

Holstein.

(Our own correspondent.)

On Thursday evening of last week the third public meeting of S.S. No. 3 (Holstein School), was held to decide regarding the continuance of the Continuation school. After much discussion the vote was taken and resulted in 45 voting for and 24 against the scheme. This is a good start on the way to success in this line.

Our football boys journeyed to Walkerton last Friday evening and succeeded in defeating the team of that town, the score being 2-0. The standing now is:

	Won	Lost	Pts.
Holstein	3	1	6
Walkerton	0	4	0
Mildmay	3	1	6

Mildmay and Holstein are now a tie. Home and home games are being arranged which will no doubt decide the winner, as goals count.

Miss Lizzie Ross, who has spent a couple of weeks with her sister here, returned to her home in Detroit on Friday of last week.

Christie presided. Rev. F. W. Madden, Toronto, gave an address on "The Service of Worship in the Sunday School," and conducted a round table talk on Sunday school problems, and at the evening session spoke on educational evangelism. Rev. W. J. Walker also addressed the meeting.

Mrs. George Hostetter returned from Detroit on Thursday of last week after spending two weeks with relatives here.

The Rev. G. S. Scott received a message on Saturday informing him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Jarvis, in Brantford Hospital. She left the village a couple of weeks ago to receive treatment in that institution. She had been in failing health for some time, but nothing serious was expected. We understand the funeral took place in Toronto on Monday.

Miss Rose West went to Kitchener Wednesday to try her examination in music.

Miss E. N. Sharpe spent a few days recently with friends in Toronto, returning Tuesday evening.

Oh, yes, once again we come along to have a little chat. The election is over and we hear some good old Tories boasting about the big turnover and laughing at the sick U.F.O. Well, I fail to see where they have much to boast about, for there was no such turnover as there was in the past election, and of course we have to admit that it is not always the best end that wins. I venture to say we are not down-hearted yet, and just to remind you of the past and the future we hope to keep in touch with the good things which we have been offered by the Tory candidates.

Of course we know very well they have no intention of standing good for what they brag about, but then they had to have a sure bait to get the fish or they would not have got them. Well, it makes but a very little difference anyway, as the farmers have a pretty average crop this year and if they don't get a big enough price for their products we guess they can hold them till they do. As to roadmaking; well, a tack would have head enough on to know that to do away with the good roads is only putting a stop-block on progress, both for the farmers and the townsman, and a sure defeat in the next election. Well, here is hoping for something better in the future. I still remain a U.F.O.

DEAF AND DUMB COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN CALEDON

A wedding that was unique in the Orangeville vicinity took place last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reid, Caledon. The bride, Uretta Lillian Duke, and the groom, George Bridgeford, of Hamilton, are both deaf and dumb. They met at a deaf and dumb church in Hamilton. Rev. H. L. Partridge, pastor of the Orangeville Methodist Church, was the officiating clergyman. Miss Alice Webb played the wedding music, and Miss Kathleen Reid acted as interpreter. After a short honeymoon the silent couple will reside at Dundas.
