

REAL FALL WEATHER AT PRICEVILLE FAIR

Cold All Day, With Snow Toward Evening.—Fair Crowd in Attendance, and Exhibits Were Good.

Priceville Fall Fair last Friday was, everything considered, up to its usual good standard, with the home manufactures, dairy and other ladies' work pronounced even better than usual. In dairy products especially Priceville Fair excels, and this year was no exception. The grain exhibit, however, showed the effects of the long drawn out dry spell of last summer, while the roots exhibited were fully one hundred per cent. better than they would have been a month earlier. The wet fall, while coming too late for the grain crop, has been very beneficial to the root crop.

The day set for the Fair broke cloudy and all day threatened rain. Toward evening it turned noticeably cooler and about five o'clock the first perceptible snow of the season fell in this district. The downfall continued for upwards of half an hour and in that time quite a lot fell though the warm ground soon melted it.

Despite the cold, however, we are informed that the crowd in attendance was satisfactory, although only about one-third of the Durham contingent was on the grounds. Following is the prize list as furnished by Secretary Ferguson:

ARNOTT—MCAULIFFE

On Tuesday morning, September 25th, a pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Rose of Lima Church, Detroit, Mich., when Miss Hannah Catherine McAuliffe, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe, was united in marriage to Mr. George E. Arnott. The nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Fedewa.

At ten o'clock the bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. She was charming in a gown of white georgette and Venetian lace, her tulle veil being caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her matron of honor, Mrs. William Coffield, was attired in shell pink georgette with hat to match. The bridesmaid, Miss Stella McAuliffe, wore pale yellow georgette with bandeau of yellow tulle. Their shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and larkspur blended prettily with the colors of their frocks.

Mr. Arnott had as best man Mr.

Wilfred Sharpe of Toronto.

The ushers were George F. Shewell and Mr. William T. Coffield. Mr. Ed. Fleming rendered "Because" effectively.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Coffield, 10429 Waterloo street. The dining-room was decorated in festoons and streamers of white to every angle of the room, while from the centre of the chandelier hung white wedding bells.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnott left immediately after the reception for a motor trip to Monroe, Mich., and Toledo, Ohio, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit of poiret (twill with hat to match, and wore the groom's gift, a baum marten choker.

The Chronicle extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Arnott, who, we understand, will take up residence in Detroit, Mich.
