WEEK OF PRAYER.—Last week the Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian churches observed the international week of prayer by holding union services. Inclement weather interfered with the attendance at some of the meetings, but there was a generous Christian fellowship feeling all.

A copy of the "Canada Siftings" of Dec. 3, published in Russell, Manitoba, has drifted to our office. It contains a warm and characteristic account of St. Andrew's celebration which included a banquet and fine literary program. Wonder if druggist Will Ledingham was there?

Dr. P. C. Park who has been in London, England for the past four months taking a special course in the disease of the Ear, Eye, Nose and Throat, has returned home. The Dr. who has made the treatment of diseases of this nature a specialty, may be consulted at his office.

A STORMY DAY.—Last Saturday was one of the wildest of the season. In addition to the high wind and blinding snow, the mercury kept about zero all day, making it impossible for country people to get around, consequently it was reported a dull day for business. The train got through on time however, but the northern stage was blocked for a while. Churches on Sunday were sparsely attended.

PURE BRED STOCK.—Mr. A. S. Hunter, now proprietor of the fine herd of Hereford cattle, late the property of the Jackson estate, made a sale the other day of 8 pure bred, pedigreed bull calves to Mr. McDonald, Toronto, who is making up a car load of likely animals to take to Texas for breeding purposes. We trust this is the first of many such sales Mr. Hunter may be able to make to reputable buyers.

Mrs. JOHN RITCHIE.—On Wednesday of this week all that was mortal of Mrs. John Ritchie, 2nd con. Glenelg, was laid to rest. She and her husband, who died over 30 yrs ago—were amongst the earliest of Glenelg settlers, moving in there in the first of many such sales Mr. Hunter may be able to make to reputable buyers.

George, John (in Manitoba) Samuel, Chas. Thomas, and two daughters, one Lizzie, at home.

La Grippe has struck town and begun with the mayor. The citizens will follow.

HOUSE OF REFUGE IN EGREMONT.—Our Holstein correspondent kindly supplies the following figures of the recent plebiscite which shows a determined opposition to the proposal. We don't believe this springs from hard heartedness, but from an undefined fear of being saddled with more indebtedness. Here are the figures:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	Total.
For	1	20	30	22	32	17	210
Against	88	74	81	90	88	139

THE LATE MRS. JNO. McDONALD.—On New Year's Day, on the 7th Con., Glenelg, there passed away Mrs. John McDonald at the age of 62 years. She leaves behind her four sons, one of whom, Donald, kept the British Hotel for some time. The only son at home is Angus, and three daughters were near their mother in her last hours. Her husband died about twelve years ago, and came to this country with his wife from Invernesshire, Scotland about 40 years ago. The funeral took place on Tuesday last to St. John's Cemetery. Father Hauck officiating.

FROM MANITOBA.—A letter received from Mr. John Acheson, Burnside Manitoba, (lately of the 20 con. Egremont) gives a sketch of good crops by old S. Grey people. "Mr. Jas. Ector had 1622 bush. of wheat, and would have had much more, but he was one of those that the hail storm struck. Oats 556 bush, barley 451. Jos. Patterson, formerly of Egremont, had 1634 bush wheat, and over 200 each of oats and barley. Spencer Book, formerly of Glenelg near Priceville, had for his third crop 2758 bush wheat, and 600 of oats. Wheat went from 20 to 42 bush per acre, oats 40 to 50, barley 30 to 40."

Glad to hear from John who renews for the Review.

A SUCCESSFUL DORNOCH BOY.—Mr. Alex. M. Watt, after a sojourn of 11 yrs, principally in Seattle, Washington, is on an extended visit to his parental home at Dornoch. The following is a clipping from the Seattle Daily Times of recent date. "A. M. Watt, who discovered what is now the property of the Gunn's Peak Copper Mining Co., and the Index Peacock Copper Mining Co., near Index, leaves to-day for a visit to his home in Ontario. He will also visit some of the principal cities in the East before his return in the spring. Mr. Watt is president of the above-named companies, and thinks he and his associates have a fine piece of property, which, he says, will be developed as soon as the snow goes off the ground. It is expected that an electric line will pass through the Index country early in the coming year."

ROBERT DALGLISH.

Last week's papers contained an account of the death of this prominent merchant of Montreal at the age of 61. Back in the '80's he occupied a prominent place in Durham and S. Grey life.

Yet remember the genial merchant and grain buyer, who came into great prominence in the first political campaign after Confederation when he, as candidate of the Reform party, ran against the incumbent Geo. Jackson. The contest was a memorable one as the Reformers after efforts that should have been rewarded with victory, were beaten by a very few votes. He built the large granary removed last year by Mr. Arthur Jackson, and at his death still owned the corner property in Upper Town so long known by his name and now occupied by C. McArthur.

The Montreal Star has the following account of the deceased: "The death occurred Wednesday Jan. 6, of Mr. Robert Dalglish, for many years one of the prominent business men of this city. Mr. Dalglish has been ailing for some few months prior to his decease, but it was only on the 24th of November that he was obliged to take to his bed. Since then he has gradually grown weaker, and the ultimate cause of death was cholonia, to which was added heart failure."

Mr. Dalglish was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1835, and was consequently in his sixty-fourth year at the time of his death. He attended the Glasgow High School when a boy, and it was there that he received his education. When about twenty years of age he came to Canada and settled in the town of Durham, in the County of Grey, Ontario. In the years that followed he succeeded in building up the lumber industry in the county, and became the owner of large lumber mills on Georgian Bay. He ran for Parliament for the County of Grey, in the Liberal interest, in 1867, but was defeated by the small majority of three votes. In 1870 the deceased came to Montreal and became identified with the wine and porter trade. In 1872 he married Harriet May Haines, daughter of the rector of St. Matthias, Kensington, Eng., who, with a son and two daughters, survive him. The son is at present in Washington Territory, U. S. A. Mr. Dalglish was one of the original members of the St. James Club in this city, and at his death belonged to the Union Club, of Quebec. He was a member of the Anglican Church, and for many years attended the Cathedral in this city. Latterly he became attached to the Church of St. James the Apostle. Mr. Dalglish's mother still resides in England. She is ninety-two years of age."

HYMENEAL.

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent at the residence of Mr. Joseph Moore, Egremont, on Wednesday evening the 4th inst., on the occasion of his arrival home with his bride, Miss M. Falconer of Monro Road.

Rev. Mr. Humphrey's, of Priceville, performed the marriage ceremony at the parsonage, Miss Vinita Harrison, niece of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid on the occasion, while Mr. H. Falconer, Monro Road performed a similar service for the groom.

The bride was attired in an elegant dress of navy blue serge trimmed with white satin, and all wearing pretty clover blossoms.

Among those present were the brothers and sisters, and the more immediate relatives of the contracting parties, while on the Thursday evening following the nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors attended to do honor to the newly married couple.

The presents were of a costly and varied character, comprising among other things not here mentioned:—3 pr. blankets, 2 prs. curtains, 2 prs. dado blind, 2 pr towels, table cloth, parlor screen, crazy patch work table drape, hand painted silk cushion, berlin wool worked doilies, celluloid album, 4 doz. room chairs, bedroom suite, jelly cake stand, extension table, silver butter knife, sugar spoon and desert spoon, crystal tea set, card receiver, bouquet receiver, pr. vases, three china cups and saucers, fancy colored cream pitcher, enamelled cream pitcher, cream pitcher, china cream pitcher, china egg stand, crystal bread tray, photo stand green dish, preserve dish, fruit stand, 4 doz. dinner plates, and a complete tea set.

We extend our congratulations and wish them health, wealth and happiness.

TOWN COUNCIL.

This body met for the first time in reduced numbers on Monday last and took the usual declarations. The council is now a body of seven members, presided over by the Mayor, the old saxon title of "reeve" being for the present laid aside.

Mayor Calder still keeps his seat at the head of the table and at the table (for they can't surround it) sit Councillors Gorsline, Hunter, Kinnee, Livingston, Moore and Sparling.

At this meeting the town officers are filled and the following are the appointees for 1898: Clerk, George Russell; Constable, James Carson; Health Officer, Dr. Gunn; Health Inspector, D. McDonald; Traut Officer, R. Aljoe, Sr.; Assessor, W. B. Vollett, Caretaker, W. Anderson. The salaries of Constable, Assessor and Caretaker have been slightly raised, though by no means aristocratic yet.

Auditors, N. W. Camsbell, Arch. Davidson, F. Fence Viewers, S. Arrow-smith, Jas. Davidson, A. McComb; Pound Keeper, James Falkingham. Spauling, (Chairman), Kinnee and Moore, compose the Board of Works. Hunter, (Chairman), Sparling and Moore, are Finance Committee.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The Annual Meeting of this body will be held on Friday of this week, and an excellent series of papers is promised on subjects of great interest to Agriculturalists and Horticulturists. The topics for the evening meeting are of general interest and will be as usual largely attended, as Musical features of great excellence are provided. Among others, Miss Jean Renwick and Miss Wilson of Dromore, two capable vocalists, have kindly consented to appear. Miss Renwick is an old favorite.

BAPTIST SOCIAL.—Last Friday night the Town Hall was astir with a happy mixture of young and old to enjoy the Annual Tea Meeting of the Baptist S. S. After several relays had feasted at the sumptuous tables down stairs, a fine program was rendered and the excellence of dialogue, song &c was admittedly good, and must have cost a few a great deal of work in preparation.

Mr. T. J. Hutton with his gramophone filled in frequently between other selections. Some of the setting was of a high character, that of Maud Caldwell, Nathan Swallow Forbes Hind, Willie Brown and a few others being particularly good. Miss Pearl Warner is a sweet little singer. Rev. Mr. McGregor accepted the chair and Mr. J. L. Brown's choir gave good services. Mrs. J. L. Brown was one of a band of willing workers in getting up a fine entertainment. Proceeds $18.00.

NOW FOR FAX.

ON JANUARY 19TH.

Durham has not yet heard the famous Jas. Fax. The Sons of Scotland have secured this talented performer in combination with the Scotch Vocalists Miss McNicol and Mr. Geo. Grant of Toronto. The same combination with same grand musical and national features that enabled Mount Forest last November to draw an $110 house. No such galaxy of performers has ever been in Durham. Secure your seats early. Plan at McFarlane's Drug Store.

DROMORE.

Mr. John Roston, whose death was noted in the REVIEW last week at the advanced age of 82 years was a native of Roxburghshire, Scotland. He was one of the class of rugged early settlers who amidst many trials struck into the wilderness to make a home for themselves. He was of a quiet reserved nature, taking no active part in public affairs, but in all domestic and social relationships was kind and considerate. He was a man of a vigorous constitution until after the allotted span, but for some years back his vigor was giving way, and he has passed to his fathers at a good old age. To cherish his memory there remain his widow and four sons, James and Robert at home. John at Dromore, and William in Durham.

Miss Lizzie Perry, who has been a long and patient sufferer at the home of Mr. Wm. Bell, has succumbed to her disease, and died last week. She will be greatly missed for her winsome attractive character.

Miss Violet Blackburn left last week for Brantford.

Miss A. Burgess is visiting Southampton friends at present.

WANTED AT ONCE.—Good general Servant. Apply at Mrs. Wm. Black's Lower Town, Durham.

BUSINESS COLLEGE.—Mr. C. L. Hart, for some time private Secretary to Grand Trunk Manager Hays contemplates starting a business College in town, and has secured Calder's Hall for the purpose, opening next Monday. We hope he may be successful, as many of our young people would be greatly benefited by such a course. He has relatives in Mt. Forest and Holstein and has a small class in the latter place.
