Has only been on the market in Canada for one year and yet we have never had a remedy for Coughs and Colds that has proved so successful in curing both incipient and chronic cases. Numbers have, without solicitation, spoken very highly of its efficacy to us, but we do not wish to blow about it—the medicine will speak for itself. All we ask is a trial. ### OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

Mr. Foster's Panegyric,
The farewell banquet given by the citizens of Ottawa to the retiring Governor General last Tuesday was memorable in many ways but owing to the unfortunate lack either of experience or common courtesy on the part of the committee of management, through which representatives of the press were excluded, no adequate report of the proceedings, outside of the very excellent speeches of the chairman and the distinguished guest has been published.

But the remarks of Hon. G. E. Foster are deserving of publicity. Speaking of the ideas which still prevail in some quarters, that the Empire was growing decrepid and infirm, and that her power was waning the ex-Finance Minister indignantly denied the assumption and protested against the inference. "The expansive, the assimilative, the cohesive power of Great Britain" said he "is neither dead nor stagnant. The plastic crust from which, in centuries past, has burst forth that splendid energy that has even and anon vivified the world has not been stiffened to adamant. The typical vigor, the eruptive enterprise, the steady overflow of her higher life and potency are there still, and the march of empire is ever forward, who dares to say that the Imperial eye is dimmed, the Imperial heart numbed, or that the irresistible might of her strong right arm is shattered? Rather do we affirm that the insular has become world-wide, that the merely national has broadened into the truly Imperial, and that the sphere of Britain's influence and the grandeur of her power are immeasurably advanced."

The "Open Door" Has Done It
All of which will be enthusiastically re-echoed and endorsed by every loyal Canadian, and it will not do any harm to bear in mind that this stupendous strength, based, as it admittedly is, upon her commercial supremacy has developed under a consistent policy of absolute free trade, originally adopted when the country was torn with internal dissension, her people suffering hunger and want, her mills closed, business stagnant, and the national life at the lowest ebb. Wherever, and just in proportion to the extent of which, those artificial restrictions have been removed, has stagnation changed to prosperity, and progress taken the place of inertia.

He has been ailing for a long time but was always able to see to the interests of his farm and help with the work. He leaves a widow, one son and four daughters. As a neighbor Mr. Mochie was always obliging, often getting up from his sleep to attend to his neighbor's sick cow or horse. He will long be missed around the corner.

HOPEVILLE.
Monday Oct. 31st, our village had an exciting runaway by a team of horses belonging to Sharp's livery, Dundalk. After a run of two miles they were captured. The buggy was considerably smashed.
Some of our youth, ill-advised, went to charity a man, supposed to be getting married. All is quiet again.
The Herald came out with a kind of apology to Mr. McMurdo last week.
Reeve McKenzie was looking after some road jobs in our village. He is a faithful worker for the township.
The Pres. Church, 11 con. was to be opened, Nov. 6th, but is delayed as the contract is not quite ready.

My last report referred to a wedding that was planned but broke up in disappointment. A very lengthy and what some would say a funny account of this some would say a funny account of this appears in the Herald. A lot of the statements there are denied by the party most concerned, and the thing and funniness included in, over a hardworking industrious and strictly honest man, whose only fault is that he is a little unassuming. It is just a little unassuming. Be thankful for the blessings we daily enjoy and considerate of others not so blessed.

Last week's Herald comes to hand with a statement as to our township's supply of Andler's Reports and Voters' Lists. It does not deny that our neighborhood was deprived of its proper share of these, but rather affirms that we were, and that the error had a hand in doing so. There was a large number printed we are told. What became of them. The Herald says he gave them out at the Plebi-cite campaign to certain parties and to one E. A. Harrison he gave 50 copies or more. Who authorized the editor or Mr. Harrison to get this township property, while a section of the township is only partly supplied? Neither are ratepayers, and our laws make it compulsory on Councils to get this printing done for certain officials and for ratepayers in the municipality. If, as the Herald says, one man got 50, any sensible person knows it is an injustice to better for the reeve to take advice on delicate questions from ratepayers in the division he represents rather than from any Dundalk luminary.

man, outside of our own township, has a right to grab up our property and so use it as to restrict our own supply.
I think the Herald is playing fast and loose with these proceedings, and it may be allowed to say so it would be better for the reeve to take advice on delicate questions from ratepayers in the division he represents rather than from any Dundalk luminary.
