PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. James Carson, of Hamilton, was in town last week.

Miss Mabel Swallow is in Toronto attending the millinery openings.

Rey. Mr. Ferguson is under the influence of La Grippe this week.

Miss Belle McDougall is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. McLean, near Priceville.

Miss S. R. J. McKinnon arrived from Buffalo on Saturday and will again brighten up the parental home.

Messrs. John and Neil McDonald, of Owen Sound, spent Sunday at their home here, returning Monday.

Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., was home over the week end, looking as if the air of the Queen's Park agreed with him.

Miss Nellie Morton, left last Saturday for Hamilton on a visit to cousins in that city, and may make a lengthened stay.

Mr. David Allan, of Hopeville, accompanied by his daughter and son visited friends in Glenelg lately.

Miss Hazel McGregor and Miss Ebbie Hughes attended service in the Glenelg Baptist church Sunday last.

Miss Hattie Watt and Miss Alice Johnston came home from Toronto to attend the wedding of the latter's sister.

Reeve Dickson, of Bentinck, has been seriously ill, but according to an item in last week's Hanover Post is rapidly recovering to the gratification of his many friends.

Miss Kate Dickson, near Dromore, visited her relative Mr. Wm. Cranston, near Dornoch, and intended to visit Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cranston at Peabody before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cranston were visiting at his sister's, Mrs. Binnie and other Glenelg relatives last week, before leaving for the North West where two of his sons are located.

Dr. Landerkin, M. P., has done the harness again in the W. Huron political campaign, and has been doing some effective speaking in the interest of the Liberal candidate, R. Holmes.

Last Saturday being mild quite a number of the teaching fraternity moved around town, among the number we saw were Miss Lena Wolfe and Messrs. J. Redford, J. A. Graham, W. K. Reid and F. Grant.

Mr. Jas. Morice and family moved last Friday to the farm he has purchased in Bentinck known as the Dargavel farm. We wish Mr. Morice and family success and prosperity in their new surroundings.

A SUCCESSFUL O. A. C. GRADUATE.—Mr. Thos. Gadd, Jr., well known in Normanby, went to the North West last year and ran a creamery successfully. During the winter he has been engaged in a furniture factory, and this summer he is to run the same creamery getting $80 a month, $10 more than last year. We congratulate our old pupil on his success "out west."

Mr. Fred Leeson, formerly of Varney went to Indiana last December, engaging himself with a druggist, to learn the business. With a go-aheadness, popularity believed to belong only to the Yankees, he has bought out the business in company with his brother Ernest, a pushing M. D. in that locality.

The Leeson colony of four brothers now in Indiana, Rev. Chas., G. Mansfield and Ernest, M. D's and apothecary Fred, will be increased soon by their sister, Miss Edith, who is going on an extended visit and may engage in teaching. We wish them all success in their adopted homes, but regret that—that—Canada doesn't own Indiana.

A SUDDEN CALL.—Last Saturday morning, Mr. Jno. Chittick, Lamlash, and family took breakfast in the usual way, little dreaming the hand of death was so near them. But shortly after Mr. Chittick felt a fainting sensation and to the consternation and grief of his family soon breathed his last.

Mr. Chittick was a man highly respected and of an amiable disposition, and his sudden removal in the midst of a life of usefulness, at a comparatively early age (almost 45), has cast a gloom over the community. His father, mother, a brother and two sisters reside in Mt. Forest, where they moved about five years ago. In his own home he is mourned by his wife, 3 sons and 2 daughters. He was a member of the Methodist church, and in politics adhered to the Conservative party.
