

Priceville.

(Our own correspondent.)

We are being favored with some exceptionally fine fall weather and all seem to be taking advantage of it. The season has been particularly favorable to work on the County Road, both from the laborers' and headquarters standpoint. We see the first hill on the O.D.R. is being cut down quite considerably. It must be near to where the grade will put it. The Old Durham Road west from Priceville to Durham is almost as good now as east from our village.

The C.P.R. tie inspector is in town this week loading cars from Thomas Harrison's bush and from a few others of the local settlers.

Mr. and Mrs. Mysham of Hamilton are visiting at Mr. John M. McMeek's this week.

Public School Inspector Huff visited our school last week and reports favorably in progress to date.

We were glad to learn that there were no serious injuries to the young people who were unfortunate enough to be involved in the collision on the face of the Highland Hill, just on the western outskirts of the village, last Wednesday evening, when Mr. Roy McDermid of Glenelg lost a valuable horse and had his buggy fairly well broken up. We assume that the bend in the hill hid the horse and buggy from the lights of the car until it was too late to get clear. In any case, the car, belonging to Mr. McVicar of the 4th Concession N.D.R., Glenelg, and driven by Mr. Joe McGrath, was rather badly wrecked in front. The young folk are very fortunate that they escaped with nothing worse than a scare and a lesson learned.

Mrs. John Bunnell is improving nicely after her serious operation.

Mrs. Kate McArthur, Mrs. Archie McLean and Mrs. Thomas McKeown are all on the mend again. We hope to see them all out again very soon.

Mrs. Kate McDonald and daughter Katharine have gone to the city for the winter after spending a few months in their old home on the Town Line, South.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Kennedy have gone to Mimico for the winter and will live with Mrs. A. Shrapin, daughter of Mrs. Kennedy. We hope that the Kennedy family will be back in the spring much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McConkey visited the city for a few days last week. Major McGillivray spent a few days in the city and returned Wednesday evening.

The young minister, Rev. Mr. Harrower of Toronto, who occupied the pulpit last Sunday in the Presbyterian Church, was very favorably received. We are getting some very able material to choose from, which makes the task much more difficult.

Stothart & Fook are busy men again with a heavy shipment to the Toronto stockyards.

Miss Lucas, who has been visiting at Mrs. D. McDougall's here, returned to the city the latter part of the week.

Miss Bertie Aldeorn, R.N., is home again after attending Mrs. Archie McLean, Gravel Road, West.

Quite a number of our people attended Salem services on Sunday and Monday last, where Mr. Maloney delivered his message to packed houses at every service. This young man has opportunities which very few ministers have of preaching to hundreds, where the regular minister probably reaches tens. Such is a big responsibility for so young a man to carry and we hope the good done will at least be in the same proportion to the crowd attending.

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Nichol, North Line, when friends of the young people gathered there and joined in welcoming them to the district. A miscellaneous shower, followed by lunch and dancing, was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Duncan Muir of Kakabeka Falls, Northern Ontario, arrived here last week to nurse her daughter, Mrs. Arch. McLean, Gravel Road, W.

Mr. Farquhar McKinnon of our village attended Woodbridge Fair last week.

Mrs. John McArthur of Alberta called on friends here last week. We understand Mrs. McArthur intends visiting for some time yet with her son, Dr. John McArthur, at Markdale.

C. P. R. maintenance of way gangs were reduced this week, getting down to the regular gang again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clarke and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie, Glenroadin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webber and son spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. John Caswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean and two sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Bourne of town.

Mr. Albert Thompson spent Sunday out around Edge Hill. Must be some attraction out that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Middleton and two children spent Sunday with friends around the Rocky. The U.F.O. Club meeting was held last Friday night in the school-house. There was a good turnout and the program the young people had prepared was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Walter Nichol and sister, Miss McLaughlin, and Mrs. Samuel Patterson and Miss Eliza Patterson, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Keller.

Next Sunday is the last day of Sunday school for this year. We would like all children and their parents to be present.

OWEN SOUND MAN HAD CLOSE CALL WHEN HIT BY TRAIN

Thomas Lyons Hit by Noon C. P. R. Train on Saturday and Had Miraculous Escape From Death.

Hit by the Canadian Pacific inbound passenger train Saturday at noon, Thomas Lyons, aged 56, 827 11th street west, sustained nothing more than a fractured arm, miraculously escaping much more serious injuries and possibly death, says The Owen Sound Sun-Times of Monday.

He is at present in the General and Marine Hospital, where he will likely be a patient for several days.

Lyons was employed as a carpenter in connection with the sewer which the Fry Construction Company is building at the foot of 13th street east at the C.P.R. tracks. The company is also doing some work on the other side of the tracks.

The victim of the accident had just been working at the latter point west of the tracks and was returning to the former spot on the east side. Stepping out from behind a standing freight car he stepped in front of the passenger train which was creeping along very slowly at the time as it was nearing the station.

The fender of the engine caught Mr. Lyons' shoulder and he fell back on the ground at the side of the track. When removed to the Hospital it was found that his right arm had been fractured just below the shoulder.

America, says a recent dispatch from New York City.

A majority of the women there, Herr Linnenkamp has found during his quest, are "beautiful painted dolls."

The Viennese artist has come to the United States seeking the 15 most beautiful American women.

"They are undoubtedly the best-dressed in the world," he says, "but I must say frankly—I hope without offence—that the majority are beautiful painted dolls. I believe I shall have trouble finding fifteen women whose souls peep out of their eyes, and whose faces are eloquent of their temperament."
