Priceville.

(Our own correspondent.)

Fine, warm weather set in over the week-end.

It will take a few days the beginning of this week to finish delayed seeding operations on a number of farms.

Archie McArthur has been for over a week in Toronto busy bricklaying.

The Priceville Dramatic Club went to Dromore one evening last week to assist at a concert.

Dr. O. E. Carr was in Toronto for a day or two last week.

Donald McArthur after a prolonged illness passed away at the residence of his sister, Mrs. A. Livingstone, on Monday of last week, aged 81 years. Rev. C. S. Jones, the family pastor, conducted the funeral service at the residence and at the grave in the old village cemetery. Two brothers, Archie of Dundas and Charles of Toronto were present at the funeral on Wednesday, the 23rd.

Mrs. Ben Harrison, who had her ankle fractured, was taken home from Durham Hospital he end of last week.

Malcolm McIntyre, V.S., an old resident of town, passed away on Thursday evening of last week. He was laid up with pneumonia last winter and never fully recovered from the effects of it. He was cared for during his illness by his daughters, who have been living in outside towns. Interment took place in the cemetery West of the village. Rev. C. S. Jones, the Presbyterian pastor, conducted the funeral services on Saturday, the 26th.

Ray McLean, son of D. G. McLean, merchant, was taken to Owen Sound Hospital on Monday evening of this week to be operated upon for appendicitis. The operation has been performed and we are pleased to report the young man is doing well.
