VOL. XXI. NO. 43.

DURHAM, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1899

WHOLE NO. 1128.

LATE THIS WEEK.

The Review will reach some of our readers late this week. For the first time since we published the Review our supply of paper did not come in time. A delay on the railway was the cause. We trust it may be a long time before our readers or ourselves suffer this aggravation again.

The Publisher.

Local and District News.

Lucas, Wright & Batson.—At Durham office Mondays and Court Days, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The Globe, always ahead, issued last Friday the nearest war-map yet issued. It is in colours and shows the relative position of all the South African States.

NOTICE.—All parties interested are informed that I have placed my books in Mr Kelly's hands. All accounts not paid in two weeks will be placed in Court for collection.

DR. PARK.

Quite a few of our local ninnies spent Thanksgiving Day with dog and gun returning at night with considerable game. Townsman with leisure seem to be enjoying the season more than usual owing to good weather.

When buyers last August wanted winter apples at $1.00 the Sun, of Toronto, showed that the price should be $2.00. When in the same month some dealers talked of $5.00 the Sun showed that $7.00 should be the price. This is the sort of information Sun readers get weekly. Such a paper is invaluable. All farmers should take it. 5cts to the end of 1900, or, with the Review, $1.30 to end of 1900 for both papers.

INDUCTION.—The induction of Rev. Mr. Farquharson into the Presbyterian church here takes place next Tuesday afternoon at 2.30. The members of the Presbytery expected are Revs. Campbell, Dromore, Moderator, Young, Clifford, McCullough, Harriston; Dobson, Fordwick; and Miller, Holstein; neighboring ministers in other Presbyteries, and the local clergy have also been invited. Most of those who will remain for the evening social and literary reception.

FIVE FEET SIX.—Alas! Alas! the day of the big man has gone. Here are they picking out volunteers for the Transvaal, rejecting the big strapping fellows for "short stocky men" about 5 feet 6 inches or probably an inch or two more. It has long been known that "good goods are wrapped in little bundles" but the fact is only now being applied in war. Now we think they should encourage "short thin men" for obvious reasons.

LEADING AUTHORITY COMING.—Owing to numerous requests Mr. J. Y. Egan, hernia specialist, Toronto, will soon visit Durham, Middaugh Hotel, Wednesday (all day and evening) one day only, Nov. 8. The fact that this gentleman is the most reliable authority in the treatment of rupture without any operation is now established beyond the shadow of a doubt. He is meeting with great praise and success wherever he visits. If you suffer with this menacing affliction consult with this gentleman when the opportunity presents itself. See "ad" in this issue, with evidences from our own neighbors hood, which is certainly more acceptable than that of persons living thousands of miles away, as given by so many others.

The Owen Sound Sun says:—There died in Derby Tuesday, Sept. 26th, one of the oldest residents of that township in the person of Mr. Wm. Mundell, aged 85 years, 4 mos. and 19 days. Mr. Mundell was a native of Dumfriesshire, Scotland, which place he left in 1842 with his wife, Jean Gordon Seibright, a direct descendant of Lord Aberdeen, and a half sister of Mrs. G. P. Creighton, Owen Sound. Mr. Mundell first settled near Smith's Falls, after which he moved to Durham and from thence to his late residence in Derby where he lived thirty-seven years. He left behind him four sons and two daughters. Deceased was a former resident of the Durham Road, Glenelg, and owned the farm now owned by Thos. Gray, Bunessan Post-master. A son of the deceased, Robert, is married to a daughter of Registrar Lauder's in town.

MUSICAL.—Miss Margaret Gun announces lessons in Piano and Harmony. See card.

17 men from Owen Sound volunteered for the African war and a lady nurse also.

Inspector Murdoch has examined the Town scales and pronounced them in first class order.

Mr. LePan, of Owen Sound formerly treasurer of Grey Co. died last week at the advanced age of 80.

CHANGES.—Mr. E. Hartford has bought the Bull property. Price about $700. The Vair house he vacates is to be occupied at once by the factory foreman.

FARMERS OF SOUTH GREY.—I have a large amount of private funds on hand, to lend on Mortgage security at a very low rate of interest. You will save money by paying off the old mortgage. J. P. TELFORD

DIVISION COURT.—Judge Morrison decided a number of cases on Tuesday, getting through in the forenoon. The case of McKelvie-Gun, where plaintiff claimed wages from defendant for attendance on the late Mr Hastie was decided in favor of the defendant.

A YFAT PAMPHLET.—Those interested in Business Education should send to C. A. Fleming Prin. O. S. Business College, Owen Sound for a copy of his pamphlet showing the prizes, Medals and Diplomas the Northern Business College has secured.

CAN YOU COOK?—To be a good cook does not require long and arduous study. Cooking a very few dishes perfectly made Savarin famous for all time. The housekeeper who merely studies Marion Harland's chapter on "The Uses of Eggs" will win the blue ribbon. This is but one of the four volumes given to each new subscriber who sends $1.75 for The Weekly Globe, which has been for over 55 years, and is now, Canada's leading family newspaper, and the Durham Review, almost 21 years old, from now to January 1, 1901, Marion Harland's latest book, "Bits of Common Sense," in four volumes 25 cts. extra. Postage prepaid. All for $1.75.

AFTER 11 YEARS.—Mr. W. B. Vollet assisted in the erection of the Woodland building, (now transformed into a manse), away back in 1888. While at work he left a saw on the unfinished brick wall on the north side, and on looking for it, it had disappeared. Nobody had seen it, it was a good saw, and regrets were in vain but Mr. Vollet always thought another workman had jostled the saw causing it to fall into the hollow brick wall. In the changes recently made a window had to be cut in the north wall. Mr. Vollet was again on duty, and as the first hole was being made, Mason Ritchie was asked to reach in a certain place and sure enough found the saw, a little rusted on one side but none the worse after being immured for 11 years. Mr. Vollet would not now exchange it for a new one.

SETTLED.—The trouble at Boothville last week has been explained away. The foundation of the difficulty lay in Mr. Marshall's attempt to keep the factory running for the benefit of his patrons as long as possible, when in fact he was actually losing money. This became very apparent at the last sale, when the total amount he received for making was not sufficient to pay the drawers while his own expense of course was entirely unprovided for. The situation was more embarrassing than Jim could meet, hence the step he took. On coming to town last week his brother and brother-in-law came to his assistance and at a meeting of the patrons since a compromise was arrived at. Besides by a slip in Mr. M's figuring the amount in question was $300 less than appeared last week. The incident has been a disagreeable one but has its lessons.

TOWN COUNCIL.

At a meeting Saturday night, the council passed a by-law prohibiting stock being at large on our streets night or day. This will meet with general approval, though in a few cases it will be a hardship.

The appointment of a new clerk caused a slight ruffle on Monday night. There were two applicants Messrs A. Davidson and W. Anderson. The application of the former was supported by a petition with 73 names on it, comprising the chief business men of the town. In committee of the whole, Mr. Gorsline in the chair, the council divided: Livingstone, Moore, Sparring voted for Anderson, Kinnie, Calder, Hunter for Davidson. Mr. Gorsline decided that, courtesy to Mr. Anderson who had stepped into the breach in the former clerk's absence, his vote should go to him. So Mr. Anderson is clerk in the mean time, the big petition to the contrary notwithstanding.

A committee appointed to examine the late clerk's books and papers found everything all right, except an apparent discrepancy of 50cts. The new clerk, with mayor and assessor selected jurors Tuesday night.

REV. MR. FARQUHARSON.

On Tuesday of next week the induction of the above gentleman into the charge of the Presbyterian congregation here will take place in the church in the afternoon, and a congregational reception will be held in the evening. We trust the settlement about to take place may prove a profitable one not only for the congregation and the pastor, but also to the town of which Mr. F. and family become citizens.

Mr. Farquharson is a native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and we believe received his public school education there, coming to Canada with the rest of the family while scarcely into his teens. They settled in Kent Co., and had no doubt the usual experience of beginners in the bush. In 1875 Mr. F. took a teachers' certificate, taught a short time, and matriculated in the University of Toronto in 1879, taking honors in Mathematics, English and History. In his first year he took a general proficiency scholarship, and in the second year the college prize in Logic and the University scholarship in Logic and Metaphysics, graduating with honors in 1883. In 1886 he graduated in Knox standing highest in the general proficiency list thus winning the scholarship, and several other special scholarships in Hebrew, and during the two last years of his undergraduate course was tutor in Greek in the preparatory department. Still a student, in 1888 he graduated in Knox College in the B. D. course.

He has been in two charges before coming here first in the Presbytery of Chatham, and since 1891 in Claude, in the Orangeville Presbytery.

As Assembly reports show, he has been for a number of years a member of the Assembly's S. S. Committee, and has had the care of the work in one of its departments, and for several years also has been a member of Knox College Senate.

While his academic course has been a brilliant one, the qualities of mind and heart that go to make up the successful ambassador for Christ are most highly spoken of by those who know him.

We are pleased to be able to give this introductory sketch of the new incumbent of the Presbyterian church though in doing so we fear it may grate on the ears of Mr. F. himself whose modesty is as great as his merit.

We wish for him in the evening of life many happy days among loved ones.
