

Priceville.

As the cold weather is getting on, business in our town is getting more lively and we look forward to a good share of the abundance of the good farmers produce in the neighborhood this winter, by giving them good value in return.

We are sorry to hear of Miss James' illness, daughter of C. C. James, but we hope by careful treatment to see the estimable young lady about again in her usual health before long.

Robert McGowan is putting in an engine at the saw mill this winter.

The good old edifice (the Catholic church) which stood the best of the last 35 years has been taken down by the hands of James McDowell who is going to convert the sacred edifice to a dwelling house. Those that were in the prime of life who assisted to build the church are to-day aged and gray, and many of them have gone to join the great majority, while those that are left are getting feeble and tottering on the brink of the grave.

We did not get the full particulars of the wedding of Miss McDonald and Miss Ferris of Proton, but we are informed that a large crowd was present on the occasion, and numerous and costly presents given to the young couple accompanied with showers of blessings by the givers. Another wedding in view south again this week. Hopeville or Balsam Valley will please give us a report and oblige. And more in view after awhile, as we heard two Bachelors making the following remarks: Bachelor No. 1 said he was going out in search of a wife after he would finish ploughing, and if he didn't succeed it would not be his fault, for he is getting tired of living alone, cooking his own potatoes and hannocks, milking cows, sweeping the house (we cannot say scrubbing), making his own bed and one hundred and one things left undone that should be attended to. Bachelor No. 2 said: "now since I am done threshing, I think I will get married between Xmas and New Years"

We see that No. 2 puts his remarks in the positive case, for he is going to get there all right, for there are no preliminaries to attend to for it appears that part of the business has been already performed. We hope that those two good hearted fellows will carry out their intentions by performing the noble act in question. As they are two of Glenelg's prosperous farmers, each driving a covered buggy with other conveniences to make home happy and comfortable, so we wish A. and B. success.

John McPhail, South East Glenelg, who has passed the three score years and ten by 3 or 4 years, attended all the threshings necessary for him to pay for his own, and ploughed over 30 acres of land, besides doing other chores necessary on a farm this fall. We would like to hear if there is another of his age in the township or county or even in the Dominion that could beat this.

The services are changed in the Presbyterian church. Gaelic every alternate Sunday at 11 a. m., English in the morning every second Sunday and every Sunday evening at 7 p. m. Whether the change will be met with the approval of all the congregation we are in doubts.

Mr. organizer for the Foresters is working in the interest of that order in the vicinity at present. We hear a few members are to be added to the society here at its next regular meeting.

Mrs. Peter Muir is getting along nicely after her sickness and will soon be around again.

Mr. Dyas of Toronto is visiting at his father-in-laws Mr. N. McLeod, west of here.

Quilting, paring and wood bees are in season at present. Also pairing.

Donald Kennedy, north line, is nursing a sore finger from the effects of a cut from the tusks of a dead hog.

Coun. Muir has been attending to gravelling and putting sidewalks on the bridge in town lately.

Rev. Dr. Fraser, agent for the bible and tract society, will lecture in the Presbyterian church in this village at 7:30 o'clock on Friday next.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Weir is worse than usual, her friends in this part have all been to see her a day or two ago, but while there is life there is hopes.

We hear since we commenced writing that Miss James is worse, and that an operation is necessary.

Thos. Conkey arrived home from the lower counties Saturday last.

Mrs. McIntyre, who has been ailing for some time, we are pleased to hear, is getting better.

CASH BUYERS AND CASH SELLERS

Mulock.

Intended for last week. If we are to judge by the improvements to buildings around here, we are to have a hard winter, as Mr. H. McKinnon is transforming the manse into a comfortable parsonage.

Mr. Wm. Bray is putting a wall under Jas. McIntosh's house while D. Clark has put a new roof on J. McGillivray's house.

Halloween night is past and gone for another year leaving behind it many traces of mischief performed by both men and boys. Some fine hungry fellows who were too proud to starve and too lazy to work, picked out 3 of the best of Mr. R. Currie's roosters and had a fine roast in the lush behind the barn, others amused themselves with carrying off gates, ploughs etc.

Robert Forster is home from Brant where he spent the summer months.

Mrs. J. McGillivray is visiting friends in Walkerton.

Mrs. D. Lamont is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. McCullum here.

Mr. Hugh McKinnon has done himself credit in the improvements to the manse. It was not a bit too soon that those walls were boarded in. Oh what a pitiful, lamentable tale they could tell if they were only gifted with half the tongue as those two stalwarts, who tongue battled over the hand of a fair maiden, a few weeks ago.

The good people of our sister burgh, Lonsie, must have been startled by the sight of a very tattered hairy flag on their new flag pole, on the 1st of this month. We would advise the young fellow from here when he goes to watch his best girl's gate with his girl, to take his robe and whip along next time.

Their Business Booming.
