MATRIMONIAL.—The residence of Mr. H. Tucker at Fisherton Station, says the Advance, was the scene of a happy but quiet event at 4 o'clock Wednesday evening, 19th inst. The occasion was the marriage of Mrs. Tucker's daughter, Miss Annie Cashnie, to Mr. James C. Cruikshank of Warton. The bride was attended by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. Ward, in the presence of about twenty of the bride's relatives and friends. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Geo. Cashnie, while Miss Marie Chiddister acted as the bride and Mr. Will Cruikshank the groom. The bride was attired in cream bedford cord trimmed with chiffon, satin and lace, and carried a magnificent bunch of white bridal roses. The bridesmaid was becomingly attired in a white muslin, and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. The presents were numerous and well chosen, which testified to the high esteem in which the bride was held. When the ceremony was over the guests partook of a sumptuous supper, after which a most enjoyable evening was spent in parlor games and other amusements. The band from Fisherton added much to the pleasure of the evening by its sweet strains and was much appreciated by all. The happy couple left for their new home in Warton on the 9:30 p.m. train amidst showers of rice. Mrs. Cruikshank will be missed in the Station Sabbath School, where she was a constant and active worker. Mr. and Mrs. C. carry with them the best wishes of the entire community.
