

The Death Knell of The Credit System

RING OUT THE OLD (CREDIT) RING IN THE NEW

The only perfect system of trading—with the closing year we close our books to credit—to all alike—with the incoming year, '99 we are in a better position to sell goods, at lower prices than ever before—in addition to low prices—we shall endeavor at all times to extend to our customers the most courteous and liberal treatment. We Pay the Highest Market Price in Cash for all Produce.

If after purchasing an article, you desire to exchange it, or desire your money refunded, (for any reason whatever) immediate compliance will be made with such wishes. "It's as Good as a Circus," exclaimed a boy to his mother who was leading him through the store Xmas Eve—that's the time we were selling the 1000 dozen oranges at 12½ dozen—and the full ton (2000) pounds and over for the week of mixed candies at 5c pound—we did it before 4 p. m.

Walk in and Look around You'll Find more than These

81 Glove money does the same duty here as $1.50 elsewhere. 10 dozen new styles. Pleasing display of New Lace just in. Of course all the newest. Cheap too. And from our own woolen mill, this 3 lbs. selected all-wool Yarn for $1. A very special, very unusual, just after Xmas, clearing of overstock of newest Scotch Suitings—at prices asked in Glasgow. Just in, 100 new Suits lengths and more—and what we do for men we do for boys—prices lower than ever before and—then the choice.

Large Valise, 70c. '98 prices cut and slashed in our Suits and Overcoats and Ladies' Jackets. If you want a nice nobby Suit at a ridiculously low figure. In our Grocery department you'll find every variety of imported and Domestic good things and ready to eat eatables, that you'd expect to find a first class store that sold nothing else. But the prices are different. Read on. 11 lbs. Tillison's Rolled Oats for 25c. 5 lbs. New Figs for 25c. 8 bars Klondike Soap, 25c. Oranges, 15c and 30c.

A few hints in Hardware, &c. Curry Combs, regular 20c, for 10c. Bone Handled Pocket Knives, regular 20c, for 10c. String Bells, regular $1.75, at $1.30. Mouth Organs, regular 35c, at 10c. Loaded Shot Shells at 25c dozen. Clothes Boilers, heavy copper bottoms, $1.10 and $1.40 each. Tea Kettles, 40c each. Dippers, 4c. Acme and Hockey Skates, from 45c pair up.

Its a great thing for you to have a store like this—where you can get almost everything—and at lower prices than elsewhere, all under one roof. Commence the new year right—and deal at this store.

DEPARTMENTAL STORE LOWER TOWN DURHAM

DROMORE.

Parties are all the go now, the invitations are flying in so fast on the young people that they have to divide up their loads. Last Friday night there were loads went to Robt. Kinnells where they spent a most enjoyable time in song and dance and another went to John P. Wilson's where they danced away the small hours of morn.

Miss Mary Scott is home after three or four hard weeks of study in Mount Forest.

Miss Henderson of Galt is visiting at Mr. Hastie's.

Mr. John Hastie is again in our midst spending Xmas holidays.

Mrs. Robert Renwick left Tuesday morn for Galt.

Mrs. Alex. Gilles of Buffalo, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson.

Miss Ray Adams is home from Toronto for a short time.

Monday night there was another load went to Mr. Wm. Hunter's and spent a lovely time. They had quite a time getting there on account of slippery roads.

Mr. James Coleridge left on Saturday for his school near Toronto adjoining his last section.

Miss S. A. Coleridge paid a visit last week to her brother in London.

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown of the north line on Friday night when a big sleigh-load of the young people of this section gathered together. Swinton Park was represented by the Misses and Mr. A. McMillan, Glenelg by the Misses and Mr. S. Scott, Durham by Smith Bros., the old survey by Messrs. and Miss Sirm and Mr. Clark. Members of the teaching profession Misses Maggie and Sarah Scott, Miss Mary Scott, Miss Eliza Wilson, Miss Nettie McMillan, Mr. Robert Scott, little Mary Brown gave a very nice recitation in an attractive style. The choir contributed several impromptu pieces during the evening. Miss Bella Wilson and Thos. Daly gave instrumental selections. After an elegant supper, and thanks to host and hostess for their hospitality. "Auld Lang Lynne" closed an agreeable evening.

ZION.

Intended for last week. We are very pleased to report a most happy incident that occurred to this quiet locality on the 21st of Dec., when one of our bachelors, Mr. William Timmins by name, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Miss Lavina, the second daughter of Mr. John Waring of Flesherton. The happy couple were married at the home of the bride's father, who presented Wm with one of the best of presents (a wife) and who used the numerous company who escorted him (a) in a most princely style.

As is usual at such occasions there was a real shower of wedding presents which come from the hands of about fifty well-wishers, some of these wishing that their names be not mentioned and we think it best not to mention any.

We are however pleased to state that the presents are all of a useful class and our friend the bridegroom says that old John's was the noblest present of them all.

Mr. John Timmins acted as groomsmen and served his brother in a most graceful manner, but feels badly left, that he failed to get the first kiss off the bride's most winsome cheek. The happy couple are now at their own cozy home, on lot No 1, con. 6, where they will be pleased to see any old friend who wishes to call on them. Here we should like to give him our well wishes and hope that they may both live a happy, long and prosperous life.

We hear that quite a few of our men and maidens are biting their nails, now that bachelor Bill has got married, and we would say, that now that the waters are troubled who will be the next to step in?

Mr. Joseph Firth, Sr. of Edge Hill, who has seen eighty eight Christmas days, had the pleasure of dining with his son Wm. this Xmas.

Mr. Wm Firth had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse last week, the cause is not known.

To say that the No. 5 S. S. concert was a success would not be doing justice to that noble institution, for, although most of the children were kept at home with the measles and snow blocked roads, the industrious teacher, Mr. Park had them beautifully trained. Most of the pieces were rendered skillfully one piece especially, the old song entitled "Please give me a pony," would have found a way into the bravest heart. Miss Robinson, recited "The freckled faced girl" in good style as did also quite a number of younger scholars their respective pieces.

Mr. Hugh McNab was just himself in "The lost Irishman," but the audience were entirely left by his wobbleton to wobbleton encore.

We heard one or two say that Miss C— had no need to advertise for a husband, though they had no idea she could use the broom so well.

Mr. Willie Greenwood made just a champion old man.

Mr. Robert Edwards occupied the post of honor, and kept the audience alive with his wit in the intervals.

The receipts were about $15 which go to school funds.

Half a hundred or so of the youth and beauty of Zion attended a party held at the Glenecross home, in honor of Miss Mary Glenecross, who is at home for a few days.

Miss Jennie Waring accompanied her sister, Mrs. Wm Timmins, to this party and is staying a few days. Jennie is one of the most charming of the sex and has already set more than one heart a whirling.

Mrs. Wm Kenny is on the sick list these days. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Happy New Year, to REVIEW, staff and readers.

NORTH EAST NORMANBY.

Closing exercises were held in S. S. No 1, on the last day of school, and the section turned out in force. The examination over, a pleasing programme was gone through with, with which the visitors were highly pleased. The hearts of the pupils were in turn made glad by the splendid lunch provided by their friends. Mr. Reuford is doing good work, and the trustees deserve credit for securing his services for another year.

Knox Church Annual meeting was held Friday night. The various reports presented show this congregation to be in a very promising condition. Between reports lunch was partaken of and social chat indulged in.

Several meetings have been in this section with a view to organizing a Temperance Lodge, but fate seems to be against the undertaking.

Knox Church C. E. elected the following officers for '99:—Pres., Mrs. Jno Marshall, Vice Pres., Miss N Stewart, Sec'y, Donald McIvride, Treas., Miss Jane Marshall.

Messrs Jas and R Morrice and Jas Marshall attended Moltke shooting match last week, each securing one or more turkeys. They broke the bank.

Mr. David Marshall arrived home from Man. on the 23rd ult, looking hale and hearty.

Mrs. Bliss, Detroit, visited her sister Mrs. Jas Watson last week.

It purifies and enriches the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs and creates an appetite; it absolutely cures all scrofula eruptions, boils, pimples, sores, salt rheum, and every form of skin disease; cures liver complaint, kidney troubles, strengthens and builds up the nervous system. It entirely overcomes that tired feeling, giving strength and energy in place of weakness and languor. PRICEVILLE.

The year 1898 will in a few hours be no more and as we sit down to pen a few of the events that transpired since its commencement a thought suggests itself unto us which we cannot avoid expressing.

The new year to many a home brings joy and sorrow acting in a double capacity, 1st it brings joy to many a home for it brings together in many instances those of one household and one family who have not met for the last twelve months. The mother eagerly watches the door of her humble cottage to hear the old familiar rap of her long absent son or daughter who she expects to adorn the festive table at the old home on this new year morn.

The long expectations being fulfilled, we find once more an unbroken family sitting around the old fashioned table to partake of a sumptuous feast prepared by the hands of the dear and ever faithful mother and joy and happiness are once more found within the walls of the parental home. 2nd, on the other hand new year's morn brings sorrow to many a home that was full of joy and happiness at the beginning of 1898. The old arm chair where sat the dear mother 12 months ago, on this new year's morn is found vacant, the father who sat at the end of the table and who attended to all the duties required of him as the head of the family, his seat is also vacant and when the son or daughter visits the old homestead on this quiet new year's day they will only do so to find it as a ship stripped of her sails by the fierce gales of time for those who stood so faithfully at the helm for long and weary years in the past are gone to their long home.

Saturday last the thermometer went down to 30 degrees below Zero—"Cold enough to be sure."

Died suddenly at his residence old Durham Road, Artemesia, on Dec. 29th, 1898, Mr David Henderson at the age of 77 yrs. Mr Henderson was in his usual health, partook of a hearty dinner and laid down for the purpose of taking a rest and when called by some member of the family he was found dead in bed. Mr Henderson was a long resident of Artemesia and was a member of the Methodist church Priceville. He was buried in the Presbyterian cemetery in the village on Saturday the 31st ult. The Rev. Mr Humphrys officiating at the house and at the grave.

Miss Chislett of Flesherton Station was the guest of Miss Ethel Hogarth during Xmas week.

The anniversary in connection with the Presbyterian Sunday School came off on
