VOL.-XXI. NO 39.

DURHAM, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1899.

WHOLE NO. 1124.

Local and District News.

Lucas, Wright & Batson.—At Durham office Mondays and Court Days, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

30 cents will take the REVIEW and Weekly Globe to any address for the balance of this year. For $1.50 we will send both to the end of the century to new subscribers.

CLUBBING.—REVIEW and Weekly Globe to January 1, 1900, 30 cents. To January 1, 1901, $1.50 to new subscribers.

Ponton who was accused of complicity in the Napanee bank robbery, was acquitted last Saturday. Pare gets 3 yrs. and Holden 4 yrs. in Penitentiary. Roach goes out on suspended sentence. The crowd in the Cobourg Court House cheered the verdict.

Communion Services were conducted in the Presbyterian church on Sunday last by Moderator D. L. Campbell. There was a large attendance. The new elders Messrs. Derby, Milligan, Allan, Grant, Bell and Young officiated for the first time.

A CORRECTION.—In the minutes of Town Council last week, the types were made to say A. S. Hunter had been paid for some ditching. Now while A. S. has done a lot of hard work for the town, we don't believe, while councillor, he has got as much as that ditching amounts to. Of course the name is wrong, it should be A. V. Hamilton. The mistake was noticed in proofreading but missed in correcting.

AT VARNNEY.—A Harvest Home Supper and Anniversary Services will be held at Rev. Mr. Sharpe's Varnney appointment, on Oct. 15th and 16th. On Sunday the 15th Rev. T. L. Wilkinson, Hanover, will preach at 10.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. On Monday evening, Mr. Wilkinson, will also give an address assisted by Rev. Mr. Magwood, Holstein and Campbell, Tremore, and Dr. Jamieson M. P. P. Tea served from 8 to 8. Admission 25c. Children 15c. Those who know Varnney socials will try to go, those who don't should go and see. Oct. 15 & 16.

FINE FOR THE FACTORY.—Mr. Simpson, of Manchester, England, was in town for several days last week. He represents some wealthy colleagues in the old land who are interested in furniture, and he intends to invest nine or ten thousand dollars in shares of the new company so confident is he of its ultimate success. Moreover the directors have an order for practically all the furniture they can make for a good while. They are to be congratulated and so is the town on the prospect of a large and successful industry. Contractor McDonald has the stonework about completed, and Contractor Geo. Moore is bustling at the timber. Shall we hear the whistle before Christmas.

AT ORANGEVILLE.—Rev. Mr. Campbell, Dromore, and Inspector Campbell, Durham, went to Orangeville on Monday to support the call from Durham congregation to Rev. Mr. Farquharson, of Claude. The former represents Session and Presbytery, the latter Managers and Congregation. At the meeting held at the close of preparatory services last Friday, it was decided to make the salary $1,000. LATER: we learn over the wire that Mr. Farquharson has accepted, and the date of induction will shortly be announced. This decision will, we feel certain, be received with great satisfaction by the Durham congregation.

THE ASSIZES.—Owen Sound papers furnish us with the following information: The Shallow Lake Co. had to give $500 damages to an employee hurt at their works. Reckitt's v. Markdale. Not completed. Plaintiff's son came to his death while playing among timbers left on the street. Marshall v. Eccles. Action for slander. The jury brought in a sealed verdict, which we understand is in favor of the defendant. Ashdown v. Artemesia Tp. Action for damages owing to defective highway. Judgment reserved. Regina v. Burt. Case left for next Sessions. Highland v. Sherry. William Highland died in Sullivan in 1850 leaving a wife and 3 children. Sherry married the widow in 1861, cleared the land, raised the children &c. Now the children claim the farm, and as it never was patented their claim is pronounced good. However the Crown Lands Department has ordered Sherry be paid for permanent improvements, maintenance of the plantiffs, and return of any money advanced them, and when Teo. Judge finds how much this is the sharp plaintiffs may be the losers. The Judge was presented with a pair of white gloves, there being no criminal cases.

EST Colds and Chills! Why endure? When "Gun's Grip Capsules" are sure to cure. Price, 25c.

Priceville, Oct. 4th and 5th, is the place and date of Artemesia Fall Fair. Note it down and go if you wish to see a good township show.

Guelph Show last week was a financial success, though in bad weather. The Mercury notes as a curious fact that the class of Durham cattle is deteriorating.

The Dundalk Herald comes to hand in 6-column quarto form, same size as THE REVIEW. Mr. Blacklock makes his bow to his readers. We wish the new "Editor and Proprietor" much success.

HARVEST HOME.—Crawford Presbyterians intend, to-morrow evening, 29th inst., to celebrate Harvest home by a social and literary evening. Good speakers and good music have been provided. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

S. GREY EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of this body will be held in Hanover on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5th and 6th. Mr. J. V. Brown, Hanover, is the President, Miss A. Bull, Vice-President, Mr. Thos. Allan, Secretary. The programme is a very lengthy one containing no fewer than 28 items. Principal Jenkins, of Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, and T. A. Brough, B. A., Owen Sound, are the big lights present, and the range of subjects goes from Primary Management to Infinitive.

SHOOTING MATCH.—The match last week was not well attended owing to short notice and several of the members being busy with factory timber. As it was the score is not high on account of the target being 2 feet too narrow for the regulation size at 400 and 500 yards. 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes were awarded at each range. Following are the winners:

200	400	500	Yds
St. Sgt. W. Ramage	15	11	10
Pte S. Firth	11	15	5
Capt O M Smder	11	9	5

MARRIAGE BELLS.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Elms, the handsome residence of Mr. Joseph Corbett, of Vickers, on the 20th inst., when their youngest daughter, Miss Christine, was united in marriage to Mr. Thos. Livingstone, of Mount Forest, son of Mr. A. Livingstone, of Bentinck. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Jansen, of Hamilton, formerly of Durham, and was witnessed by over one hundred guests and relatives of the bride and groom. The lovely young bride was richly attired in a gown of white corded silk with pearl trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor, Miss May Livingstone, sister of the groom, looked very pretty in a costume of white swiss muslin trimmed with lace and ribbon, and carried a magnificent bouquet of white carnations. The groom was assisted by Mr. Jos. Corbett, who performed the duties pertaining to his office in a most happy manner. Mrs. W. D. Mills, of Durham, played a pretty wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor, which was tastily fitted for the occasion. After the ceremony the company repaired to the lawn, where amidst arches of evergreens and flowers the happy company were photographed by Professor Browne, of Durham, after which they all partook themselves to the dining room where a delightful wedding dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time spent in speeches, etc. The popularity of the bride and groom was fully exemplified by the unusually large number of costly and useful presents given them. The happy couple left on the night train to spend a few weeks visiting in Toronto and Hamilton, after which they will return to their home in Mount Forest. We extend congratulations. Com.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. John Baird, of Fremont, is visiting at Mr. Todd's and other friends in town.

Mr. John Cameron, traveller for the McLean Trade Journals, was home for a few days last week.

Mr. Rowe, baker, has bought out Mr. Todd, and intends to carry on his bakery there after New Year's.

Rev. Mr. Little, of Chatsworth, has been appointed to office of High Chaplain at the recent meeting of the High Court I. O. F. for Central Ontario.

Mr. Jno. Firth has so far recovered as to be walking around and enjoyed a drive with his Physician, Dr. Freeland a few days ago.

We may not be able to do justice to some of our correspondents this week. The reason being obvious.

Is your visiting friend mentioned in this column? If not, it is because we did not know of it. A call, or a card with such announcement will be appreciated: use the Review's phone

Mr. and Mrs. Roulledge and three children left Mr. Anderson's Monday morning for Mexico. The chill nights of late have hurried them off to a warmer clime. Mr. R. resumes his old employment there.

Mr. John H. Hunter was a judge at Aytun Fair last week and reports a very good showing, especially in vegetables and fruit. The potatoes were something extra. Mr. R. McFarlane, Jr. was also a visitor.

Mr. John Campbell, Spencer, Colorado formerly of Bentinck, is now prospering in a mining business in the land of his adoption. Under date of September 21 he writes expressing regards for many old friends and has kindly words for the Review which he reads closely.

Mr. Allan McFarlane, arrived home from Mine Centre at the beginning of the week. He looks well and has a rosy tale to tell of the growth and prospects of New Ontario. He left the McKenzie's well and prospering, and "Knowing not the sorrows of those who repent." He saw Mr. R. Watson, Jr. a few days ago. Rob. and his family are also in touch with that prosperous country. Allan will stay around for a few weeks.

A load of WCTU Ladies of Durham are attending the County Convention in Owen Sound Thursday and Friday.

Miss Lizzie Hornell of Toronto visited her aunt, Mrs. Jno. Cameron, this week.

J. A. Clarke, shoemaker, moved into his new shop this week and is very comfortably situated in his commodious shop.

Mr. Collinson, Aberdeen, intends to move to Ceylon where he is building a new sawmill.

Ewing Buchan has secured a position as book-keeper with a firm in Deloraine at $40 per month. Pleased to hear of Ewing's success.

Mrs. Boyd is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Burt and other friends.

Miss Messenger, Hanover, was a guest of Miss Culbertson this week.

Mr. H. Parker came home this week invigorated from a four week's holiday.

Mr. Wm. Jamieson, Exeter, is in town this week visiting his son the Dr., and meeting with many old friends. He is hale and hearty, and enjoys a joke as well as eye.

—After a busy week at Cobourg the jury in the Ponton trial have acquitted the famous bank clerk of complicity in the Napanee bank robbery. However straight the testimony of the crooks against him, appeared, it must be remembered they were crooks, with no particular bias for truthfulness. The case is now over, and a recent decision threw out Ponton's case against the bank.

—We are with the Toronto Star in asking that Thanksgiving Day should be made a month earlier than usual. Chill November drives thanksgiving ideas away. Say October 26, or would Hallow'en do?

It is our most painful duty to report the sickness, of one of our most estimable neighbors, Mrs. Wm. Timmins has been most dangerously ill for the last two weeks. We understand that the chief trouble is dropsy, but thanks to Doctors skill and careful nursing, the most dangerous time is past, and there is good hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Whirling of Vandeleur is nursing the patient at present, assisted by Mrs. Graham Timmins who is quite a Dr. and nurse in the bargain.

Mrs. John Greenwood has not been feeling well these days having had an attack of Sciatica but we are pleased to say that she is well again, and we are hoping that our friend will not have to (sigh at it) again.

Mr. John Greenwood is visiting, at his daughters near Listowel for a few days.

Most of the Whirling family of Vandeleur are visiting with Mr. Wm. Timmins these days. Mrs. Timmins being sick.

Quite a few of our young people attended the fall show at Markdale and of course, Johnnie could not miss that, we understand he put in a good time.

Mrs. O'Donovan from Arthur, spent a couple of weeks with friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. Moran of your town took in the sights round the falls on Sunday the 21st inst. and he greatly admired the works of nature and says that the natural lime kiln, is a lime kiln for the world.

Miss Lily Condy, of Guelph has been staying at her uncles Mr. John Colberts during the past week.

Miss Maggie Kenny is visiting with friends in Arthur Township, these days.

Miss Carrie Greenwood visited friends in London, and took in the sights of the Western fair.

Two of our friends at Glascot, but alas the birds had flown, so came back home again.

AS TO PROFANITY.

There are few people who are not disgusted with the sight of a reeling maulin or noisy drunkard. He is generally given a wide berth or a call made upon a constable to place him where he ceases, for a time at least, to be a nuisance to society. But is the drunkard a greater object of abhorrence, pity or contempt, than the individual who indulges in blasphemous, profane or obscene language?

Is it not often a source of annoyance that those who engage in athletic sports, or stand idly on our streets, indulge in the most unseemly language, and that too in the presence of women and children?

Of how much of the pleasure watching a game in the spectator deprived when the players are apparently as eager to distinguish themselves by the use of profanity as they are by their skill as players?

It is much to be regretted that those who take a prominent interest in outdoor recreation do not endeavor promptly to check all tendency to language which not only degrades the person who uses it, but offends the ears and wounds the feelings of those who hear it.

The soldiers and seamen of the Queen are strictly forbidden to use profane or obscene language. Intimation is given that those who do so will be severely dealt with. The laws on our statute books are just as precise on this head, and civilians are equally amenable to punishment for this offence against the well being of society.—Ex.
