(Our Own Correspondent)

May Day and seeding operations are on at last.

Miss Clara Greenwood, nurse-in-training at the General and Marine hospital, visited the parental home the first two days of the week.

The good news came to us last week of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Harris (Robert Edward) on April 17th. Mrs. Harris was, prior to her marriage, Miss Bernice Taylor, a former popular teacher in old No. 5.

Miss Jennie Davis and Miss Gladys Firth spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webber at Hutton Hill.

Miss Elsie Mays came up from Toronto on Saturday for a month's holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richardson and child of Chatsworth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Timmins the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Carson of Priceville also spent a day or two with them, lately. While over, Mr. Carson purchased a thoroughbred Short-horn sire from Mr. William Morrison.

Misses Sadie and Juaneta Holmes, Miss Mary Metcalfe and gentleman friend, were guests of Miss Katie May Firth on Sunday and attended Zion's service.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of town were out to the old McClocklin homestead on Friday last and enjoyed a good treat of real maple molasses.

Mr. James Dunbar, who was seriously ill last week with heart trouble, is feeling much stronger this week.

Mr. John O'Neil purchased a new 400-egg incubator and was intensely interested one day recently by the arrival of his first batch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peart and family were guests of Mrs. R. Millburn of town on Sunday.

After spending five months in the Queen City, Miss Mina Edwards returned to the old home on Monday evening and 'tis a livelier spot since her arrival.

The funeral of Wilfrid Quillman on Thursday of last week was an exceptionally large one. The casket was literally covered with cards and the requiem mass, conducted by Rev. Father McGeoy was most impressive. The whole community is saddened by the sudden calling of this most promising youth.

Zion Sunday School is to reopen on Sunday at 1:30 and the Epworth League will hold their first service of the season at 7:30. The officers and teachers of the school are: Superintendent, R. T. Edwards; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Gladys Firth; Librarian, Miss Jennie Davis; Organist, Mrs. T. Glencross; Cradle Roll Department, Mrs. J. J. Test of Friendship

Sergeant (to new recruit): "Under 'Comradeship' we put all that one man would do for another. For example what would you do if your friend had his breakfast on the table, his buttons were not cleaned and the bugle blew for parade?"

Recruit: "I should eat his breakfast for him while he cleaned his buttons."

Applicant: "The employment agency sent me here. They say you want a servant."

Housewife: "But I do all the work myself."

Applicant: "Then the place will suit me exactly."

Visitor: "It is not often that I get such a good dinner."

Little Joe: "Neither do we, Mr. Jones."
