OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

A sudden but very persistent idea has taken possession of the mind of the people, as represented by those who gather on Parliament Hill during a parliamentary session, that the days of the present sitting of Parliament are numbered, and that the guns of prorogation will be booming before we are well into the dog days. Possibly the wish is father to the thought, but the actual basis of the notion seems to be an expectation that the Opposition will drop their threatened obstruction on the Redistribution Bill, and allow it to pass with only that moderate criticism, which they must offer for appearance sake. They realize now that the country is not impressed with the enormities (?) of the bill and the Senate will not offer any serious obstacles; so that it will be the part of wisdom and personal convenience to close up with all reasonable celerity and go home.

The supplementary estimates which have been brought down by the Minister of Finance total $2,647,628. These figures make the total somewhat in excess of last year's, but the increase is more than accounted for by the extraordinary expenditures required in the administration of the Yukon, the first cost of erecting necessary buildings and other expenditures imperative in the opening of such an absolutely new country and which have necessitated an outlay of $1,130,054. While a total expenditure for the year of some $45,000,000 is heavy, the fact must not be overlooked that the revenue has grown much more rapidly than the expenditure, and the Government, taking advantage of the elasticity of the public funds, the result of widespread national prosperity, are wisely utilizing the opportunity to push forward various works of public requirement which will be of inestimable value in assisting and encouraging the opening up and further prosperity of the Dominion.

Development Not Extravagance.
The progressive business man or the enterprising commercial institution invariably takes advantage of a season of prosperity and growing trade to improve facilities for yet larger business, and in the same way the country looks to the Government to take advantage of like favorable opportunities. Because $38,000,000 was an extravagant and excessive expenditure three or four years ago that fact is not in itself a proof that $43,000,000 is an excessive expenditure to-day. A man with an income of $1,000 would not be justified in spending $1,100, but if his business developed till he was making $1,500, he would be fully justified in increasing his outlay to $1,400 if the growth of his business demanded it and he would be better off in a more prosperous condition with the bigger outlay than with the smaller.

It is not likely that any exception will be taken to this argument even as it stands, but when in addition it is borne in mind that the old expenditures so strenuously opposed by the Liberals in Opposition were tremendously augmented by scandalous mis-appropriations, ruinous prices paid to partisan contractors, deliberate steals in this department and that, all of which was proved before the Public Account Committee, while on the other hand there is not even a suggestion of crookedness in one single expenditure under the present administration, the proposition I am contending for is immeasurably strengthened. There is all the difference in the world between proper expenditure and reckless extravagance, and the country is not going to be fooled by the sophistries of speakers and writers who would have us believe that the Liberal party to-day is guilty of the very offence which they so strenuously criticized when in Opposition.

Irish Lake.
Intended for last week.
Miss Maggie Butler returned home on Friday, after spending one and a half years with her aunt at Little Current.
Mr. James Nash and Mr. Alex. Campbell have each purchased a new cart.
Miss Kate McRae, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks vacation at her home at the Lake. Little Norman Henderson, of Toronto Junction, came with her, and will spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.
Miss Hannah Sullivan paid a two-week visit to her sister, Mrs. Thos. Cantlon, in Mount Forest. Mrs. Cantlon drove her home Friday, returning the same evening.

Our annual Irish Lake picnic will be held in the usual place—Mr. Sullivan's Grove—on Thursday, 22nd inst. The present appearances indicate a successful picnic.
There died on Thursday, June 1st, Miss Tena Wilson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wilson, aged about 18 years. Deceased contracted a cold some time ago, to which, despite kind and loving care and the best of medical attention she succumbed. Tena was of a quiet, unassuming disposition and was beloved by all, while her premature death is sincerely mourned by all who knew her. The beautiful coffin was strewn with flowers—a cross composed of shamrocks being especially pretty. Six cousins acted as pallbearers, while Rev. P. H. Hauck conducted the services at church and grace. The funeral cortege was a very large one. To the heart-broken parents and sorrowing brother we tender our deepest sympathy.
