Knox Corners

A gloom was cast over the neighborhood when the news spread that Norman Marshall had passed away in a Toronto hospital early Saturday morning after a brief illness. Norman had a happy disposition and was a general favorite, and has been called away in the prime of young manhood. The funeral on Monday was largely attended and was held from the home of his parents here to Maplewood cemetery, a number of the deceased's former school chums acting as pall bearers. We join with the community in sincere sympathy to his parents, and the brother and sisters, and the young wife and child, and to all who mourn his passing. Truly here there is nothing abiding, but to those who are anchored in Jesus, death has lost its sting, and the grave its victory. Let us accept Him now for He comes at an hour when we look not for Him.

Mrs. David Marshall spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Irwin Ferguson and family of Egremont.

(Intended for last week)

Our W.M.S. have on hand an "In Memoriam" certificate which has been framed and will be hung in the church in memory of Mr. James Watson and his faithful service at Knox as leader of the choir and the service of praise. Rev. Mr. Honeyman spoke on Sunday of Mr. Watson and how he had given over forty years of service to Knox and of how he has been missed, and perhaps the writer has felt the want of his leadership in the choir as much as anyone. He has been faithful and has gone to his reward, and may we all be faithful in the service of God that we may render in our account with joy, and hear the "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Jr., spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch of Bentinck.
