunshine Comedy, "Hold The Line."

IT'S A SUCCESS

In most homes the old guess-work baking days are gone, never to return. Then it was a matter of anxious conjecture as to whether or not that batch of bread would rise properly. All of our baking is a scientific success. Our bread should be one of your standard family foods.

The evangelist will open a two weeks' mission in Bentinck Baptist Church next Tuesday night. The Methodists and Presbyterians have been invited to join in these meetings.
