MT. FOREST FITTINGLY OBSERVED Dominion Day. A Fergus band supplied music, the Dumoulin Bros. performed on the trapeze. Prof. Laughed swung the clubs in good style. Fletcher won the 1 mile bicycle race, but was beaten by his opponent Dill in the 2-mile race. The relay race caused some interest, and the tug of war was won by Wellington. The Lacrosse Match, Mt. Forest and Arthur was a draw, though Arthur showed the best combination work. Each won 2 goals.

SCHOOL CONCERT.—Friday last Miss Large and friends of S. S. No. 9, had their Annual Picnic and concert in the evening. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in an attractive spot near the school, where the children were gratified. In the evening the school was nicely filled to listen to a program got up by Miss Large, but not this time by her pupils. It was voted a very pleasant affair. Mr. Thos. McGirr was chairman. Mr. A. Galbraith supplied the chief humor of the evening in his comic songs, though he had others. Miss Black sang one solo only, and the audience would have liked more. Miss Jessie Laidlaw sang some of her sweet songs. Miss Maud Irwin gave some clever recitations, and in the same line Miss Maggie Scott rendered three selections in a style worthy of the most critical audience. Messrs. J. P. Whelan and Galbraith sang a duet very nicely. Messrs. Irwin and Ramage each made brief remarks. Miss Ida Wilson also sang sweetly. Proceeds about $12, which goes towards outside school improvement. Miss Large's aesthetic tastes has given the inside a pleasing home-like appearance, and the quality of her work in school is very highly valued.

ALLAN PARK PICNIC.

The annual Picnic of this section was held on the old grounds, near the river on the 30th ult. As usual an immense crowd assembled to spend a pleasant afternoon together.

The day was fair, and after the cravings of the inner man was satisfied, Mr. Henry Brigham was appointed chairman, a position which this gentleman worthily filled. The program, consisted of music by the Hanover band, who discoursed the sweetest of music at various times during the afternoon. Speeches by Messrs. R. B. Walker, John Taylor, Dr. Jamieson, Rev's Craigie and Bray of Hanover, Messrs. G. Ramage of the Review, and W. Irwin of the Chronicle. Songs by the children, led by Miss Brigham, who presided at the organ, also songs by Messrs. Holman, Frank Livingston, and Henry Pratt. There were also several recitations by the pupils. The speeches were mostly patriotic in their nature, and many good things were said by the different speakers, which no doubt will have a tendency to inspire young and old to a still greater love for their home and country. After the program ended, the crowd went up to Mr. Marshall's field, to witness a game of football, between the Elmwood boys and South Line. Brant, resulting in a victory for the former. This being over, the people dispersed to their various homes, we hope to sleep soundly after their day's enjoyment.

Mr. McDonald, the popular teacher and the committee of management must feel gratified at the success that have attended their efforts.

FACTORY.—Saturday last Architect Ritchie, Mt. Forest, met with the managers, on the grounds near the station and came to arrangements as to size and form of the new building. Plans will be ready in a few days. Meanwhile the Directors intend to go on with the excavating. The first call on shareholders has been made due August 1st. This all indicates such a move as to be heartily gratifying.

THE LATE DAVID NIVEN.—Tuesday last that was mortal of David Niven, a native of Scotland, died at his residence in Durham. For over 40 years the deceased was connected with Durham or the country near it, and his upright character and quiet unobtrusive demeanor always commanded the highest respect. He was always a very healthy man, and when stricken with his last illness some weeks ago, he felt it to be his last, and with great patience and admirable Christian hope, awaited the end. This came early Sunday morning. Besides his widow, he leaves as chief mourners a son, Mr. Alex. Niven, Welbeck, and a married daughter down the country, who was prevented by illness from being present. There is also a son in the far West, not heard from for many years. These were all children of his first marriage. Rev. J. L. Campbell, assisted by Rev's McGregor and C. Cameron, conducted the funeral services. He was 76 years, 5 mos. old.
