Monthly Meeting W. M. S.

The W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church met on Friday, September 14 in the vestry of the church. In the absence of Mrs. Derby, the President, Mrs. John Bell took the chair. The meeting opened with a hymn and prayer. Miss Calder gave a Bible reading. Miss Ethel Derby read a good story on China, telling of the Christianizing of the Chinese and of the great number in China adopting Occidental customs. Miss Margaret McGirr took the paper, which was on Oriental Immigration. Miss McGirr drew attention to the manner in which we speak of the "foreigner" as if he were not human, allowing him to live in this country, but not allowing him the franchise. Miss McIlraith gave a very interesting talk on her work as a Deaconess in the outlying districts of Toronto. She sees the funny side of her work with which she often came in contact in civil service departments. Miss McIlraith should be commended for the part she is taking in this work and deserves all the help of her church. A most interesting meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Musicals Is Reported Good.

The musicals given last Monday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. (Rev. E. Cameron) was an occasion long to be remembered and enjoyed by all present. The double parlor was beautiful with ferns and flowers. Little Thelma and Audrey Bell proved to be dainty little door ladies. The lunch was served by Miss McIlraith, Mrs. Yips and Mrs. Graine. Mrs. J. McFadyen was treasurer for the day. The program was continuous, consisting of baby grand sonora selections. Instrumental duets were given by Misses Fursman, A.T.C.M. and were much enjoyed. Mrs. Spence gave three numbers, "The Prodigal Girl," "Pat's Mistake," and "Sammy Grier." All who heard Mrs. Spence want to hear her again. Her rendering and articulation show training of high order. Miriam and Eben Cameron gave several numbers in their usual manner. One number amusing the audience was "When Polly Put Pepper in the Tea." Little Mary Moffet and Edna Graine assisted in this number. The proceeds, after expenses, will go to the Red Cross, Durham.—Com.

HELWIG—REDFORD

A very pretty autumn wedding took place at noon yesterday, Wednesday, September 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudolph, when Inez May Redford became the bride of Mr. Norman W. Helwig of Toronto, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Helwig, Hanover. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. R. A. Facey and took place under an arch of autumn foliage and flowers. The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. C. Rudolph, wore a charming French gown of shell pink georgette, her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and wore the gift of the groom, a diamond eustace ring. Miss Cecie Wilson of Owen Sound was bridesmaid, wearing blue and silver taffeta with black picture hat and carrying premier roses. Mr. Roscoe Helwig, of Toronto, supported the groom. Miss Vera Zinn played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Miss Winnifred Clarke sang "Because." A buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. Randall of Stratford, the bride's table being beautifully decorated in pink and white, bordered with pale pink ribbon, knotted here and there with flowers interwoven and centred with the wedding cake. The dining-room throughout was tastefully adorned in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Helwig left for Bigwin Inn, Lake of Bays, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit, gray cloche hat, and gray squirrel choker. On their return they will reside at 147 Balmoral Avenue, Toronto. The Chronicle joins with the many Durham friends of the bride in extending best wishes to the young couple.

MARSHALL—LEITCH

On Wednesday, September 5th, at Toronto, the marriage was solemnized of Jessie Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leitch of Toronto, to Robert John Marshall, L.D.S., D.D.S., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall of Hampden. Rev. Dr. W. L. Armstrong officiated. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy tricotine with beige crepe blouse and hatch to match. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left to spend their honeymoon in Montreal. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

BEST PICTURE OF SEASON HERE THIS WEEK-END

Sequel To "Me And My Gal" Plays At Local Theatre To-morrow and Saturday Nights.

"Squibs Wins the Calcutta Sweep" will be at the Veterans' Star to-morrow and Saturday night and already we can picture the queue of people waiting in line to see the show. The picture is recognized as one of the very best that ever came out of England and is even funnier than "Me And My Gal." Commenting on the picture, The London (Ontario) Free Press says in part: "Giggles were followed by laughs, laughs by shouts, and shouts by screams at the Allen Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening when the famous English comedy 'Squibs Wins the Calcutta Sweep' literally screaming mirth with every flicker of the silver sheet and with a small dash of seriousness thrown in, delighted crowds that filled every seat in the theatre and those, some from the time the doors were thrown open at 11 o'clock until the last fade-out at 11." This picture will be in Durham for two nights only and is being shown at the popular prices of 16c. and 27c.

BRUCE JUDGES DID WELL

Four Won Prizes in Various Events at Canadian National Exhibition.

There were no less than 291 entries in the Junior Farmers' Judging Competitions at the C.N.E. this year. There were six entries from Bruce. Says The Walkerton Telescope, "and four of them had the honor of being prize winners. Stanley Tolton of Brant took thirteenth prize in judging fruit and vegetables. Malcolm Tolton took fifth place in sheep-judging. Norman Schmidt of Mildmay captured twelfth position in beef cattle judging and Alvin Monk of Elmwood was sixth in picking the swine."

A FAIR DECISION TO MAKE

(London Advertiser.) The London Board of Education turned down the appeal of a coal merchant who claims to have lost $1 on each 1,800 tons delivered last winter on contract. His plea was that he should be recouped for the amount so lost.

It is easy enough to see where a fairly strong case could be built up for payment of the amount lost, but business is not carried on in that way. Were it done so, it would mean that the coal dealer, or any other business man, would be certain of making money on every deal or on every sale. It would eliminate the possibility of loss from every transaction.

Rightly or wrongly, the business world has seized on the idea that a contract is a contract and the board of education, in adhering to that idea, probably had in mind the fact that they wished to avoid the setting up of a precedent that might be an awkward thing to live with in the future.

ON THE STREET

The girls are chasing on the street, may heaven bless their little feet! In olden times the little maids eschewed the midnight street parades; in quiet homes they spent their nights enjoying safe and sane delights; they read good books that soothed the soul, and played a game of crokinole; at seemingly hours they sought the hay and slept the peaceful hours away. And if at night a damsel fair desired to journey anywhere there always was a stately aunt who by her side would gallivant and guard her from the masher's wile, the hoodlum's stare and sinner's guide. But times have changed and at this date each girl's the maiser of her fate; if she elects to roam the street and elbow Mike and flirt with Pete, there is no guardian aunt on deck to take her gently by the neck and run her home with kindly tact and there declaim the riot act. The morning papers we peruse and shudder at the dark red news. The tough and hoodlum ply their trades; the victims oft are winsome maids; who gambol up and down the street, and elbow Mike and flirt with Pete. And we bewail the good old days, the sheltered homes, the quiet ways, the girls as sweet as growing plants, who walked at evening with their aunts.—Walt Mason.

LET THE PAPER DO IT

The other day several prominent citizens of Yazoo City were discussing a local situation and thought something should be done. After it was found that it was unpleasant, unprofitable and risky for any direct or civic group, it was the consensus of opinion that it was an opportune time for the newspaper to jump in with action to be taken by any individual with both feet and force the desired action.

There isn't anything strange about such proceedings as this, comments The Yazoo (Mississippi) Sentinel. There is hardly a week passes but the mail brings a letter to the editor asking him to "jump on" somebody and nearly always the writer wants his own name kept secret. If the newspaper were to do all that is asked of it it would be a growling, snarling thing—and would accomplish nothing. The newspaper is ever ready to oppose wrongs, or fight for the right to demand practical reforms, to praise the worthy and blame the unworthy. They are unafraid. But the truth is, most of the demands that the paper "jump in" with both feet and force action" are selfish propositions and are usually urged by the people who themselves are unwilling to do exactly what they request the newspapers to do.

I DUNNO!

Where are the boys of the old brigade, What knewed a monkey wrench from a spade, An' tended the cattle down in the glade? I dunno!

Where are the girls—they all knew how, To weed a garden and milk a cow, Where are them red-checked maidens now? I dunno!

Where are the boys that once we had When you was a girl and I was a lad, Up in the mornin' to help ole dad? I dunno!

Many's the night I lie awake Askin' myself, for heaven's sake, Where are the girls who could cook and bake? I dunno!

Nobuddy works this side of Toronto, Plenty of work, but they don't want to, And as to the girls—where've they gone to? I dunno!

No more you hear the happy hum of us, It looks like the House of Refuge for some of us, You ast me, mister, what'll become of us? I dunno!

Matt and Mariah are married complete, They are both looking smooth and shiny and neat, But—where, and on what, and when do they eat? I dunno!

Each of these two young folks is a stung one, But wait till the good old stork has brung one, What the Sam Hill will they do with the young one? I dunno!

STAMPING OUT PROFANITY

The weakness of a man is judged by his profanity. This is especially emphasized by the person who desires to be the centre of the circle in the smoking car of the train or steamer. Such men are more or less a danger to the community and it is seldom they are found doing good works. Their profanity, not to say vulgarity, places them in a class by themselves, one in which ordinary civilized persons have no desire to be included. In opposition to this class of people there are a number of organizations laboring to overcome their weakness. One of these is the Holy Name Society of the Roman Catholic Church which has made steady progress for many years. Occasionally the membership, which is composed of men, hear special sermons with strong pronouncements against, as a priest in Toronto recently terms it, the tendency of the day toward profanity and irreverence. It is a valuable work that is being done to remove the poison from the mouth of the public and to place in its stead strong mental stimulants that cannot but build character and give force to men of the future.

His Luck.

"Ah," exclaimed a man, "see a pin and pick it up and all day you'll have good luck," and as he bent over to pick it up his hat fell off into the mud, his glasses dropped from his nose and smashed on the sidewalk, he burst three suspender buttons and tore the buttonhole out of the neck-band of his shirt. FIVE YEARS' AGONY ENDED

When He Took "Fruit-a-tives" For Rheumatism

The Medicine Made From Fruit "Fruit-a-tives" is the long sought remedy for Rheumatism and Lumbago. From all over Canada come letters testifying to this fact.

Mr. John E. Guilderson of Parrsboro, N.S. writes: "I suffered badly with Rheumatism for five years—tried different medicines—wasted by doctors in Amherst—and here at home—but the Rheumatism came back."

In 1916, I saw an advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives" and took a box and got relief, so I took them for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since." 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.
