

Flesherton

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Frances Nickawa, the talented Cree Indian elocutionist, appeared here under the auspices of the Methodist choir on Wednesday evening last and delighted her audience with her rare versatile gifts. In her native costume numbers Miss Nickawa was perhaps most taking but throughout she was charming and met fully all that was expected of her. The young elocutionist possesses remarkable gifts and has a very pleasing personality. She has a voice of wonderful range and sang Kentucky Babe with such sweetness as to make her audience hunger for other vocal numbers. Miss Nickawa will be greeted by a large audience should she appear here again. The severe snow-storm prevented many from hearing her on this occasion. Her numbers were interspersed with an anthem by the choir, splendidly rendered piano solo by Eric Dowling, who responded to a very hearty encore, solos by Dr. Murray and Mr. G. W. Littlejohns, and a quartette by Mrs. C. N. Richardson, Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Mr. Holland and Dr. Murray. Mr. George Mitchell presided. Notwithstanding the blinding storm the proceeds were $56. There was a good representation from here at the Conservative convention at Durham on Friday last. Dr. Jamieson's numerous old friends and supporters here are pleased that he consented to again contest this riding, ably represented by him so long.

The young women here organized a basketball team last week with the following officers: President, Miss Rita Bellamy; Vice-President, Miss Margaret Holmes; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Frank Thurston. There will be practice twice a week at the high school and the girls are enthusiastic about the game.

Born.—At Flesherton, on Friday, May 11, to Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Welton a daughter.

Mr. W. Halliday of Riverview recently purchased the old James White farm at Saugeen Junction and has moved to it.

A big crowd attended the Taylor sale at Mount Zion on Thursday last and the bidding was good. We learn Mr. Fred Taylor will occupy his uncle's farm this season.

Mr. Malcolm Leith is having his residence in the village sided anew and otherwise improved.

Mr. John Runstadler has rented Mr. Roddie Stewart's residence for the summer.

Mother's Day was fittingly observed in the churches on Sunday and many pink and white carnations were worn in honor of mother.

Rev. J. H. Oke was again seized with a weak spell on Sunday morning and was unable to take his work for the day. Communion was again postponed. Mr. Thomas Bentham supplied here in the morning and at Vandeleur in the afternoon. The evening services were withdrawn.

By appointment of Presbytery the Rev. C. S. Jones of Priceville supplied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday and declared the pulpit vacant. With Mr. Jones presiding, a joint meeting of the congregations of this charge was held here on Monday afternoon to make arrangements for future pulpit supply.

The Orange Valley school, Mrs. Hare, teacher, was closed most of last week owing to an epidemic of colds in the section.

One of the hydro men met with a close call on Saturday when, two miles west on the Toronto line the steering gear of his car broke, running him into the fence, just escaping a culvert. Fortunately no other damage was done.

Mr. F. G. Karstedt delivered two car loads of coal to his customers on Saturday and Monday.

Miss Cora Dand of Honeywood, was a week-end visitor with Mrs. W. Miller.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong is visiting her daughter and family at Weston.

Mrs. John Thistlethwaite is spending this week with her husband and relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Willis, who have been living at Wroxeter, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carrington. They purpose moving to Detroit and Mr. Willis will leave for that city in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hogg and son Earl of Chatsworth visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Littlejohns.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kennedy and Mr. A. Prouty of Toronto, were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henry.

Mr. John Latimer of Toronto spent Sunday with Mrs. Latimer and mother here.

Mr. J. P. Bunt went to Toronto last week and will probably spend a couple of months in the city.

Mr. Fred Bellamy of the Collingwood post office staff is on a holiday among relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith of Markdale spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart.

Dr. and Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Holmes were at Owen Sound on Sunday evening and at the home of Mr. A. M. Bunt heard part of an interesting program broadcast from New York.

Miss Millie Wright visited over the week-end with her sisters in Toronto.

Miss Florence Caswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caswell of this place, who has been for some time nursing in New York, is to be congratulated upon her promotion, having been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Sick Children's Hospital in that city. Miss Irene Eales of Toronto is visiting Mrs. Henry Wilson. Mr. Joseph Clinton has rented part of his residence to the engineer on the Provincial road. Work on the village streets has begun and we hope to see oiling done to allay the summer dust. Mr. Frank VanDusen returned to Toronto on Friday to resume business.

It is hard to tell yet in places which is the front lawn and which is the back yard.

A lot of people think culture is a quality that makes wrong seem a little righter.
