

Flesherton.

(Our own correspondent.)

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George King, Oakville, when their daughter, Harriet May, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Hopper of Toronto, son of the late Mr. William Hopper, and Mrs. Hopper, of the 8th Concession, Artemesia. Rev. W. T. Cranston, B. A., officiated. The interior of the house was effectively decorated with autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride, who entered the room on the arm of her father, looked charming in a dress of ivory tulle with tulle veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Violet King, sister of the bride, was gowned in silver grey tulle and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Jean King, little niece of the bride, was dressed in robin's egg blue crepe de chene and carried a basket of pink roses as flower-girl. The groom was assisted by his nephew, Mr. Edgar Linton of Flesherton. The happy couple left for a short visit to Northern parts of Ontario, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue French tricot, with grey hat and shoes to match. Upon their return they will reside in West Toronto.

At shooting matches at Mr. W. T. Pedlar's and Mr. R. Clark's, a lot of barnyard fowl were disposed of.

Rev. H. H. Eaton, president of the Owen Sound District Young People's Society, was at Owen Sound on Wednesday evening last giving an address at a Young People's meeting.

Mr. R. P. Bellamy, inspector for Bank of Toronto, is on a holiday at his old home here.

Mr. Henry Down, Mr. Fred Mathewson and Mr. Mark Wilson left last week on a holiday with some of the hunters going north. They went from Rock Mills James Dargavel, W. Phillips, R. McMullen, Isaac and James Smith, joined by W. Phillips, J. Haverston and R. Phillips of Palmerston.

Mr. T. C. Blakely, tailor, who will be missed here, left last week to join his family at Harriston, where he purposes starting business.

Mr. Marshall Kerton has moved his family to the late John Breen residence and Mr. James Wilson has moved to Mr. McLeod's residence, vacated by Mr. Kerton.

Mr. W. H. Miller is moving this week from the Presbyterian Manse to his very neat bungalow on Toronto street. Messrs. S. Myers and G. Long did the carpenter work on this job, finished in a good workmanlike manner.

At the Presbyterian Guild meeting last week, well attended, the literary part of the program was made especially interesting and instructive by Dr. Turnbull, who spoke on "Communicable Diseases."

Mr. Gordon Long, carpenter here, was injured in an accident on Saturday last at Mr. John Brown's on the East Back Line. While working at a driving shed with others a heavy beam being raised by a pulley swung out of place and fell over ten feet just missing Mr. Long's head but striking his shoulder and leg, bruised and strained the muscles badly. It was a close call and Mr. Long is thankful to have escaped so well.

Service in the Baptist church here was withdrawn on Sunday and anniversary services were held at Rockvale church, morning and evening. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Vose, was assisted by Rev. Mr. Heatherington of Toronto, who preached interesting sermons.

Rev. W. M. Bell-Smith, Y.M.C.A. Secretary, Toronto, supplied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday and delivered a good sermon. Mr. Bell-Smith was formerly pastor at Horning's Mills for five years.

Quarterly Communion service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning. At the evening service Dr. Fred Murray of Toronto assisted the choir and in his usual fine voice gave a well-rendered solo. Halloween passed very quietly here, the boys generally being on good behavior. In some homes a pleasant social time was spent.

Miss Helen Hurd, returned missionary from Japan, was the guest of Mrs. W. A. Armstrong part of last week and gave a helpful talk to the Mission Band.

Dr. Fred Murray of Toronto is visiting his brother and having a hunting holiday here this week.

Mr. C. E. Stephenson of Toronto, formerly manager of the Bank of Montreal here, visited here over the week-end.

Mr. Robert Down made a week-end visit to Toronto and Mrs. Down and children visited her parents near Dundalk.

Mrs. (Dr.) Murray and daughter Betty have returned from visiting her sister at Beachville.

Mrs. C. E. VanDusen returned on Saturday from two weeks' visit with friends in Chicago.

Mrs. H. Down is visiting her daughter at Maxwell this week.

Miss Wilda Martin spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Nat. Caswell.

Mrs. D. McTavish returned on Friday from Oshawa, where she was nursing her son Charlie's wife, who was very ill but has made good recovery.

Mrs. Turnbull of Canfield, near Niagara, visited her son, Dr. Alex. Turnbull, and wife for a few days.

Mrs. (Dr.) Turnbull was called to Toronto on Tuesday by the sudden death of a friend in the city.

Mrs. Alf. Thistlethwaite has returned from visiting in Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Reg. Hutton, who was injured recently in an automobile accident and taken to Owen Sound Hospital for treatment, has been brought to his home on the East Back Line and is making good recovery. A few of his young High school friends here visited him on Friday evening last.

Mr. R. W. Paton, Knox College student, supplied Rev. H. Shannon's pulpits in Osprey on Sunday and visited his parents here on Monday.

Mrs. Welton of Mount Forest was a week-end visitor with her son, G. B. and family here.

At a joint meeting of Flesherton, Eugenia and Proton Station Presbyterian congregations held here on Friday evening last, Rev. Hugh Shannon, moderator, presiding, a call to the pastorate was unanimously given to Mr. Joseph Harrower, B. A., of Toronto, a recent graduate of Knox College. The call comes before Orangeville Presbytery this Tuesday and along with the moderator will be supported by Mr. F. Cairns here, with representatives from the other congregations.

The Ladies' Orange Lodge here held a ten-cent social in Clayton's Hall on Friday evening last which was fairly well attended. With an impromptu debate, music and games a very pleasant time was spent.

At shooting matches held at Harry Genoe's, L. A. Fisher's and Harman Radley's, there were some good marksmen and a lot of fowl were disposed of at good returns for the owners.

Spring street opposite the Methodist church has been greatly improved in appearance by the removal of part of Mrs. VanDusen's large barn, used as a garage, which stood close to the sidewalk.

Mr. John Stewart, West Back Line, has been nursing a sore side for some days, having sustained a fractured rib by a kick from the plow while at work in the field.

Mrs. W. J. Stewart's class of eight girls in the Presbyterian Sunday school held a candy sale on Saturday and realized $5.24 for missions.

At the churches here on Sunday the services were of thanksgiving character and in keeping with Armistice Day. Silent prayer was observed for the two minutes and the National Anthem was sung. At the Methodist church Mr. Otto Clipperton sang a beautiful solo in the morning and Rev. Mr. Eaton likewise in the evening. The sermons were good. At the Presbyterian church Mr. D. H. Gallagher of Knox College, who conducted anniversary at Eugenia in the morning, preached an able sermon here in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Vose was the preacher at the Baptist church.

After renovation reopening service will be held in the Presbyterian church at the usual hour next Sunday when a preacher from Toronto is expected. A fowl supper will be given on Tuesday evening.

Successful anniversary services were held at Mount Zion Methodist church on Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. H. E. Duffield, preached morning and evening and Rev. Mr. Wakefield in the afternoon. Anniversary service was also held at Wesley church, Vandeleur, conducted by the Rev. F. N. Bowes of Markdale, the pastor.

A splendid musical recital given in Massey Hall, Toronto, on Friday evening last at which Miss Gladys Cornfield and Mr. R. N. Cornfield, formerly of this place, took part, was broadcasted, but the radio here gave poor service, disappointing the friends of these brilliant young musicians.

The W.M.S. of the Methodist church had a quilting in the school-room of the church on Thursday last and completed a number of covers to be sent to needy missions in the West.

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. G. Mitchell last week, a feature of the program was a very interesting paper given by Mrs. Wm. Moore on "Doing One's Best."

The delightful summer weather on thanksgiving day was very much enjoyed by all who sought pleasure in the various ways the day was spent. Many visitors were here, among whom were: Mr. Otto Clipperton, Mr. George Mitchell, Jr., Miss Lulu Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McDonald, Toronto, at Mr. G. Mitchell's; Mr. and Mrs. E. Craig, Mr. Horace Veals, Miss Shirley Murray, Miss G. Hymas, Miss Jessie Orr, Toronto, and Mr. E. Robshaw, Dundas, at Dr. Murray's; Mr. Henry LeGard, Mr. Joseph LeGard and Mrs. Herb. LeGard and two children, Toronto, at Mr. Ed. Best's; Mr. Jack Karstedt was home from Owen Sound; Mr. Rob Trimble was home from Hespeler; Miss Dell Thurston, Miss Rene Cargoe, Miss Beatrice Thistlethwaite, and Miss Sophia Findlay were home from Toronto; Mrs. W. Ross of Georgetown visited her sister, Mrs. W. J. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Smith and daughters of Owen Sound visited over Sunday with relatives here and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hogg and Mr. Robert Hogg and mother of Chatsworth visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Littlejohns, Toronto Line.

Mr. W. Vernon Snider of Waterloo was a week-end and holiday visitor at Mr. W. J. Caswell's.

Mr. Will Buchanan, student in the O.A.C., Guelph, visited his parents over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Young of Markdale and friend, Miss Virtue, of Toronto, gave us a call on Monday while on an auto outing on the summer-like day.

We are indebted to Councillor Carruthers, Mr. Joseph Buchanan, and Mr. Wes Plantl, for generous and appreciated treats from their farms.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. VanDusen, who have spent the past two months here leave on Wednesday for Chicago, their former home, from where they will go soon to Seattle to reside and enjoy the fine climate there. Mr. VanDusen's mother will accompany them to make her home with them. Mrs. VanDusen, now in her 86th year and remarkably smart yet, has been a highly respected resident here for over forty years. She will be greatly missed in the Presbyterian church and Ladies' Aid and by all her old friends who wish her happiness throughout her evening time of life.

Miss Tena Henderson visited over thanksgiving with her aunt at Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Breese, Miss Hannah Breese, and Mrs. McCullough of Chatsworth, and Mrs. Hall and daughter of Owen Sound, were here on Tuesday to say good-by to their old friend, Mrs. VanDusen, before leaving for Seattle. They were also visitors with Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Eaton at the parsonage.
