VOL.—XXI. NO. 16.

DURHAM, THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1899.

WHOLE NO. 1101.

Local and District News.

Have you read McKinnon's ad? Two full papers of garden seeds for sale at MacFarlane's Drug Store. Mrs. Tremellen is visiting her mother Mrs. Matthews. Miss Jessie Burnett is visiting at Wm. Greenwood's, Zion.

Rev. Mr. Johnston, late of East Toronto, will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit for the next two Sabbaths.

A carload of waggons and another of buggies arrived lately at C. McKinnon's, upper town.

For fields seeds go to MacFarlane's Drug Store.

SEEDING SALE.—J. A. Hunter takes space this week to have a big talk with purchasers. Read his ad.

PETER HAMILTON AGENCY.—R. MacFarlane, Sr. makes his bow to farmers in his "re-opening" ad. Call and examine.

Sawmiller Crawford has a gang of men off to Rocky Saugeen this week "running" logs down to his Aberdeen mill.

To RENT.—The pasturage of the Agricultural Show Grounds. Tenders will be received by the undersigned up May 1st inclusive. A. Davidson, Sec'y.

C. McKinnon's showrooms are full to overflowing and he intends to make room by selling at right prices.

DIED IN SCRANTON, PENN.—Lizzie Jackson, sister of the late David Jackson, died on Thursday of last week, April 13. She was Mother Superior of St. Cecilia Academy of that place. She was about 50 years of age and is buried at Covendale, Penn.

OUR SIDEWALKS.—Mr. Conroy, President of the Guelph Paving Company, is in town this week, and in company with Mayor Calder has examined the sidewalks. Except for a few frost cracks by upheaval, it is everywhere in good order, the surface being in good condition.

TORONTO'S DEAD.—For the first three months of this year the deaths in Toronto exceeded the births. This is the first time this has ever occurred, and is attributed to the length and severity of the winter and one writer seems to think the absence of snow had something to do with it, "since December there has been no snow worth mentioning." There died in 1898, age over 90, 103; in 1899, over 90, 271. Total deaths 682 in 1898 and 689 in 1899.

The Saugeen river is showing off this week. Saturday and Sunday last dozens of visitors took a walk to points on its banks that gave a picturesque view of "a river on a rampart." These points are at the McGowan Mill, where the old bridge has been moved a few feet, a reach of the river a little above the dam, down by the railway and show ground and at the park. No damage, except to the old bridge and the destruction of part of show ground fence is reported.

ABOUT CATARRH.—It is caused by a cold or succession of colds, combined with impure blood. Its symptoms are pain in the head, discharge from the nose, ringing noises in the ears. It is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which purifies and enriches the blood, soothes and rebuilds the tissues and relieves all the disagreeable sensations.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. Mailed for 25c by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The butter scheme of Messrs. Stewart and Stevens has fallen through and Mr. Stevens will confine his energies to making cheese at the Victoria factory. Mr. Wilson is going ahead with his factory and will erect his creamery building near Mr. John Adam's residence, just west of the village, where there is a spring admirably adapted to the purpose. He has his timber for the building all on the ground and will have things in shape for an early opening.—Flesherton Advance.

NONAGENARIANS.—Last week we referred to the extreme age reached by the father and aunt of Mr. Donald McKechnie, Glenelg (not Bentinck as we had it.) Since that the grim reaper has gathered in Mrs. Campbell, and she was buried on Friday last in Latona cemetery. Mrs. Campbell, with her husband, came from Mull, Scotland over 40 years ago and settled in Puslinch before coming to this county. She had one daughter, who married a Mr. Brown, of London and a son of this couple, with his wife, were up last week at the funeral. The impassable roads made it impossible for a clergyman to be present, and pious neighbors had a simple religious exercise at the house and grave.

Lucas, Wright and Batson.—At Durham office Mondays and Court Days. Miss Ethel Kinnee is home from Toronto.

Mr. Thomas Swallow arrived home from Buffalo last week.

Sergeant O. M. Snider, of Hampden, has been appointed 2nd Lieutenant provisionally of the 31st Battalion.

Mr. McIntyre, of Durham, shipped 11 cars of square timber to Quebec from the G. T. R. station in Neustadt.—Hanover Post.

FIRST PLOUGHING.—Last Friday Mr. Geo. Ritchie, Glenelg, made a start, and Mr. Jas. Burt we hear was another. Many to the east and south will yet wonder how they did it.

FINGER NEARLY OFF.—Last Thursday while a 3-year-old son of Mr. Thos. Morton was playing with an axe, he got his finger almost severed. Dr. Jamieson attended to it and hopes to save the finger.

A SNAP.—Mr. A. G. MacKay, County Crown Attorney, by the operation of a statute passed some years ago, succeeds by virtue of his office to the position of Clerk of the Peace made vacant by the death of W. R. Armstrong. Mr. MacKay's qualifications eminently fit him for the position, and we extend our congratulations.

Mr. Alonzo Barnes, Port Huron, Michigan, was home last week on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Knechtel, Hanover, and his mother, Mrs. Fuller, Durham. Quite a number in Durham and North Egremont will remember his brother, Frank, who died five years ago. Their father, Mr. Seth Barnes, met a tragic death in Durham back in the '60s.

STILL IN FRONT.—The Toronto Globe with an enterprise characteristic of Canada's leading newspaper, has treated itself to a new press costing about $35,000. Its capacity is 48,000 8 page papers per hour. What with its enormous news service and its many enterprising features it stands easily without a rival as a national newspaper.

If you have catarrh don't dally with local remedies. Put purity and enrich your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Jas. Park, South Bentinck, has not been feeling well of late, and to recuperate left Tuesday morning for Colorado to visit his daughters Mrs. Nichol, (Jeanie,) and Bessie. His cousin Mr. Arch Park accompanied him, and their stay may extend over most of the summer. We wish them a pleasant trip.

PROMOTED.—Mr. A. McNabb, who is related to the McKinnon family, Rocky Saugeen has, we learn from an Owen Sound paper been promoted to be first mate of the steamer "Manitoba" out of many applicants. As 2nd mate of the Athabasca for 8 years he showed himself to be a competent, careful and industrious officer. His old place is filled by Thos. Benwell, a cousin of the Benwell whom Birchall murdered some 8 or 9 years ago.

PATTERSON ELECTED.—We omitted to mention last week the result of the voting for the vacant County Council position in Division No. 7: Euphrasia, St. Vincent and Meaford. The candidates were Mr. A. C. Patterson, Blantyre and J. M. Davis, a well known Euphrasia light and "orator." The election was contested on the poor house question, which has received another supporter in the election of Mr. Patterson, though by only 32 majority. Meaford gave a large poor house majority of course, while St. Vincent only gave 19. Taken together the two rural municipalities are decidedly averse to a House of Refuge, and as the vote against is much larger than that at the January election it would seem there is a reaction against the scheme.

SOUTH GREY SPRING SHOW.—The Aytton Advance last week has a full report of this show which seems to be more of a township affair, judging by the prize list, tho' bearing the county name. The report says the quality of the stock offered was up to the standard and though quantity was deficient. Ed. Hoy's new imported stallion, Phenomenon, had caused much admiration and won first prize and diploma. In addition to horses, prizes were offered for pure bred bulls, hogs, and grain and seeds. Geo. and Andrew Schenck are heavy prize takers in most of the classes. The Advance says: "The rain in the afternoon was rather untimely and put a damper on things generally. The thanks of the society are due to Messrs. J. Scott, W. T. Petrie, Geo. Klempf, Dr. Senu, Jas. Swanson and Jas. Allan acted as judges and were fair and impartial in all their decisions."

HIGH GRADE FLOUR.—A carload of Manitoba Flour just arrived at A. S. Hunter's.

FAREWELL TO MR. JANSEN.

Warm Expressions of Goodwill.

Last Thursday night a farewell social was held in the Presbyterian Church here, and though miserable roads prevented many from coming, the basement of Mr. Jansen's flock and a sprinkling from the other churches in town. The ladies had the basement set in attractive shape before 6 p. m., and tables covered with an abundance of good things, met the eyes of friends as they arrived. These were soon surrounded and ample justice done to the excellent viands.

This over Mr. Thos. Allan, was made chairman and an impromptu program of speech and song was carried out. Rev. Mr. McRobbie was present, and on being called on made some very pertinent remarks on Ministers, their duties, trials and responsibilities. He dwelt briefly but ably with the superiority of man to the brute creation. Life to man would be a farce without a future, hence the importance attaching to preparation for that future, if we are to rise above merely animal instinct.

Rev. Mr. McGregor, Baptist minister, spoke very warmly of his intimacy with Mr. Jansen, and expressed regret at separating from him. He had admired greatly his singleness of purpose, his courage, his devotion, and trusted that the future might open up for him new and enlarged fields of usefulness.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson, Methodist Minister after the address had been read spoke in a similar strain. He had always found a great deal to admire in Presbyterianism, and spoke flatteringly of its influence and the notable men that have been nurtured in its fold. While regretting the separation, he thought Mr. Jansen had a bright future before him, and was sure his youth, his ability, his experience and his devotion would meet with due recognition.

Messrs. G. Binnie, Wm. Young and C. Ramage also made remarks along this line. In addition to his choir music, Miss Black sang with taste and good doric "The Land o' the Leal."

Mr. Calder read the address given below, prefacing it with appropriate and laudatory remarks. The well-filled purse was presented by Mrs. Neil McKechnie in a few well chosen words, and Mr. Jansen replied feelingly. He thanked them all warmly for the many expressions of regard, tangible and otherwise, that had been shown to him. He appreciated them thoroughly and would ever remember them with gratitude. He felt and wished that under a new pastor the church might continue to flourish and be successful.

At the close of the meeting many heartfelt handshakes were given the Rev. gentleman, who had kind words and good wishes for all. He left by Saturday's train to fill an engagement at Preston. In addition to a few friends being at the station to say "Good bye," following is the address:

To the REV. A. G. JANSEN, Durham.

Dear Friend and Pastor, Knowing that the time had arrived when you were about to take your departure from this town where you have earnestly labored as our pastor for the last seven years, we deemed it a fitting opportunity to invite you to be present with us to-night to spend at least one more evening together in social fellowship and intercourse. We desire to express to you personally our high regard and esteem for your earnest efforts in our spiritual welfare during the period you have been in this town. As a minister of the Gospel you have worked zealously to present the truths of our savior, and you have been a faithful exponent of Him whose followers you are. As a kind friend and Counsellor you have ever been willing to extend your advice and sympathy to us in our sorrow and affliction. You have always stood up manfully for what you believed to be right and in accordance with the holy scriptures and at the same time had the moral courage to condemn what you believed was wrong and not in accord with the life of a true Christian, and lastly your life and conversation as our pastor has shown you to be a true and devoted servant of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We trust and believe that your labors among us will bear fruit for many years to come. We would now ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of our friendship and hope that in the future it may be a memento of the many true and grateful friends which you leave in the Durham Presbyterian congregation. While regretting the circumstances that have severed your pastorate here we earnestly hope that you may be spared for a long and useful life in whatever field the Master may place you, knowing you will carry the same earnest efforts there that has characterized your labors here and that many souls brought to a knowledge of Christ may be your reward. Finally when your labors are over may we all hope to meet you in that Heaven above, where sorrows and disappointments are unknown.

Signed in behalf of the Durham Presbyterian congregation:—Mrs. Jas. Webber, Mrs. A. Hunter, Mrs. Park, Mrs. McKelvie, Mrs. Neil McKechnie, Durham, April 18th 1899.

THE LITTLE GREAT COUNTRY.—Tuesday evening, Rev. Mr. Jansen gave his lecture "An Artificial Country," (his native Holland), in the Town Hall here, to an audience much smaller than the lecture deserved, and no doubt weather conditions contributed to this. Mayor Calder occupied the chair and appropriately introduced the lecturer. Mr. Jansen then took his audience briefly on the trip, and "on the way" whetted their interest by recounting some of the deeds and work of men of Holland which had made her famous. He paid great tribute to Wm. III Prince of Orange, a Hollander, as being one of the chief causes of the liberties of England and the Empire. The ship once landed, the audience were then introduced to dykes, and their construction, showing how Holland was a country "stolen from the sea," to the immaculately clean country houses, to the quaint costumes of the people, to their manner of love-making and a great deal more of amusing and instructive matter relating to the "little great country" and its people. His account of the siege of Leyden was a piece of graphic word-painting as we have heard for a long time, and the bravery of the Dutch and their success against Spanish tyranny lost nothing in the telling by their admiring countryman. He was accorded a hearty vote of thanks on motion of Rev. Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Allan. Proceeds were $8, half of which goes to the Leprosy Missions, the other half to W. C. T. U. under whose auspices the lecture was held.

Late Literary News. President Harper, of the University of Chicago, makes this month's contribution to the discussion of the educational question which The Cosmopolitan magazine has been conducting during the past two years. The Cosmopolitan's title, "Modern College Education—Does it Educate in the Broadest and Most Liberal Sense of the Term?" is not used as President Harper's theme. He confines himself rather to the consideration of the relations which universities bear to our republic and to the people. Pres. Harper is one of the men who seem to desire to take broad and liberal views of the subject of education.

The first chapters of Count Tolstoy's great novel appear in the April Cosmopolitan. Publication is taking place simultaneously in the United States, England, France, Germany, Austria and Russia. The novel has been carefully edited for The Cosmopolitan. No part of the story has been lost, though, perhaps, the reader is deprived of some of the picturesque which appeared in the original Russian.
