Joe Quillinan, Margaret Dunbar and Elizabeth McGrath, pupils of Separate S.S. No. 7, were all successful at the recent Entrance examination. Congratulations.

Mr. Sandy McDonald has been quite unwell of late and under the doctor's care.

A most happy meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Charles McClocklin recently and some excellent papers given.

Biggest ever! The garden party held at the home of Mr. William Baker on Thursday evening of last week under the auspices of North Glenelg Baptist Church was the greatest success in point of numbers and financial returns they've ever had. Crowds were present from many outside places. There was a splendid program, a lively baseball match between teams from Dornoch and Zion, well-hit grounds by Smith Bros., and the Markdale Band gave some excellent numbers. Among those taking part in the program were: Short, pithy addresses by Rev. Aird of Mulock, Rev. E. Cameron and Rev. J. E. Peters of Durham, and Mr. D. A. McIntosh of Dornoch; humorous recitations were given by Mrs. Ed. Beirnes of Orange Valley, Catharine Timmins, and two extra good numbers by Miss Miriam Cameron and her brother Eben, of town, also a more serious one by Mr. Joe Davidson. The very sweetest of violin music was given by Mr. William Sharpe and family of Welbeck, and by Mr. John Teeter and Mr. Percy Butt. The songs by Mr. G.W. Littlejohns of Orange Valley, by the Misses Lennox of Egremont and the Misses Eadie of Toronto were taking numbers. The Japanese lantern drill by a bevy of fair ones was a pretty sight. Mr. and Mrs. Baker and the congregation and pastor were heartily congratulated over the success of the evening. Proceeds at the gate were $113.00, and Messrs. J. Laughlin and James Ellison did a splendid trade in the booth besides.

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of old classmates and friends hereabouts, took place at Regina on Saturday, July 14, when Mr. Thomas Wilfrid Hunt, second youngest son of Mr. E. W. and the late Mrs. Hunt, was happily wedded to Miss Helen Electa Musselman of Regina. The happy groom was one of Glenelg's brightest boys and is an honor graduate of Saskatchewan University, while his fair bride was a most successful teacher. All unite in wishing them a most happy future.

Mr. Robert Henderson of Yellow Grass, Sask., was recently taken to the famous Mayo Bros. Hospital, at Rochester, Minn., to undergo an operation in the head, but upon examination an abscess was discovered which could not be removed from the brain. Treatment was given, but we learn only slight improvement is yet made. Accompanied by his wife and brother-in-law, the patient arrived here on a stretcher on Saturday and was conveyed by Dr. Murray to the home of his father, Councillor Joseph Henderson, at Maxwell. Numerous friends here sympathize with the sufferer in his affliction.

The Misses Sophia, Kate and Mamie Findlay are visiting in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bellamy, son Robert, and nephew, Mervyn Osborne visited the latter's home at the Ba-teau on Sunday. Mrs. Bellamy remained to nurse her sister, Nurse Osborne, who has been ill for some time and on Sunday was seized with pneumonia.

Mrs. Alf. Down, Mr. and Mrs. E. Guentzler and daughter and Mrs. Holben and son of Cleveland, Ohio, motored here and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karstedt and Mr. and Mrs. George McTavish. Miss Elda Karstedt, who was visiting at Cleveland, returned home with the party.

Miss Mabel Binnie, sister of Mrs. W. Boyd, of this place, figured in the big robbery in Toronto last week. It was Miss Binnie, employed in the Osier & Co. office, who directed the bank messenger seeking shelter, to the place of safety with the large sum of money he carried. The young lady survived well the nervous shock by the tragedy witnessed.

Mr. N. C. Mancell, a former principal of the Public school here, but recently supervising principal at the Soo, is reported leaving to occupy a similar position at Iroquois Falls.

A motor car, driven by a very determined-looking young lady, had just knocked down a man, fortunately without injuring him.

She did not try to get away, but stopped the car and faced him man-fully.

"I am sorry it happened," she said, grudgingly. "You should take more care when you are walking. I am an experienced driver. I have been driving a car for seven years."
"Well," replied the victim, "I'm not a novice myself. I've been walking for fifty-seven years."
