

Local and District News.

Windsor Bbl. Salt at J. A. Hunter's.

Trustees of Hampden school advertise in this issue for a Second Class Professional teacher.

A full line of Ladies' Ready-made White Goods, Blouses, Skirts, Wrappers, etc. at J. A. Hunter's.

FOR TEMISCAMING.—Messrs. C. & G. Watson on Monday shipped an engine and boiler at the station here for the new country round Temiscaming.

Rev. John Little, Chatsworth, preached Anniversary sermons very acceptably to large congregations in Flesher-ton Sabbath before last.

REDUCTION SALE.—Miss Culbertson wishes to announce that she will sell the remainder of her Millinery Goods at cost, for the next few weeks.

A successful trip to and picnic at Hayward's Falls was carried out Tuesday by members of the Line Juice Club and their friends.

PROGRESSING.—This week the roof timbers are being placed on the new buildings in the Calder Block. The roof once on, inside fittings will go on rapidly.

CORRECTED.—In our issue of last week we should have said Miss Maggie Gun graduated with honors in the literary course. Her diploma includes music, French, English, Science and History.

The caretaker of the Bruce House of Refuge has got into trouble by opening correspondence of some of the inmates, and is being tried for the same. The County Council gave him authority, and it is a question if this will stand in a court of law.

A SMILING COUNTRY.—The copious rains of this season has made the crops throughout these townships look better than they have done for years. South Grey farmers have reason to be grateful, as tales of drought come from Southern Ontario.

IMPLEMENTATIONS ON THE MOVE.—Agent Wm. Sharp, representing the Noxon Company, had a delivery of rakes, mowers and binders on Tuesday, and this year there promises to be lots for them to do. A complimentary dinner was given to the admirers of the Noxon machines at the Central Hotel.

Report of Promotion Examination for U. S. S. No. 3. Bentinck and Glenelg. Names arranged in order of merit. From Sr. 3rd to Jr. 4th.—May Cameron, Lauchie McKechnie. From Sr. 2nd to Jr. 3rd.—Wm. Coffield, Hazel Dargavel, Albert Twamley, May Smith. Recommended, Robt. Twamley. From Jr. 2nd to Sr. 2nd.—Wm. Smith, Priscilla Simpson, Maggie Murdoch.

SENATOR SANFORD DROWNED.—By the upsetting of a boat on a Muskoka lake on Monday Senator Sanford of Hamilton was drowned. The fatality has caused widespread grief. He was a very wealthy man, doing an enormous business, but was noted for philanthropy and benevolence. The Senate adjourned as a mark of respect to his memory. He was aged 61.

The Flesher-ton Advance speaks of Rev. Mr. Small, of Keewatin, thus: "He is a reciter of no mean order and rendered two choice old favorites in a manner that left nothing to be desired. His rendering of "The volunteer organist," was excellent, and "Our folks" was done in quite a masterly way. As an elocutionist as well as a pulpit orator we believe Mr. Small ranks high."

"BIGGEST ON RECORD."—This refers to the crowd in Owen Sound on July 1, at the opening of McLachlan Park. They really had a successful time, the chief speaker of the day being Mr. Parkerson, of New Orleans. But where were Sir Wilfred, Sir Chas., and a host of other billed speakers? Next Calihumpian procession we have, we intend to spend a few 2ct stamps and say "Pres. McKinley, the Prince of Wales, and Cecil Rhodes have been invited."

TURE CLUB.—Last Tuesday evening the Annual financial meeting of this body was held at the Knapp House. Messrs. W. D. Mills and J. W. Brown, Hanover, brought in the Auditors' Report which was satisfactory to all concerned. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Sec'y Black for the able and energetic manner in which he has performed the duties of Sec'y., especially at this summer's meet, he having been successful in bringing the best class of horses to Durham ever seen here as well as incidentally advertising the town as a business centre. Mr. Black expressed a desire to withdraw from the Secretaryship, but a very general desire exists that he should retain the position he fills so well.

Secure a $1.25 Blouse at J. A. Hunter's for 75 cents.

The contract has been let to properly grade and finish the sides of our streets.

Read J. A. Hunter's Big advertisement this week.

Lucas, Wright and Batson.—At Durham office Mondays and Court Days.

Roger's extra Machine Oil 35c gallon at J. A. Hunter's.

No one will fault the town for the grants made at last meeting to better equip the Fire Brigade. See minutes.

A valuable horse, belonging to Miles Wilson, dropped dead in its stable on Monday night.

The best way to avoid sickness is to keep yourself healthy by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

A Supplement this week, trying to get in everything before next week's holiday has made us late with a few of our mails.

The annual Bunessan S. S. picnic will be held in McKinnon's bush on Friday July 14th. A grand time is expected and all are invited. A silver collection will be taken up to help to defray expenses. Come and spend an afternoon with Bunessanites.

SCHOOL TEACHERS.—Next year's arrangements are already being talked of. We hear that Mr. Redford, S. S. No. 1 of Normanby, goes to Allan Park for 1899. Mr. Whiteford, Hampden goes to Hawkesbury, taking the place of Mr. Jos. McCulloch, who goes to the university. Mr. John Graham, No 11 Egremont is stationary for 1899.

A COMPLIMENT.—A recent issue of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene contains a leading signed article highly commending McLachlan's (Owen Sound) Cream Soda Biscuits for purity and general excellence, as a wholesome food product, after a careful examination by scientific analysts. The firm had no knowledge that an investigation was being made.

REGULAR VISITOR.—The Port Elgin Times reckons among the regular visitors at their Dom. Day demonstration Mr. C. C. McFayden, the well known Highland pioneer of Glenelg, where he has lived since 1846. The Times makes special kindly mention of Colin's love for Scotch bagpipe music and dancing. Mr. McF. visited many Bruce friends while away.

FULL OF YEARS.—There died at the home of Mr. Gillan Boyd on Monday last, Alex. McDonald. He was born in Ulva, Scotland, 70 years ago, and came to this country when a young man, doing his share of pioneer work. For a good while back he has been cared for at Mr. Boyd's, and has long been frail, and death came to him at last as a happy release. He was an ardent reformer and a great admirer of the Globe which he has read regularly for over 40 years.

LONDON LET LOOSE.—A street car strike in London, Ont., after several weeks had feeling culminated on Saturday in a riot which caused the wounding of several citizens, and employees of the company. The Mayor read the Riot Act, and the police being powerless, the militia from surrounding towns were called out to assist if necessary the local forces. The damage done amounts to thousands of dollars, but at latest accounts all is quiet and the city will endeavor to punish the men who have disgraced it.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—Following our usual custom we will next week give our readers a rest while we take our annual holiday. The office will be open as usual, and ye editor and staff will be rattling over jibberish like this: "116 j John Jones, farmer 3of16. 2 M.F.O. 9," in the height of their holiday fun. The picnic season is over, haying is on, and if any one proposes getting married we would kindly ask them to put it off a few days and we will do them justice on the 27th, when we expect again to pick up our pen. Meanwhile good wishes to all, with thanks for past favors.

A SUDDEN TAKING OFF.—Very sudden and much regretted was the death of Daniel Dunsmore, who died on Tuesday of last week, after an attack of bowel complication lasting only hours, as he was in Durham the day previous. He had had similar attacks before, but the severity of this led his parents to send for medical aid, but death was in the cup, and he passed away at the early age of 12 years. He was buried on Thursday last, many friends and neighbors showing by their presence the sympathy that is felt for the home so suddenly plunged into mourning for one of its brightest members. The REVIEW joins in the general sympathy.
