DURHAM, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1899.

WHOLE NO. 1121.

Local and District News.

See Laidlaw's ad. this week.

Glengel minutes this week—a regular financial statement.

TOWN COUNCIL.—No quorum Monday night. Mr. Gorsline tried to get one up but failed.

Lucas, Wright & Batson.—At Durham office Mondays and Court Days, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Mr. John A. Black has secured several good orders for grave stones lately, he having taken an agency in the marble business.

30 cents will take the REVIEW and Weekly Globe to any address for the balance of this year. For $1.75 we will send both to the end of the century to new subscribers.

Cement sidewalk construction is in progress this week in front of the new portion of the Calder Block. Messrs. Kress and Bean have got new awnings in place. The "Big 4" will be moved next week it is expected.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.—The Annual government grant to the Library this year is $18945. New books have lately been added and more will be. As the long nights approach provision should be made to use this fine Library.

The Rev. J. H. Moorhouse, rector of Christ Church, London, who is announced to lecture in the Town Hall on Friday evening on "The importance of cultivating a taste for reading," will preach in Trinity church on Sunday next at both services, and at Allan's School House, Egremont, in the afternoon.

NOTICE.—In consequence of subsequent action, taken by the Directors of the Horticultural Society, it becomes necessary to somewhat elaborate the statement made formerly concerning the premiums for members this fall. Those choosing fruit trees may have either apple trees or plum trees, and those preferring bulbs can take either lily bulbs or tulip bulbs. Will all members please make selections and inform Secretary Gorsline of same?

A DURHAM BOY MARRIED.—A recent copy of the Blair Republican, Nebraska, contains the following notice. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Munro of this town. We extend congratulations: "Mr. Lauder A. Munro and Miss Mabel Sappenfield were married in Omaha, Wednesday evening, August 9th at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Charles W. Savidge. The bride is a daughter of our fellow townsman, Mr. D. A. Sappenfield, and is a very enterprising and accomplished young lady and well known in this community. The groom is city salesman for the Omaha Compressed Yeast Co., and is a well-to-do and energetic young man. The happy couple will make their home in Omaha near Walnut Hill. The Republican extends congratulations along with the numerous friends of the bride in this community."

FAREWELL TO MR. GALBRAITH.—Last Wednesday night in view of Mr. A. Galbraith's departure for the west the following morning, a number of his friends in the Presbyterian Church got up a little social and literary evening in his honor. Though hurriedly arranged for it was very successful. The choir, as was most appropriate, rendered some fine selections. Miss Frankie Black and Jessie Laidlaw rendered two solos in their usual good style while Misses Burnett and McFarlane gave a fine duet. This over, a presentation was made to him of a purse with money, a Presbyterian Book of Praise as a reminder of musical associations with the choir, and a handsome Bible. Mr. C. Ramage made the presentation, and brief addresses were given by Insp. Campbell, elder Geo. Turnbull, Supt. Thos. Allan, Mr. Irwin, of the Chronicle, Mr. Mills, and R. McFarlane, choir leader. All referred to the many valued traits in Mr. G's character, socially, musically & otherwise, their appreciation of his will to help in anything connected with the church and his public-spiritedness generally. While regrets were expressed at the separation all good wishes were extended to him in whatever new field he entered upon and the hope expressed that his many brilliant qualities would always be found helping a good cause. Mr. Galbraith knew of the social, but the presentation was a surprise. He replied very appropriately and with considerable feeling, which was not made less when the company sang with great heartiness "God be with you till we meet again." Hearty handshakes and good wishes were extended by all and the meeting which had been opened by prayer by Mr. Turnbull and closed in the same way by Mr. Marshall broke up.

Laidlaw's sale is a great chance to get extra value for your money.

Congratulations to neighbor Wm. Sharp on quitting the ranks of single blessedness.—To Mr. & Mrs. Sharp best of good wishes.

CLUBBING.—REVIEW and Weekly Globe to January 1, 1900, 30 cents. To January 1, 1901, $1.75 to new subscribers.

Mr. H. Ham, for many years station agent at Holstein, has been promoted to a similar position at Milverton. Holstein Methodist and Epworth League circles will miss him.

CHEAP READING.—We will send the REVIEW and Weekly Globe from date to January 1, 1900, to any address on this continent for 30 cents. Send along your name or the name of a friend today, and pay earliest opportunity.

THE POST OFFICE.—Last Saturday it was freely given out on the streets that Mr. J. J. Smith was to be our next postmaster. On enquiry, Mr. Smith knew nothing of the appointment although from other sources we learn he is likely to be the next incumbent. Whatever may be done in the future, it is very unlikely that a change will be made for some time, perhaps not until next year.

"THE GROWING TIME IN CANADA"—This is the title of a most attractive little booklet issued by the Globe, Toronto. The contents, illustrations, &c., are admirably fitted to impress the reader, either foreign or native born with the importance of our country and the possibilities that yet lie in the immediate future. Very wisely if meant for old land distribution, only summer sports are illustrated, as the belief there is deeply rooted that Canada, as a land of snow and ice, is only fitted for curling, tobogganing, &c. A fine map illustrating the chief trade routes of the world and British possessions is included. Well done the Globe, easily the most influential paper in Canada.

REV. D. DUFF DEAD.—Word reached Hanover on Monday that the Rev. D. Duff had died at Cedarville the previous evening. Some weeks ago he went on a visit to his sister, who resides in that village, and while there occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church and was taken sick during the service. Mr. Duff was a graduate of Knox College, Toronto, and has had charge of West Bentinck and Brant Presbyterian congregations for over thirty years. The people among whom he labored admired and loved him for his many rare qualities of heart and mind. Previous to taking up the work at Malcom he had labored as a missionary in British Columbia,—he was the first Presbyterian missionary to that country.—Post

Mr. Alexander Skene, who taught five years in S. S. No. 6, Saugeen, and also for a like period of time in No. 13, Bruce, and who is now in charge of an industrial school in the North West, paid a hurried visit to some of his old friends in the town and vicinity last week. Although it is some twelve years since he left this country his name is still fresh in the homes of the sections in which he taught. We doubt if any other teacher in a rural district in Bruce made the same number of scholars as did Mr. Skene. From No. 6, Saugeen, we have but to mention such names as that of W. B. McKechnie, J. Pollock, D. Muir, A. J. and A. H. McGillivray, A. Campbell; and from No. 13 Bruce P. McKechnie, T. McKechnie, Chas. Cameron, D. McKinnon, A. Nelson, and many others, almost all of whom will say that they owe much to the influence of Mr. Skene. Besides giving information to his scholars, where most teachers of to-day stop, he gave inspiration; his personality was bound to tell on the character of those whom he taught. His many friends here are pleased to hear that he still meeting with great success.—Port Elgin Times.

HONOR ROLL

Following is the report of Latna school for the month of August.
4th class—May Cameron 3rd Sr.—Mary McKnight. 3rd Jr.—Hazel Dargavel, Wm Coffield. 2nd Sr.—Maggie Murdoch, Neil Campbell. 2nd Jr.—Jessie Stewart. Pt 2nd—Idella McAllan. Sr 1st—Annie Stewart. Jr 1st—Fria Hawker.

J. F. GRANT, Teacher.

Normal Schools Overflowing.
It is said that the Education Department has been obliged to refuse the applications of nearly four hundred students who wished to attend the provincial Normal schools at Toronto and Ottawa this year. There are already enough applications in to fill the Normal schools for a year to come, even after allowance has been made for the 100 students that can be accommodated at the new London Normal school, which will be opened in January next.

PERSONAL MENTION

Principal Allan and his two sons took in the Toronto Fair last week.

Reeve McKenzie, Proton was in town Monday.

Miss Park, of Durham, is visiting Miss O'Connor.—Bruce Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hunter are taking in Toronto show this week.

Miss Maggie Caldwell returned from Toronto Saturday last, and will attend the Model school here.

Mr. Munro Sutherland came up on Saturday last for a brief visit to friends and old scenes. He left on Tuesday.

Mrs. Rogers, Waterloo Avenue, niece of Mr. John Coutts, is visiting friends in Bentinck.

Misses Annie and Maggie McKenzie went to Toronto last week returning on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graham left by train Wednesday morning for the city.

Miss Emma Swallow left Tuesday morning for Toronto, where she will remain for some time.

Misses McKenzie, of Montreal, left for home last Thursday. They were accompanied by their grandfather, Rev. Mr. Stewart.

Miss Mary Gordon and Mr. A. W. Hunter left Monday and Miss Maggie McKenzie, Tuesday, for the O. Sound Coll. Inst.

Mrs. Smith, Toronto, is visiting her brother, Mr. John Coutts, Vickers, and other friends. A clever daughter of Mrs. Smith's, Ada, danced before royalty some years ago.

Mrs. Kilmer and children visited Walkerton Monday on a visit to the former's mother and returned in the evening. Miss Jane accompanied them home.

Mrs. Boyd, (nee Mabel Sutherland), niece of Mrs. James Burt, came up last week from Stratford to spend a month or so on the farm. She has just passed through a trying hospital experience.

Mr. John Firth, who was so seriously ill two weeks ago that his life was despaired of, is recovering nicely and returning appetite gives hope of complete recovery. It must be very gratifying to Dr. Freeland to see his patient making such progress towards renewed life.

Dr. Hugh McNeil, Chicago, was home last week on a visit to his many friends in South Grey and Dufferin. He was arranging for a monument to the memory of his deceased father, the last filial duty devolving upon him. He returned this week and leaves his Review label reading "June 01."

Mr. Archibald Galbraith, eldest son of Mr. John Galbraith, left here yesterday for Durham, from which place he will take the train for Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, U. S., where he purposes following dentistry. For nearly three years Archie has been engaged in teaching in S. S. No. 10, Bentinck, where he made many friends. He leaves here with the best wishes of a host of friends.—Chatsworth News.

Mr. N. J. McArthur, winner of the medal in the Collegiate sports and also winner of the oratory contest at the Collegiate in 1890, winner of the medal for oratory at Toronto University in 1891 and general all round athlete and orator of the staff of the state Normal school in Minnesota, is at present in town renewing old acquaintances and having a look at the old school and surroundings. He attended the summer session at Harvard University and was very prominent in sports there having made a 50 yard dash in 5 1/2 seconds which is faster than 100 yards would be in 10 seconds, as the start counts a lot. He leaves on the Athabasca Saturday afternoon.—O. S. Sun

WM. LAIDLAW

ONE THING CERTAIN.

Miss Hattie Moffat is a Durham Girl.

"The Hamilton Spectator announces with its customary colossal nerve" says the Stratford Beacon, "that Miss Hattie Moffat, a graduate of the Hamilton School of Pedagogy has secured a position as Principal of Palmerston Public School. The phrase "colossal nerve" refers to the use by the Spectator of the word "Hamilton" instead of "Ontario Normal College," and the two papers have some facetious sparring over the name. The Owen Sound Sun quotes the sparring and heads it with our first heading above, and claims in a second heading that they may "call the College what they will Miss Moffat was an Owen Sound girl." Now we wish to give the Sun a little more light by reminding it that Miss Moffat is a Durham girl by birth, that here she received the foundations of her education at Principal Allan's academy, and the writer is pleased to have laid a brick in what has proved a fine super-structure. Congratulations to Miss Moffat.

DURHAM PRESBYTERIANS MAKE A CHOICE.

At a congregational meeting of the above body held on Monday last, Rev. Mr. Farquharson, Claude, received a call to the work here. Four other candidates were in the field and on the first ballot Mr. F. almost tied all the others. On the second ballot, he had a large majority of the votes cast, and by a standing vote his election was made unanimous. The spirit of the meeting was an excellent one and highly commented by Moderator Campbell, as though first choices differed all seemed heartily ready to fall in with the choice of the majority. This spirit was practically shown at the signing of the call subsequently when almost without exception, the names of those present were affixed. Those not present will have an opportunity of signing, either at Mr. Thos. Smith's harness shop during this week or at the morning and evening services next Sunday. Messrs. R. MacFarlane, Sr., and Geo. Turnbull were appointed to support the call at the meeting of Saugeen Presbytery next Tuesday, and Inspector Campbell will represent the congregation at the first meeting of the Orangeville Presbytery in which Mr. Farquharson is at present. Of course it will not be known for some time whether or not Mr. F. will accept the call.

Owing to increased subscriptions since the meeting, the congregation will likely feel warranted in making the call $1000, there being no manse to offer. Should Mr. Farquharson accept he may rely on a very warm reception and hearty support by the Presbyterian church here. An election of elders was completed the same day, so that the church starts out with a new session and a new minister. The session now comprises Messrs. A. Derby and T. Milligan, Bentinck; C. L. Grant and T. Allan, Durham; Jno. Bell and Wm. Young, Glengel, all capable and worthy men.
