The reopening of the Presbyterian Church took place on Sabbath last. Very large congregations assembled both morning and evening. The preacher was Rev. John Little of Rockwood, a former pastor, and he delivered two forceful sermons. There were attendants at the service from Dromore, Cedarville, Conn. Mount Forest and various other parts of the community.

Miss Mildred Hood of Listowel, and formerly teacher at S.S. No. 10, Egremont, was the guest of the West family over the week-end and gave a well-rendered solo at the evening service in the Presbyterian Church on the Sunday evening.

Rev. J. W. Hunt and family of Plains Circuit, near Hamilton, were the guests of friends here recently. The teachers, Misses Snyder, Davidson and MacKenzie, duly observed the King's Birthday, as both schools were closed.

The Attingham family of Guelph, accompanied by Miss Elsie Reid, were here in honor of the reopening of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fenton spent a couple of days recently with friends in Beeton.

Misses Mamie and Gertie Pettigrew of Toronto were the guests of the Drum family during the recent wedding festivities.

A beautiful June wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drumm, on Tuesday of this week, when their youngest daughter, Miss Pearl C., joined heart and hand with Mr. Norman McLaughlin of Palmerston. Promptly at 12.30 o'clock the bridal party arrived at the church and to the sweet strains of the wedding march played by Miss Gertie Pettigrew of Toronto, the party entered, Miss Pearl leaning on the arm of her father. The couple were assisted through the trying ordeal by Miss Irene Drumm, sister of the bride, and Mr. Mervyn Bealy of Toronto, with little Miss Irene Ellis as train-bearer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. S. Scott, pastor of the church. During the signing of the roll, Miss Mamie Pettigrew of Toronto rendered a beautiful solo. The invited guests then repaired to the spacious lawn at the home, where an excellent dinner was served. The bride was suitably attired in wedding costume as was also the bridesmaid. The happy couple left on the afternoon train on their honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in Palmerston. Their many friends wish them every happiness.

Corner Concerns

(Our own correspondent.)

Do not be afraid to turn out and vote for Dr. Jamieson on the 25th. Scores of good men did so twenty-five years ago when we found we had a representative in the Legislature unqualified for the job and no one was ever heard to say they regretted it, or thought they did wrong.

Recent rains have made the whole country look almost like a garden. Hay and fall wheat are well advanced; other crops were late going in, but are making rapid growth.

Miss Irene Barbour spent the week end in Holstein and vicinity and attended the reopening of the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ruby Matthews was home from Owen Sound for a few days last week.

Mrs. Elmer McMeeken and baby of Toronto are visiting with Mrs. Janet McMeeken.

Miss Ella Wilson, who has been in Toronto for the past two months, returned home last week for the summer months.

Miss E. Churchill has been visiting the past few days with her niece, Mrs. Earl Mead.

The Varney Ladies' Aid meet this Thursday at the home of Mrs. Earl Mead.

The example of Alex. McKillop, a director of the U.F.O., who says that he did all in his power to replace a Cabinet minister with a U.F.O. candidate in West Elgin, now that he sees how much worse things are, is going to make right the wrong, so far as he can, by turning and doing all he can to replace the man he helped defeat in 1919. It should also be a good motto for the electors of South Grey.

Priceville.

(Our own correspondent.)

The Police Trustees are to be congratulated on the steps they have taken against cattle runnings at large on our village streets. It is anything but pleasant to have a well-kept lawn practically ruined by cattle and other animals running loose.

Priceville citizens regret to learn of the illness of Dr. Hutton of Durham and trust he will soon be his old self again. As a resident of the village over twenty years ago the genial doctor made many friends, and is always a welcome caller in the village.

The political meeting in the interest of Dr. Jamieson last Thursday night was well attended considering the busy season and good addresses were delivered by the candidate, Mr. Geo. Mitchell of Flesherton and Mr. A. B. Currey of Durham. Major McGillivray of Priceville made a good chairman.

Karstedt Bros. have inaugurated a new special delivery system on the rural routes running out of the village and report good business. Besides being a great convenience to their regular customers they are finding considerable new business, which is very acceptable in these quiet times. So far the system has been in use on Route No. 2 only, but will be extended to the other routes when completed further.

Shirley McIntyre was out from Durham and secured a nice catch of good-sized fish in the river here. He had nineteen in all. Some of the boys here would like to know what he uses for bait.

Work on the good roads is progressing very favorably. The wet has had a somewhat retarding effect, but even with the late start this spring it is expected the road will be completed as far as the vicinity of Durham before snow dies. Now that the seeding is all done men will be more plentiful.

Communion service was partaken of by a large congregation in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning. In the evening the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jones, gave a most interesting talk on "Spiritualism."

The showers on Sunday were of priceless value to the crops, which sorely needed moistening.

After the bustle of seeding grain, comes the greater hustle of shearing sheep, planting potatoes, corn and mangels, also stone-picking, and rolling. All these diversions leave little time for farmers to discuss politics.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Currey arrived on Saturday evening from Toronto on their annual visit to Mr. Jim Hastie's home and other kindred.

"It never rains but it pours." So runs the old adage. And it generally applies to an overflow of visitors as well. Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and daughter Muriel of Meaford, Mrs. T. Cook of Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden, Miss Gladys and Master Raymond, of Orange Valley, were all guests at Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook's on Sunday. Mr. McFadden favored Zionites with a solo in the afternoon service.

I didn't seem quite fair for a pair of old sports like Editor Irwin and Mr. John Snell to motor out this far on a beautiful June eve without some rollicking lassies in the back seat. They've promised to amend their ways when the car will guide itself.

Farm papers from the cities have been predicting all winter very low prices for potatoes when the pits were opened in the spring. Drat their gross ignorance! Potatoes now are fifty per cent. higher than six weeks ago and promise to go higher, as the demand is brisk. We'll have to pay less heed to The Farmers' Sun's market reports and political editorials. Both are unreliable, eh?

Flesherton

(Our own correspondent.)

Dr. Jamieson, Independent-Conservative candidate in South Grey, held a successful meeting in the High school here last week. Notwithstanding the busy season a large audience greeted the candidate and listened with deep interest to his excellent address. The issues of the campaign were ably dealt with by the speaker in his usual logical manner, clean and free from anything offensive to those who differ with him. Addresses were also given by Reeve McTavish, who occupied the chair, and Mr. George Mitchell of this place. The Hawaiian orchestra here supplied pleasing music. Editor Irwin and son Frank of Durham accompanied Dr. Jamieson here.

About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning residents of Toronto street were roused by an electrical display on the hydro power line which for a time created some alarm. Fire flew in all directions and a large pole ignited before the power was shut off. The trouble was caused by a faulty insulator allowing the high tension wire to ground. It was a brilliant bit of fireworks while it lasted.

The Baptist choir at Ceylon visited the Baptist Church here on Sunday morning and assisted the choir in the service. The choir here made a return visit to Ceylon in the afternoon and assisted in the service there.
