THE "DAILY POST."—We are in receipt of several copies of this paper which is the Weekly "Dufferin Post" changed to a daily for the election season. It claims to be "a live organ of public opinion," and its enterprising and spicy pages would seem to justify the claim.

BLAZE IN OWEN SOUND.—Wednesday last week fire broke out in a building used as a stable by W. H. Mahoney, who carries on a teaming and draying business, the building was ruined, and eight horses were found roasted to death within. The cause is supposed to be incendiary. Loss covered by insurance.

GRAIN BUYING.—Mr. C. Elvidge is stationed at his old stand, Upper Town Corner, where he is prepared to pay the highest market prices for all kinds of grain, pork, hides, sheepskins, &c. Parties wishing to avoid going to the station, will find this a convenience as he stores his grain in the well-known stone granary.

The Toronto Globe says: "In Miss Forbes, there is unquestionably promise of a great career. She has the poise and the sympathetic touch that are the chief part of the equipment of a ballad singer. Her voice is rich and of wide compass, and her Scotch, is that of one born to the heather." In the Town Hall Dec. 9th.

SOON LEFT HER.—I was taken with a swelling in my feet and limbs. I was not able to walk for four months. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and procured a bottle. Perfumes—all the choice odors in stock, at Parker's drug store.

COMPLIMENTARY.—Late issues of Fowler, Indiana, papers, contain eulogies that Rev. C. H. Leeson, late of Varney, is doing good work in the ministry. He has adopted a plan of 5 minute talks before the sermon, which seems to be a new and taking idea. We quote with pleasure the following lines, which are a testimony to our old friend and pupil we rejoice to see: "There were good audiences at both of Rev. C. H. Leeson's services Sunday. The changed feelings of that congregation almost amounts to a revival so radical has it been. Mr. Leeson is a young man full of vim and learning, a desire to do good and see the results. His sermons are satisfying and full of religious uplifting. Another special feature worthy of mention at the M. E. church is his choir of strong voices full of music and delight."

Lace Curtains and new stock torchon laces at J. A. Hunter's.

THOUGHTFUL AND KINDLY.—A number of the neighbors and friends of Councillor Firth, Edge Hill, met at his residence last week and made a presentation of a large and useful dinner set of crockery. A useful present after a destructive fire.

The Public Library concert on Dec 9th promises to be a great success. The Stratford Herald says of the Star of the evening: "Miss Forbes sang with a great deal of expression which was facilitated by her flexible voice over which she has perfect command."

All the work is by Canadians, and the favorite and famous "Kit" and the "Flaneur" both have entertaining articles. It is sold at 50c a copy, and should have a large sale.

AN HOUR WITH LONGFELLOW.—The first Literary Meeting of the C. E. Society on Monday came off very well. Miss H. Smith gave a carefully prepared paper on the Life of the Poet, while Miss A. McKenzie did the same for his numerous works. Miss Louie Davidson read "The Warden of the Cinque Ports," Mr. R. D. Legate gave a solo one of Longfellow's finest pieces "The Bridge" with Miss S. Burnet accompanying. Mr. C. Ramage gave a running account of the "Courtship of Miles Standish" with brief readings from the piece. A quartette by Messrs. Buchan, MacFarlane, Legate and Cameron was another pleasing feature. Tennyson has been selected for the next occasion.

Your Danger Now

Is from the overworked condition of the liver and kidneys which are unable to expell impurities from the blood. This causes rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in curing this disease. It neutralizes the acid in the blood and permanently cures the aches and pains which other medicines fail to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best winter medicine because it purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood. It gives help just where it is needed. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, and arouses and sustains the kidneys. It wards off pneumonia, fevers, bronchitis, colds, coughs and the grip.

WHY THE HOME MERCHANT DESERVES PATRONAGE.—Stand by the home merchant. He is the man who helps to pay for the streets upon which you walk; for the school in which your children, or perhaps you, were educated; he helps to keep up the church in which you worship. He is the man who built a home, which enhances the value of your property. Every subscription paper that is passed around has his name on it; he is the one that cannot afford to swindle you—self interest, if nothing else, would prevent this; he bears his share of the burden of the city government; stays right with you in sunshine and darkness, in days of prosperity and adversity. These are but a few of the reasons why your patronage should be given to the home merchant.

THE GREAT SNOW STORM OF 1898.

Lovers of the "Beautiful Snow," would be delighted on Monday morning when they awoke to find that during the night from one to two feet of snow had fallen. In town there was a good deal of snow shovel practice, but in a town with big non-residential spaces it is impossible to keep our sidewalks clean, and so in many places there is nothing to do but "get on top of it," or "Keep in de middle of the Queen's Highway."

Since Monday it has kept adding a little more to the heavy night's fall, and as the storm has been equally severe all over Ontario and Quebec, it will likely be remembered by the heading of this article.

Hamilton and Toronto have suffered severely, trains and mails have been delayed, and it is feared that much damage will be done to Gulf of St. Lawrence shipping.

Our own roads are not as yet drifted, and every one hopes it will remain with us till after New Year, but "no more, thank you, at present" is the feeling.

All forms of scrofula, sores, boils, pimples and eruptions, are quickly and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

New stock window blinds at J. A. Hunter's.

WHO IS THE SINNER?

That is the curious question the publishers of that great paper, THE FAMILY HERALD and WEEKLY STAR, of Montreal, lately asked their subscribers. We know from experience that some subscribers at times become indignant if their names are struck off the mailing lists, but the subscriber—not the publisher—is the sinner. THE FAMILY HERALD and WEEKLY STAR do an enormous subscription business owing to the vast superiority of that wonderful paper, and this year the rush is greater than ever, consequently they are obliged to warn their old subscribers to renew early and give the clerks an opportunity to enter the thousands of new subscribers clamoring to get on the list. Every subscriber, new or renewal, we understand receives their premium picture, "THE THIN RED LINE," just as soon as their subscription is received.
