

NEWS AROUND TOWN

SAUNDERS-MATTHEWS

On Thursday last at high noon a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews on Queen street when their daughter, Blanche Margaret, was united in marriage to Mr. Donald McPhail Saunders, merchant of this place. Rev. J. E. Peters, B.A., was the officiating clergyman and was assisted in the ceremony by the bride's uncle, Rev. W. A. Matthews of Shallow Lake. At the appointed time the bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. William J. McFadden of Markdale, aunt of the bride, and looked charming in a gown of bisque canton crepe, prettily beaded, and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses, sweet peas, forget-me-nots and maidenhair fern. The contracting couple during the ceremony stood beneath a white arch from which hung white bells. The ceiling was prettily festooned with pink and white ribbons and the room richly decorated with snap-dragons, asters and geranium. During the singing of the register the groom's brother, Mr. Bert Saunders, gave a beautiful rendering of the bridal hymn "O Promise Me."

After the ceremony congratulations and best wishes were extended by about fifty guests, all immediate friends and relatives of the contracting couple.

The dining-room, where all enjoyed a sumptuous repast, was charmingly attractive and the four-story bride's cake was a fitting and beautiful statue on the centre of the bride's table. The assistants in the dining-room were Mrs. Thomas Davis and Mrs. S. T. Chapman of Durham and Mrs. Moody of Dundalk, aunts of the bride. The many costly and useful gifts attest the popularity of the bride, who was well and favorably known, being chief operator in the telephone central here for a number of years.

In the afternoon the newly-married couple left by motor for Owen Sound, Shallow Lake and other points north, the bride traveling in a going-away suit of navy blue tricotine with light hat.

The groom is a native of this town with an overseas experience of three or four years, being twice wounded. He went to England with the 147th Battalion and from England went to France, where he joined the 58th Battalion as a private. He was soon promoted on the field to the rank of Sergeant and now holds a Lieutenancy in the 31st Grey Regiment.

The Chronicle joins the community in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Saunders a full measure of happiness.

OPENING MEETING OF I.O.D.E. HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

The Canadian Greys Chapter of the I.O.D.E. held their opening meeting for the fall term at the home of Mrs. J. Burgess on Tuesday evening. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was not up to former meetings, but plans were made for a very brisk season.

Arrangements are under way to have Miss Drake of Arthur give her famous play, "A Night in Fairyland," early in October. With the hope of inculcating a love of history in the minds of the young people, the Chapter is offering prizes to both High and Public schools for historical essays, the subjects to be chosen by the Chapter. At the conclusion of the business a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Henderson and nephew, Mrs. Drummond and Miss Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Catton, Mr. and Mrs. William Bogle and daughter and Mrs. S. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McLean and child, and Mr. and Mrs. Eckhardt and two boys motored in three cars to Wasaga Beach on Sunday and had a pleasant outing.

INSTITUTE MEETING LAST WEEK HAD MANY GOOD FEATURES

Good Papers and Program Given and An Exciting Tug-of-War Witnessed in Which Married Ladies Won.

The September meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. S. Patterson, Glenelg. About forty ladies were in attendance and a very pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent in listening to a good program and a general discussion of affairs. Mrs. J. S. McIlraith gave a good paper on "The Need of the Body for Food," and another by Miss E. Scott on "No. 9 Pioneer School Days" was very interesting and contained much useful information and pioneer history. A well-rendered duet was given by Misses Bell and Blyth.

A tug-of-war between the married and single ladies was keenly contested, but the married ones proved too husky for the unmarried contin-

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. John Aldred, who motored here from Ceylon, Sask., a few weeks ago, started Monday morning on the return trip in his trusty Ford coupe. Mr. Aldred is a man well up in years but well-preserved in body and youthful in spirit. He likes driving and says it doesn't tire him. We wish him a pleasant trip home.

Mr. Charles Allen of Long Beach, California, spent a few days last week with his uncle, Mr. Hamilton Allen and other friends in the vicinity. He motored here from Grand Rapids and talks of extending his trip by returning by way of Montreal, thence south into American territory.

Rev. E. Cameron is enjoying his trip West, preaching one Sunday in Moosomin and last Sunday in Yorkton.

Mrs. William Wall of Kitchener is in town renewing acquaintances. She reports times dull in Kitchener and not much evidence of opening up very soon.

Mr. Wilbert Green of Cleveland, O., was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bleitch of Williamsford have been engaged for a year by Mr. Thomas Davis of Glenelg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davis and little daughter of Toronto spent over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Glenelg.

Miss Rhena Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Livingston of Bentinck, left Friday to engage in teaching in Mattawa, where she has secured a school for the current year.

Mrs. Dan. C. MacDonald and son Brad, have been visiting her brother John in Milton, and also took in the Toronto Exhibition.

Miss Annie C. MacKenzie has returned from an enjoyable trip down the St. Lawrence and through the Thousand Islands. She also visited her brother, Duncan, at Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith are on a week's visit with Dr. R. A. Smith, at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. (Rev.) Smith was in Brantford the first of the week, called there by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spiesz and baby have moved to town from Hamilton and have taken rooms with Mrs. (Rev.) Cameron. Mr. Spiesz is the C. N. R. express messenger running out of Durham. Mrs. Spiesz is a pupil in elocution of Owen A. Smiley and has appeared in Massey Hall, Toronto. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Spiesz to Durham.

FINDS SISTER'S BODY FLOATING IN CISTERN

Treacherous Cover Tips and Child Falls to Her Death.

When the cover tipped, little 8-year-old Jean Gooderham of Agincourt fell into a cistern and was drowned. Missed by her 10-year-old brother, her hat was found and then the lad saw his sister's body floating in the water. Without assistance he managed to pull her out, but although Dr. C. D. Farquharson worked over her for over an hour it was found impossible to restore life.

REMARKABLE RAILWAY OPERATING RECORD

Figures prepared at Montreal covering the operation for a period of twelve months of the manifest fast freight trains operated over the Canadian National-Grand Trunk-Central Vermont route between Chicago and Boston through Canada, show a remarkable operating record. These trains were operated every day of the year in one or more sections and on 337 days during the twelve months' period they were on time or less than five minutes late.

Couldn't Fool Wifey.

As Jones wended his uncertain way homeward he pondered ways of concealing his condition from his wife. "I'll go home and read," he decided. "Who ever heard of a drunken man reading a book?"

Later Mrs. Jones heard a noise in the library. "What in the world are you doing in there?" she asked. "Reading, my dear," Jones replied cheerfully. "You old idiot!" she said scornfully, as she looked in at the library door, "shut up that valise and come to bed!"

Little Miriam and Eben Cameron will give a concert at Crawford Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, September 21.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From The Chronicle File of September 10, 1903.

Mr. J. W. Brown, B. A., principal of the schools at Medicine Hat, formerly principal at Hanover, had 8 candidates for Public School Leaving, 4 for third-class Certificates, and five for second-class Certificates and all were successful.

If we are to expect owners of good race-horses to try their luck here it is necessary to put the track in better condition.

The south half of the Mockler property was purchased by E. W. Limin, who will build on it before long.

It is the intention of Mr. Robert Burnett to open up his new store in J. M. Hunter's block on Saturday next.

Mr. W. T. Petrie of Holstein is on the sick list. On Tuesday morning he was reported dead, but the report proved untrue.

On Tuesday morning of last week the day for opening school, the Harrieston High school building was burned, nothing remaining but the brick walls. There was $4,600 insurance on it, but not nearly enough to cover the loss. They will commence rebuilding at once. The fire supposed of incendiary origin.

Mr. W. P. Paterson has closed his business here to allow Mr. A. S. Hunter to move the shop to make way for his new store on the Stewart property.

Mrs. Neil McKechnie left Tuesday morning for Toronto to see her husband, who is suffering from nervous prostration and undergoing treatment in the hospital.

Excavation started yesterday for the new store to be erected by Mr. Hunter.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Duncin MacKenzie, who died Sunday last at the age of 56 years.

Mount Forest lost a musical artist in the person of Miss Whelpley, who was recently married to Mr. Joseph Rickaby, formerly editor of the Mount Forest Confederate, but now of St. Joseph's Island.

Mr. James Allan, Jr., and Miss Hargrave are to be married this Wednesday afternoon.

September 17, 1903.

Mr. Patrick O'Neil of Mulock sold his farm recently to Mr. Traynor of Brant Township, son-in-law of Mr. John Wright of this town.

Reports from Toronto are not at all favorable regarding the condition of Mr. Neil McKechnie, who is undergoing treatment.

Mr. Telford and his assistants have taken the levels and made the measurements for the new sidewalk on the south side of Lambton street.

On Sunday evening Mr. Thome's Reid met with a serious accident in trying to stop a runaway horse that was driven by his son. In the attempt the buggy shaft struck the old gentleman on the breast, inflicting serious injury. The son was thrown out and considerably shaken up. The horse stopped suddenly when he ran into a tree at the corner of George and Queen streets.

Owing to the serious illness of our daughter Maud, who is down with typhoid, we are unable to give much of our personal attention to the paper.
