of construction, engineering, overseeing, inspection, financing and also muting statute labor for a term of years, and all other matters pertaining to the carrying into effect a better and more scientific method of road building and maintainance than has been practised heretofore in this county."

The committee appointed is composed of Messrs. Allen, Brigham, Brown, McDonald, Preston, Totten, the warden and Mr. Richardson, chairman.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

Last Wednesday, June 28th, another happy union of hearts and hands took place at the residence of the bride's mother Mrs, Turnbull, Glevelg, when her daughter Miss Maggie A. was united in the ties of wedlock to Mr. John Milligan of Hampden. Rey, Mr. Little, Chatsworth, performing the ceremony. At five o'clock the strains of the wedding march on the organ played by Miss May McClocklin of Durham, announced that the ceremony was about to begin and the groom supported by Mr. David Smith, took his place in the parlor, which was one mass of beautiful flowers, and was immediately joined by the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother Thomas, accompanied by Miss Mary C. Burnet of Durham, who very gracefully did the honors of

The bride looked charming in a blue Council for having granted $300 to Merino whip cord, cream satin front, covered with lace and pale blue shirred Report No. 3 of Finance committee ribbon, trimming, and carried a shower bequet of white roses, with orange blossoms in her hair.

The presents which were both numerous and costly, bespoke the esteem entertained for the bride and her husband. Space would not allow us to numerate them, but we would mention one table which was filled with yaluable presents from friends of the bride in 6,830 00 Bobcaygeon, where she resided for the 12,640 00 last three years. Among them being a 11,093 80 ten dollar gold piece, the gift of her employer, Mr. M. M. Boyd, and many other valuable presents from the family,

Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Little. Chatsworth; 1,100 00 Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Little, Owen Sound; Int. on bylaws & sinking fund 1,957 00 Mr. and Mrs. Dan Muir and Master Archie, of Flesherton; Mr. and Mrs. Gowanlock of Walkerton: Mr. John Several other reports were brought | Turnbull and Master Alex. of Malton. The bridesmaid also looked handsome in cream organdy, trimmed with lace and ribbon to match.

After receiving hearty congratulations, the happy company, which numbered about seventy, sat down to an elegant and elaborate repast, The tables were tastefully decorated with roses and ferns.
