INDUCTION SERVICES.

The Presbytery of Owen Sound met at Dornoch on Tuesday of last week. The occasion was the induction of the Rev. Mr. Graham, late of Bayfield in Huron Presbytery, over the charges of Dornoch and Rocky Saugen.

The attendance was large from both congregations, and a harmonious spirit prevailed, promising well for the future welfare and work of the two congregations.

At Rocky Saugen on Sabbath last a large congregation assembled to greet Rev. Mr. Graham on his first appearance as their minister.

The Rocky people have erected two commodious stands, one on each side of the road as "jumping on and off" places, which is a common-sense improvement of great value.

Hopeville.

The Methodist church people held a grand picnic in Miss Campbell's Orchard and was carried out under the watchful eyes of Rev. Mr. Humphrey's of Priceville, and everything went well.

The most important event of the season was the gathering on the 31st at Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson's of about one hundred guests, to witness the marriage of their youngest daughter Miss Mary LeVina, to Jeremiah Cranston a prosperous young farmer of Bruce Co.

After the tea the very valuable presents were examined. They were useful and costly articles and nearly filled one room.

Mr Hugh A Hardy of Osprey, was over to Swinton Park lately. Mr and Mrs Gorlett, from near Hamilton, have been visiting their friends, the Burnetts, here.

The McLesch party are talking of holding revival meetings. Our reeve and council met with the Inspector of Schools in Dundalk, Thursday, the 1st inst.

Dornoch.

Mr. B. McKinnon of Queen Hill, was for a few days last week the welcome guest of her cousins, the Stewart family.

Rev. Finlay, of Bruce Co. spent a few days here lately while en route to Durham to fill the Pres. pulpit.

Miss Susie McIntosh is at present enjoying, and intends for the summer to enjoy the healthful breezes of our village.

John Hodgson arrived home last week from a visit to his former home near Holstein. He enjoyed the vacation.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Jas Hewitson in the loss of their youngest boy, a bright little fellow of 12 months from blood poisoning the result of a bad scratch with a rusty nail.

Messrs Grierson & McLean, Mull Corners, pass through here daily with great loads of Ship timber for Chateworth.

John Hay returned last week from Orangeville where he had been visiting a lady friend. While away he invested in a handsome new bike and wheeled home.

A McDonald and Jas Hay are this week at Niagara camp for the first time enrolled as volunteers. The ladies say they looked handsome in uniform and Captain Galbraith may well be proud of his Dornoch contingent.

Mrs J Mills left over a week ago for Valletta, Kent Co., to spend two months with her son Robert.

Emke's gang of lively rascals last Saturday completed the foundation of A. Jackson's barn. It is a splendid piece of masonry work.

For the first time in 6 years George McIntosh is enjoying the comforts of the parental home. He has spent the intervening time principally in Cloquet, Wis. He looks well and is the recipient of many handshakes.

Miss Annie Corlett has for the last week been a guest of friends in the Queen City. She is expected home shortly.

We extend congratulations to Mr & Mrs Edward Walsh on their matrimonial venture. Both are formerly from these parts where the happy groom owns considerable property.

We were pleased to meet Mr George A Corlett, C. E. of Calumet, Mich., who was for a few days the beginning of the week on a visit to his parents here. Geo looks well and is prospering in the Wolverine state.

June Nuptials.

On the evening June 7, on the verandah and lawn before the handsome residence of Mrs W Ledingham, surrounded by a large number of relatives and invited guests the solemn words were spoken that proclaimed Mr. Edward Boyce and Miss Mary E Ledingham, man and wife.

Rev Mr Little, Chateworth, assisted by Rev Mr Mather, Elmwood, and Rev. Mr. Graham, Dornoch, tied the nuptial knot. The bride looked charming in a cream cashmere, carrying a bouquet of white roses. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Elsie, who looked handsome in white dotted muslin.

We extend congratulations for a long and happy life.

Induction.

On June 6th, the anniversary of the ordination and induction of Rev Mr. Little 6 years ago, the Rev. Mr. Graham, of Bayfield and Bethany was inducted into the charges of Dornoch and Rocky Saugen.

Our correspondent here relates the part taken by the various clergymen and as this is embodied in a report elsewhere it is omitted here. He closes this part by saying that Rev. Dr. Sommerville gave the congregation many good and wholesome truths to reflect on.

Miss Jean Ledingham arrived home last week from Lad Portage where she has spent the last five months.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve.

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order.

Mulock.

Mr and Mrs Edward Boyce attended church here Sunday evening and received many congratulations.

Robert Currie, 7th con., raised his barn last week. The usual sides were chosen, captains being Jno McDonald and A Hobkirk, the latter being the winner by a close shave.

Mrs Jno McGillivray and her daughter Mrs Wm Fulton, visited Glenelg friends last week.

Mr Raeburn, an attractive young man from Brant, visited at Jno Fosters at the beginning of the week.
