A HARVEST OF DEATH.

The Grim Reaper Claims Five in One Day.

ARCH. McKENZIE.
JOHN WRIGHT, JR.
MRS. THOS. TURNBULL.
MRS. JOS. MOORE, SR.
WALTER WEBBER.

Seldom, if ever, has this community been called upon to witness such a taking off as last Friday produced. From old age to youth crossed the bourne that day reminding the living in a striking and forcible manner that here we have no abiding city.

POSTMASTER McKENZIE.

It is our painful duty this week to record the death of this widely known and estimable gentleman, who passed away at his residence on Friday morning last at 5 a. m.

For several months back he has been a great sufferer, and though from time to time he rallied, and though receiving the best of medical attention and careful nursing it latterly became evident that his days were numbered.

Though not unexpected, his demise makes a gap in the community in which he has moved so long. Last Monday was the 31st anniversary of his appointment of postmaster in Durham. During that time he and his assistants have given general satisfaction to the public and the authorities, and were always painstaking and obliging.

For many years he was Secretary of South Grey Agricultural Society and retired only last year from the position in which he took great delight, and in which he was eminently useful.

Deceased was of a genial nature, obliging in manner and disposition, and deeply attached to his family. He leaves behind him as chief mourners, his wife and two daughters, at home and one son, Arch W. now of Buffalo; of his family there remain one sister, Mrs W Tucker, and three brothers, Duncan, of this town Alexander in Montreal and Kenneth, near London Ont.

He was a member of several fraternal societies taking a great interest for many years in the A. O. U. W. of which he was for many years Secy, and which honored him several times by making him delegate to the Grand body.

He was also for many years Secy. of the Trustee Board here, but had to resign through new regulations affecting postmasters.

The funeral was on Sunday, at 2 p.m. the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Morrin, the Presbyterian probationer for that day, who utilized the occasion most ably and appropriately. At the deceased's own request the funeral was private, and the pall-bearers, selected by himself, were Messrs. N. W. Campbell, Thos. Allan, J. W. Crawford, of town, postmasters Smith, Mt. Forest, Coppinger, Hanover, and McLean, Walkerton. A large concourse followed the remains to the grave.

From a distance we noticed, relatives of Mrs. McKenzie, from Elmwood, W. T. Petrie and Jas. Murdoch, Holstein, John McArthur, E. Riley and J. Butters from Priceville.

JOHN WRIGHT, JR.

Later in the day, the town was started to learn that John Wright had also been called. For some years he has been in delicate health, owing to weak lung caused by abscess, but was able to be about until a few days before his death, when his formerly healthy lung became affected and the disease proved fatal. He was a lad of great promise and had just attained his majority two months before.

Having been associated with both Fire Brigade and the band, members of these two bodies walked in procession at his funeral and amongst many beautiful floral offerings was the appropriate one of a harp from "The Band Boys." The body was removed to the church at 10.30 Sunday morning where a very large congregation listened to a thoughtful and sympathizing sermon by Rev. Mr. Ferguson.

MRS. THOS. TURNBULL.

Same day, Mrs. Thos Turnbull, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Fraser,

Bentnick passed away at the age of 27 years. In this case too like the others there was warning of the end, she having been in delicate health for some time. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Morrin, and the funeral timed to follow the McKenzie one. A long procession here too testified to respect for the memory of the dead and sympathy for the sorrowing husband and parents. Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull were living in Hamilton until lately, where she was twice visited by Rev Mr Jansen in her illness. Thinking home would improve her health, she was brought to Bentnick and died in her father's house.

MRS. JOS. MOORE, SR.

Also on Friday, there passed away, like a sheaf of corn, fully ripe, Mrs. Jos. Moore, Sr. Egremont, aged nearly 81 years. Mrs. Moore has been over 40 years in Egremont, and with her husband, who preceded her 6 yrs ago, shared in pioneer difficulties and hardships. She was a woman of a kindly, hospitable, amiable disposition, respected by her neighbors and loved by her family which consists of one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lawrence, Egremont, and 6 sons—Thos. in the North west, John and Geo. (Councillor) in town, Joseph in Egremont, and William & Robert on the homestead. She was buried in Ebenezer graveyard on Saturday, Rev Mr. Humphrey, Priceville, conducting the services, a large number of friends and neighbors following the remains to their last resting place.

WALTER WEBBER.

Saddest of all the five was the death by drowning of Walter Webber aged about 15, son of Mr. Robt. Webber, Bentnick. Deceased with two of his younger brothers who were at school and a companion named Morton, went down to bathe after 4 p. m. in the Sauguen at the bridge on the Hopkins farm just south of the brick yard. Here, while sporting, Arthur Webber got into trouble and is reported to have gone down once. His brother Walter seeing this, with the spirit and the action of a hero, dashed to his help and in some way Arthur got hold of the bumper and got out to life, but his rescuer, unable to swim, went down to death. He came up several times, but they could render no help and ran to the brick-yard and alarmed the men. A son of Mr. Wright dived for the body saw it, but did not succeed in raising it. Mr. Hutton also tried and at last a temporary raft was made by Mr. Wm. Petty and by means of a pole the body was got out but of course all hope of resuscitation was gone, the body having been under water over half an hour. The water near the bridge is very deep, some holes it is said, being 15 feet, general bed being from 8 to 10 feet. It is surprising that boys unable to swim, should pick upon this dangerous spot to bathe. This is a treacherous part of our river and we believe this is the 5th or 6th drowning case in these gloomy reaches.

The funeral took place on Sunday to Maplewood Cemetery, the family burying ground. Rev. Mr. McGregor conducted the services. Intense sympathy is every-where felt for the Webber family, in this bereavement. The Review extends to all the mourners heartfelt sympathy in the dark hours of sorrow.

THE TRANSVAAL.

War Almost a Certainty.

The situation seems now to have got past the diplomatic stage and each side is sparring for advantage or prestige, both seem to think delay is making them stronger. Here is a despatch giving a succinct idea of the points at issue:

KRUGER'S DEMANDS.

1. Britain must relinquish all suzerainty rights over the Transvaal.
2. Britain must not in the future interfere in the internal affairs of the Transvaal.
3. All questions in dispute not settled by concessions offered to be submitted to arbitration.

KRUGER'S CONCESSIONS.

1. A five years' franchise to the Uitlanders.

CHAMBERLAIN'S REPLY.

1. Britain will not debar its rights under conventions to protect its subjects from injustice.
2. Question of suzerainty barred from discussion.
3. A conference at Cape Town, at which "other matters of difference than the granting of political representation to the Uitlanders" shall be settled.

4. Proposition for a tribunal of arbitration, from which foreign interference shall be excluded, to be discussed at the conference.

Crawford.

Harvesting is over, and the people are busy getting their fall wheat in. Thrashing has again started.

Miss Mary McDonald, after spending a couple of weeks at home, returned to Durham.

Mr. Jack Milne and family left for Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKechnie, of the Rocky, spent a couple of days at Mr. Donald McDonald's last week.

Mr. Sandy McDonald went to Manitoba a couple of weeks ago. We wish him success. The fair ones say it's lonesome now.

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW:
How Billy liked catching the horse.
Who is going to the exhibition.

Who plays the mouth organ when driving.

Hopeville.

The rain that came on Thursday last has done a lot of good to the farmers here, as the late crops were nearly dried up and pasture bad. Everything looks brighter now.

We see great changes here now on street improvements. One old piece of sidewalk is lifted away, and we are waiting to hear of Reeve McKenzie's contract for getting a new one.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Allen are rejecting over the birth of a daughter that is added to their family.

One of the sports of Mount Forest has a found here in training for the fall hunting. He is getting good care and will soon be fit for the chase.

Quite a number are going this week to Toronto's great exhibition.

Mr. Ham. Allen and James Deans drove to Glenelg and Edge Hill last Saturday to see old Mr. Allen who is sick.

The McLeach party are looking up a house for their preacher, Mr. Kenzie, of Woodland, who is thinking of coming here to live.

DIED.—John McArthur, son of Mr. D. K. McArthur, merchant, on Tuesday morning, 29th August, 1899. The funeral was on Thursday, 31st, to the Presbyterian cemetery, Priceville, and was largely attended. The Christian Scientists, or as they are often called—the McLeachites—turned out strong and conducted the services, Mr. Kenzie from Woodland church and Miss Dezell officiating. The pall-bearers were all members of the McLeach church. John was a young man of about 20 years and very well liked among his associates, being of a winning, lively disposition. He was ailing for some time and his recovery was scarcely expected, although he improved sufficient to be able to go out. But he had made a little too free with himself and took a relapse and died rather suddenly at last.
