GOLDEN WEDDING.

1848-1898.

Tuesday Nov. 8th brought with it a very pleasant scene, the celebration of the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Little Sr. of Varney.

An excellent dinner was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Little, and served in the Orange Hall, to which about sixty guests sat down.

After having partaken of all the turkey allowable, speeches were made by Dr. Jameson M. P. P., Rev. Kitching and others after which the guests retired to the house of Mr. Adam Little.

We next visit the presents and on our way are shown an excellent proof of a photo of the old couple taken by Mr. Browne, Durham, which delighted all.

The presents are as follows:—

A lady's and a gentleman's easy chair by the sons and daughters. Lady's shoes and gent's lined kid gloves, Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew; Silk Handkerchief kid gloves and jardiner by Mr. Mrs. and Miss Buchanan, Mt. Forest; Lady's and gentleman's cups having engraven scenery of Kincardine harbour, Mrs. Miller; Hanging lamp and shade, Mrs. Robt. Miller; Lady's Dress Cap, Mrs. McEwen; Sugar bowl encased in silver frame, Mrs. Dr. Jamieson; Nicely framed painting, (Queen of the garden) Thos. Caldwell, Orchardville; Water service, Mrs. John Cornish; Gentleman's gloves and counterpane, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allan, Thornbury; Lady's bonnet, Mrs. Clark, Thornville; Fruit Set, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Adams; Gentleman's slippers, Archie Little; Gold brooch and gentleman's cuff buttons, Mrs. Stewart; Gentleman's pipe and case and lady's brooch, Mr. and Mrs. Weir, Walkerton; Gentleman's overcoat, Mrs. T. and Mrs. S. McComb and Arch Little; Gentleman's and lady's set of reading glasses encased in gold rims, Jas. Allan, Durham.

The cake for the occasion, a four story one, was presented by Mrs. Adam Little and all present can testify to its excellence.

Lunch was again served about 10-30 after which about 5 a.m., the friends took their departure, all wishing that there was one still in the future.

[The Review joins heartily in the good wishes and congratulations so appropriate to the celebration of so rare an event and hopes the evening of their lives may be spent as a glorious sunset. Ed.]

THE SONS OF ENGLAND.

[The following spirited song was published some years ago by John Inrie, Toronto, and in the present strained relations of the powers is applicable. Verse 3 is truer now than it was 6 years ago. Ed.]

The sons of England are her boast. They love her as of yore; Then pledge to her a loyal toast, As oft we've done before! CHORUS. Her sons are free! by land or sea They know not craven fear! They dare to fight for God and right, For home and kindred dear. Should foreign powers invade her strand, And taunt her with their boasts; Her free-born sons from many a land Would rally round her coasts. America would send her share Across Atlantic's wave; In Freedom's cause their swords declare Their mother-land to save! From Canada would gladly go,— Rose, Thistle, Shamrock green; They'd help to fight a common foe, And shield their Royal Queen! From far across old Neptune's line, Behold! a loyal band; Australia, India would combine, To lend a helping hand! From distant islands of the sea Would rise a gallant host, To prove that England SHALL be free, And guarded well her coast.
