

Priceville.

When it rains it pours. For the last few days we have had it wet and slushy. There is no scarcity of water now.

Some have finished taking up their turnips, but there is a lot of them to do yet.

Our merchants are all able to supply all the wants that is necessary for winter use, for all our stores are well filled with reasonable goods at reasonable prices.

The ring of the anvils of our three blacksmiths are heard daily, which indicates that they are attending to their business as they ought.

Our two hotels are doing good business by strictly adhering to the rules laid down for running such places. Shoemaker Dugald McLean has the whole business to himself and his service is quite in place at this season of the year. Dugald is always on hand when called for. Mr. Robert McGowan our mill man has the double capacity of supplying his customers by steam and water. Our tannery is turning out good leather and in connection therewith his harness shop is always supplied with the best of material. Tailor Ross makes a good suit for all that is in need of his services. Our dressmakers are always busy, particularly so when a wedding is in view. Our Undertakers are generally called for in connection with their other business. Our two Dr's are generally on duty, when one is called east the other is called west, so both get a good share of patronage. Our Ministers are all faithful to their calling and are found at the appointed hour ascending their pulpits to proclaim the glad tidings. Bob Conkey our pumpmaker, is busy filling his orders for wells. Reeve McArthur is true to his duties as President of our township council, and his faithful services will enable him to secure his election for the coming year. Our Teachers are attending to their duties in instructing the youth in the way they should go. Postmaster McKinnon is always on hand to attend to his numerous calls for mail.

The Gaelic sermon in last week's paper was well prepared by Rev. Mr. Matheson and well printed by the editor. Nothing like Gaelic to the good old highlander.

Mr. Alex. McMillan and daughter Sarah has returned from a trip to Manitoba. They enjoyed themselves well in the prairie land while there.

Mrs. Peter Muir of the four corners is very low at present, but hopes are entertained of her recovery by good attendance and care.

Another young daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McDonald D. Road, Glenelg, on the 16th Oct. We are pleased to state that mother and daughter are both doing well.

Thanksgiving Day was observed here by some going to the church and more going to the woods and otherwise enjoying themselves.

Dan McDonald and Thos. McDougall, South Line left last week and found work up near the Soo, good wages.

Mr. McCabe's sale on Wednesday of last week was poorly attended. Prices ranged rather low but the quality of cattle offered for sale was of an inferior kind. D. McCormick, auctioneer did his duty well.

Collector Arrowsmith of ward No. 2 Glenelg is out notifying the ratepayers that taxes must be all paid up on or before the fourth inst. of Dec. Complaints are heard of heavy rates.

A few more members were added to the Workman Lodge No. 140 at its last regular meeting.

We were pleased to see John Mather in church last Sunday after his long and severe spell of sickness. He is not able to do any work yet.

Mrs. Patrick Sullivan who broke her arm about a month ago is able to use it a little now, but is not very strong yet.

Four new elders are to be voted on next Sunday in the Presbyterian church in addition to the old ones.

Archie McLean of the McLean brothers' threshers is laid up with severe rheumatic pains and is under medical treatment we hope he will be able to be around again soon.

A large wedding is to take place at the residence of Mr. Malcolm McDonald on Wednesday of this week. Callan og, when his youngest daughter is to be united to the young man of her choice. Particulars again.

N. McCannell purchased a fine colt from Mr. Hector Campbell, of Yeovil, for which he paid a good price.

Archie McLaugh and N. McCannell dehorned their cattle on Saturday last and now they are a herd of mules. Isn't it cruelty to animals?

Miss Mary Campbell of Swinton Park was a visitor for a day or two at Hector McLean's of this place, and attended church on Sunday.

An invitation is extended to the Christian Endeavor Society by the Epworth League to attend a social in the Methodist church on Friday evening next at 8 o'clock.
