

Corner Concerns
(Our own correspondent.)

The elections are now over and everybody, we presume, is satisfied. The country wanted a change of Government and they have got it. J. J. Morrison, the real head of the U. F. O., said they preferred a block in the House to being in power, and they have got their wish. And as for celebrations, they were equally satisfactory. The U.F.O. held theirs all the two weeks preceding the election so as to be ready to step aside and not interfere with the main attraction when it came along after the battle was fought and victory won.

For prophets of different kinds, Grey County has got all the rest of the world skinned forty ways. Take our weather prophets on last February and March, and The Durham Review correspondent's predictions on the June elections, and what could beat them? Of course on some minor points the latter was a little out, but it would be very unbecoming for us to allude to them after they have done so much to elect Jamieson and caused such a turnover of the vote in their respective townships.

Our annual picnic of Sunday school and day school will be held in Matthews' bush on Friday, June 29. Everybody is working to make it a pleasant, successful affair, and everybody will be made welcome.

Mrs. John Poole, son Lorne, and daughter Margaret, accompanied by Grandma Lyons, all of Buffalo, are visiting at our home.

Mr. Alex. Allan of Toronto was up to renew acquaintance with old friends on election day.

Miss Ruby Matthews is home from Owen Sound Business College.

Mrs. James McNally of Traveston is spending a few days with her brother, William Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lennox and two daughters were at Teeswater on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson and Miss Vera, accompanied by Mrs. Douglas, visited relatives around Galt last week.

Mrs. Arthur Thomas left on Tuesday morning for Toronto to spend a few days before leaving for England. Crops are now looking excellent. The recent showers have done much good.

Mr. John Lawrence was the oldest voter at our poll on Monday and although over 90 is still in good health.

Mr. James Johnson has started to take down the old Orange Hall opposite the church. It is more than 60 years since it was built, when prominent amongst the settlers of this part were large families of Flemings, Athesons, Pattersons, Leppards, Crittendens, Morrisons, Chapmans, Pollocks, etc., etc., but possibly the man highest in the Order was the late Samuel Orchard.

Professor Patterson of the Western College, who is visiting relatives here, renewed acquaintance with Rev. Whealen, a former pupil of his, on Sunday.

Ebenezer.

(Our own correspondent.)

The farmers here feel much benefited by the recent rains, more so, at any rate, than by the election.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reay and daughter were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Reay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey.

Miss Rena Livingston of North Bay has returned home to spend the holidays with her parents here.

Mr. H. W. Hunt was in Owen Sound a few days last week on business.

Mrs. George Henderson of Hampden is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Johnston.

Mrs. Robert Cripps and children of Hanover are spending a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Torry.

Mrs. Robert Johnston visited her brother, Mr. Irvine Henderson and family of Guelph, recently.

Miss Margaret Mighton, who has spent the winter months in Toronto, returned home last week for the summer months. Miss Vera Alice of Thornton accompanied her.

Mr. Rex Lawrence and sister Miss Annie, visited their sister, Mrs. N. Phillips of Park Head one day last week.

Much sympathy is felt for the Reay family in the death of their brother Thomas, which occurred near Major, Sask., on the 19th inst. His sudden death was caused by a team of horses he was working that had got out of his control. Deceased was well known in this district, having lived here the greater part of his life, but for the past few years has made his home in the West, where two of his sisters reside. The remains arrived on the Monday night train and the funeral takes place from the old home, now occupied by his nephew, Mr. Charles Reay, tomorrow (Wednesday). Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edmonds and Mrs. David Hopkins of Major, Sask., arrived home for the funeral. The two latter are sisters of the deceased. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

Darkies' Corners

(Our own correspondent.)

It has been extremely warm for the past week, but after the election, the temperature has changed. The U.F.O. went out heated up and Conservatives came in showing their coolness, it even affecting the weather. Now we need not go dry any longer, it even showing itself before it was known for certain that the Tory Government was in. The U. F. O. have left a clean sheet. They used no disgraceful or dishonest ways of securing votes; but Tory and Liberty League, which, we are sorry to say so many of the prominent men of Durham are co-workers with combined together to overthrow the U.F.O. Government. No matter what means they took to do it. No one need preach temperance after that, for when people have a chance to vote for a good, honest, upright, temperance man as Mr. Drury, and don't do it, take what you get and say nothing. We, the U.F.O. are of course a little disappointed, but we are not down-hearted, no, not by any means. Try, try, again. Right is Might! It is better to try honestly and manly and fail than to try dishonestly and disgracefully and win.

Mr. Oscar Bell returned home from North Bay Saturday evening.

Masters Gerald and Cecil Ross have been spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. James McGirr and Mr. John Sharpe.

Mrs. Albert Keller and son Ross and Miss Elsie Grant, spent a day recently with the former's parents.

No. 9 boys and girls played baseball with Rocky teams about a week ago.

The Rocky boys and the No. 9 girls were the victors.

We are pleased to see Mrs. A. Park able to be out again after her long illness.

Mr. A. Robertson, Durham, was a recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. W. Nichol.

Roadwork commences Wednesday, with Mr. John Sharpe as pathmaster. Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lindsay, a daughter.

A number from this part expect to attend the Sunday school convention at Zion on Thursday.

BORN.

Elvidge.—At Walkerville, on June 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Elvidge, a daughter (June Ailene).

Lindsay.—In Gleneig, on June 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lindsay, a daughter.

Sharp.—In Normandy, on June 22, to Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp, Hampden, a son (William John).
