Good Service! Good Goods! Good Treatment!

J. A. HUNTER

Big Departmental Store, DURHAM, ONT.

Hampden.

Miss Maggie Nichol, of Owen Sound, is the guest of Mrs. Jno. Young this week.

Miss Burnet, of Durham, attended service here Sunday.

Mr. T. Brooks, of Walkerton, paid friends here a short visit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Abel, of Paisley, and Mrs. Abel, of Sault Ste. Marie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Byers this week.

Master Stuart G. Watt, of Hepworth, called at his old home en route for London. He will spend a few days here on his return.

Messrs. F. Lobsinger and H. Fritz became the proud possessors of a bouncing baby boy each last week.

Mr. David Whitford, leaves Wednesday for his new situation. His many friends wish him success.

A very sudden death took place in Ayrton on Monday, when Mr. John Esenbach, an old and highly respected citizen got down from Wenger Bros. delivery wagon and fell senseless. Dr. McLean was hurriedly summoned but life was extinct. He leaves a wife and grown up family to mourn his loss.

Balsam Valley.

Misses Mary E. and Katie McDonald left for Toronto last Wednesday. We wish the girls success.

Miss Jane McPhail, who has been laid up with a strained wrist, is able to be around again, but not able to do any work yet.

Mr. John McPhail was the first to finish harvesting this year. Although Mr. McPhail is 72 years of age he can do most of the young fellows up yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baird, of Lauriston, paid a short visit at D. McIntyre's last week.

On Wednesday last the wedding bells did ring, and one of the fair ones of Balsam Valley was united in the holy bonds of matrimony. This being Miss Vina Harrison, one of our most estimable young ladies, being united in wedlock to Mr. Henry Alexander Falconer, of Mono Road. Exactly at six o'clock the Rev. Mr. Humphrey, of Priceville, announced that the time was at hand, and the bride leaning on the arm of her father was led to the altar. She was there supported by Miss Josephine Jacques, of Glenelg, while the groom was supported by Mr. Thos. Harrison, the bride's brother. The bride was attired in rich cream brocade lustré, trimmed with cream silk ribbon and lace, while the bridesmaid wore the same. After the usual vows were taken the numerous friends and neighbors numbering 26 sat down to a glorious supper. The bride's cake was one of her own make and deserves credit on the young lady's part. After the wedding supper the entire party enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. The wedding party left on the noon train on Friday for Owen Sound on their wedding trip. The presents were numerous and costly, and proves that the young lady was held in great esteem by all who knew her. We wish the newly married couple every success through life.

THE PRESENTS:

Mr. Joseph Slack, Mono Road, checked table spread; Miss Ethel Hogarth, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. J. Staples, 1 pair lace curtains; Miss Staples, 1/2 doz. table napkins; Louis and Josephine Jacques, bed spread; Mrs. Thos. Harrison, bed spread; Will and Susie Jacques, 2 towels; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Tucker, 2 towels; Mr. and Mrs. Jacques, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore, 2 towels; Mrs. A. Down, set irons; Mrs. McNab, set irons; Mrs. F. Reenie, fancy tea pot and 2 china tea cups and saucers; Mr. and Mrs. F. Karstedt, silver butter dish; Mr. and Mrs. G. Falconer, dinner set; Mr. and Mrs. Chislett, set preserve dishes; Miss E. Falconer, china cream pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. H. Tucker, Sr., set of glass ware; Miss Mary Moore, glass syrup dish; Mrs. C. McDonald, 1 glass butter dish; Miss Janet McDonald, glass preserve dish; Mr. Arch. McDonald, china moustache cup; Mr. J. Tucker, glass butter dish; Mrs. Peter Muir, fancy salt and pepper shaker; Mr. and Mrs. H. Tucker, Jr., bedroom set; Mrs. Humphrey, ornamental pin cushion; Mr. Humphrey, coco nut basket; Master Willie Tucker, 2 pickle dishes; Lily Tucker, 2 dozs. cups and saucers, 3 doz. egg cups, towel, pad and pepper; Henry E. Harrison, set dishes; Miss Staples, set preserve dishes; William B. Harrison, bedroom set.

THE REVIEW extend congratulations to the newly married couple.

Glorious News

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Michigan, tells how such a slave was made free. He says: My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, weakness, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by our druggists.

Dornoch.
