NEWS AROUND TOWN

Women's Institute Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Durham branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. N. McCannel on Thursday, July 5. A paper will be given by Mrs. (Rev.) Cameron and Miss Mary McGirr. Roll Call, How Best to Keep Cool.

Union Meeting To-morrow.

The Methodist and Presbyterian congregations will hold a union meeting Friday (to-morrow) night in the Methodist Church at which stereoptical views of the North Summer School to be held at Port Elgin will be presented. All are invited.

Cemetery Annual Bee.

The annual "bee" at the cemetery will be held next Thursday, July 5. It is unnecessary to remind our readers of their duty to attend this annual gathering and donate a few hours towards the decoration and upkeep of the home of our ancestors and our own ultimate resting-place. The trustees have done good work and are to be congratulated on the appearance of the grounds, but with the limited amount of money at their disposal they simply cannot hire everything done. The annual "bee" is the proper thing and should be largely attended with teams, barrows, shovels and other tools. It is in order for the trustees to ask the plowholders to show their interest by being present.

Honored Pastor and Family.

At a congregational meeting held in the Methodist Church Friday night, reports showing marked increase in every department were presented by the various officials. At the close an address was presented to Mr. Cole expressive of appreciation of his work during the past five years, and Mrs. Cole was made the recipient of a handsome leather chateleine containing fifty-one dollars in gold. Crowded congregations were in attendance at both services on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Cole left for their new home in Elmira this Thursday morning and will begin regular work on Sunday. The daughters, Misses Marie and Gertrude, leave to-day for their summer cottage at Oliphant and will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Cole in the course of a few weeks.

Saugeen Presbytery Met Tuesday.

The Presbytery of Saugeen held their June meeting on Tuesday at Hon. Dr. Jamieson's summer cottage, Wilder's Lake. The business was largely of a routine nature. The Commissioners who attended the meeting of the General Assembly at Port Arthur gave reports of the debates and business, also their personal impressions. Guthrie Church, Harrison, was granted its request to continue as at present until September 1. Some committees reported concerning the work in their charge, and outlined further plans to make it more efficient. The next meeting will be held in Mount Forest in September. Then the members of Presbytery and their wives enjoyed a picnic dinner together and spent the afternoon in various games. Congratulations and a hearty vote of thanks were extended to Dr. Jamieson, who, in reply, expressed his pleasure in their meeting and urged them to come back again next year.

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE RYAN

Mrs. George Ryan, an aged and highly esteemed resident of Durham and vicinity for many years, died yesterday morning at the age of 81 years after an illness of six months from anaemia.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Jane Woods, was born in 1842 in the County of Cavan, Ireland. When twenty years of age, she came to this country and married the late George Ryan, to whom she was betrothed in the Old Land. For a time they lived in Esqueving Township, and then came to Glenelg, where they lived for many years before coming to Durham.

To them was born a family of eight, four sons and four daughters: William, George, Thomas (deceased) and Robert, Mrs. Thomas Nichol, Mrs. Robert Douglas, Mrs. John Whitaker and Mrs. M. Kearns, the survivors all residing in town.

The deceased was an Anglican in religion, a kindly and respected neighbor and esteemed by all who knew her.

Interment takes place to-morrow (Friday) afternoon to Durham cemetery.

The Chronicle extends sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

McDONNELL—KRESS

At high noon yesterday a very pretty home wedding was quietly solemnized at the home of Mrs. Jacob Kress, when her daughter, Maud Rose, was united in marriage to Mr. Wilfrid McDonnell. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, peonies and orange blossoms being beautifully blended and arranged with artistic effect. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of only a few near relatives, and the vows were administered by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith of the Presbyterian Church. The wedding march was played by Miss Beulah Stonehouse.

The bride was beautifully attired in gray canteen crepe, Egyptian blouse, gray shoes and stockings to match, a large picture hat and gray squirrel stole.

At the close of the ceremony congratulations were tendered by Mr. D. G. Banting, to which the groom made a pleasing response.

A buffet luncheon followed, after which the happy couple left on a motor trip to Muskoka for a brief honeymoon.

The numerous costly and beautiful presents attest the popularity in which the bride was held.

On their return they will take up housekeeping here, where the groom will continue in his lucrative business as a barber. The Chronicle extends congratulations and best wishes.

KRESS—THOMPSON

Mr. Harper Kress, M. C., of the Bank of Montreal, Walkerville, and son of Mrs. Jacob Kress of this place, was married at Tillsonburg June 20 to Miss Dorothy Thompson of that town. Rev. Mr. Dunbar, Anglican clergyman, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Kress left after the ceremony for Buffalo, Albany, New York and other cities and will reside at Walkerville. The Chronicle joins the community in wishing them joy and happiness.

THOMAS REAY KILLED WHEN PLOUGH HORSES RAN AWAY

Mr. Thomas Reay of Major, Sask., a former resident of Bentinck Township, happened with a serious accident on Monday, June 18, when ploughing with a six-horse riding plough. The two lead horses took fright at a hole in the ground, and pulled Mr. Reay off the seat in between the plough and wheel. He was tangled up in the lines and could not free himself.

The horses ran about twenty rods before being caught by his sister, Mrs. Edmonds. The doctor and nurse were hurriedly summoned from the nearest town and all that tender care and loving hands could do, was done for him, but he passed away on Tuesday morning at 8.30.

The remains were brought East by his sisters, Mrs. D. Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edmonds, with whom he made his home while in the West.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the home of his nephew, Mr. Charles Reay, who lives on the old homestead, near Vickers, where the deceased was born 58 years ago, and lived nearly all his life in this vicinity.

He leaves as chief mourners five brothers, John and Henry of Vickers; and William and Joseph, on the 2nd Concession of Bentinck; and Chris., of near Hanover. Another brother, Fred, died a few months ago. The sisters are: Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Durham; Mrs. William Torry, and Mrs. John Murdick, of Bentinck, and Mrs. David Hopkins and Mrs. Joseph Edmonds of Major, Sask.

The deceased was an upright, honest man and many will regret to hear of his sudden demise.

Amongst the floral offerings, were noticed wreaths from brothers and sisters, a cross from the Ladies' Aid of the Union Church, Major, Sask., a pillow from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter, also of Major, Sask; wreath from his nieces and a spray from his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reay.

Interment was made in Hanover cemetery.

Dr. Jamieson's Official Majority 314

The elections of 1923 are now a matter of history, and once again the riding of South Grey is represented by the Hon. Dr. Jamieson. His defeat in 1919 by Dr. Leeson, who won out with a majority of 953 was not regarded seriously as a permanent defeat and the result at the polls on Monday, when Dr. Jamieson was again returned the winner by 314 of a majority, has proven the strength of the statement often uttered. A notable feature of Dr. Jamieson's return to the Legislature is that he is put back there to a large extent by the voters who rejected him four years ago. While the majorities in the towns and villages, with the exception of Flesherton, were larger than in 1919, the slump in the support to Dr. Leeson is really the cause of his defeat. The edly a strong factor in the defeat of the U. F. O. standard-bearer. Below we give a tabulated statement of the result of the polling as received last night over the telephone from M. E. Murray, Returning Officer. For the sake of comparison, we give both the figures of 1919 and 1923:
