At the request of the Master, Mr. Peter Zinn, Doctot Landerkin took the chair and assumed, in a very entertaining and happy style, the duties of chief For host, while every member of the lodge assisted in every possible way to add to the pleasure and enjoyment of their guests. The far famed Hanover Masonic Quartette and others provided excellent music. There were also well rendered readings and recitations, making altogether a splendid program which all present much enjoyed. Perhaps not less enjoyable, in its own way, was the very excellent luncheon provided. Between two days a well pleased lot of people wended their way homeward feeling that the masons had done a very nice thing and that they were "Jolly good fellows".
