CEMENT FOR PAELS.—The companies in the north end of this county are sending exhibits of their output to the Paris Exposition.

Congratulations to the Chesley Knit-terprise on its progress as indicated by the installation of a new gasoline engine.

Rev. J. C. Pomeroy, Methodist minister at Southampton, told those of his members who danced or played cards to withdraw their names from the roll.

Harness makers are the latest of the crafts to be discussing a 25 per cent raise on harness, owing to the increased cost of leather and saddlery hardware.

Com. McCalmon, Thornbury, was the guest of Com. C. McKinnon last night. He is down on the Normanby arbitration case.

NORMANBY CHICKENS.—Last Tuesday Mrs. Thos. Gadd, Normanby, delivered to Merchant C. L. Grant here 13 well cleaned chickens which weighed 69 lbs. One of them weighed 6 lbs. They were of the white Ply. Rock variety. Who can equal this.

RUNING PACKING.—Complaints come thick and fast that the apple product of Canada when unpacked at Liverpool and Glasgow is in bad shape and far from first-class. The practice of careless packing, causing bruising, and cheap packing is like to ruin a good trade.

Don't be afraid of beginning your Christmas advertising too early; be among the first in your town to hold out a welcome to gift buyers, and make it a point to invite people who "only want to look," with the assurance that they will not be pressed to buy. Dress your store in holiday attire, and let your windows and your advertising remind people that Christmas is close at hand. Ex.

OPEN VOTING.—By Sub-section 2, sec. 19, of the municipal Amendment Act, 1899, Council appointees to the various offices must be chosen by open vote. "Each member of the council present voting shall announce his vote upon the question openly and individually in the council, and the clerk shall record the same; and no vote shall be taken by ballot or by any other method of secret voting in any municipal council and every vote so taken shall be void and of no effect."

LATE LITERARY NEWS.—A thrilling war story, by Conan Doyle, is one of the features of the December "Cosmopolitan." Frank R. Stockton, Maarten Maartens, Olive Schreiner and Edgar Saltus also have stories and sketches in the Christmas number. Olga Nether-sole contributes a very interesting sketch of her personal experience in her efforts to succeed on the stage. Life has not been all sunshine for Miss Nether-sole. She made her place battling against tremendous odds, and tell how she succeeded in a way that is at once interesting and inspiring. Only $1 year.

HEALTH ACT CHANGES.—The present smallpox outbreak in Essex County, according to the Provincial Board of Health, has shown that the present organization in the province is not as complete as it might be. At the next session of the Legislature a bill will be introduced which was prepared but not presented last season. This bill will abolish local organizations and have County inspectors in their stead. Under the county inspector there will be Provincial inspectors. The Provincial Board of Health is making a vigorous effort to have consumption patients in hospitals isolated. The hospitals have not complied with the request as readily as was expected, and further efforts may be made.—Ex.

TAX NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that all unpaid taxes must be paid to-day or to-morrow, Dec. 7th and 8th, or 3 per cent will be added for collection. Hugh McKay has been appointed collector. By order of Council.

Chesley Fire Brigade and Council have differences, and the former proposed to disband and divide a tank balance of $316 among themselves. The council object and a lawsuit is in prospect.

A school concert will be held in S. S. No. 12 Egrement on Friday Dec. 15th. Doors open at seven. Programme to begin at eight. Admission 15c or 25c for two; children 10c. Accommodation for horses. M. Scott, Teacher.

NOTICE.—Collector T. McGirr will be at the Knapp House, Saturday Dec. 9, to meet all parties who have not paid their taxes for 1899. This will be the last opportunity afforded and prompt attention is requested.

T. McGIRR, Collector.

A QUIET TONGUE.—R. Robertson, a cream drawer for Holstein creamers charged H. Lewis, Orchardville, with circulating slanderous stories that he had stolen patrons' cream. Eminent counsel were retained, but the case was settled out of court, the defendant paying over $200 expenses.

SOME GRAVEL HERE YET.—The Galt Reporter thinks a gravel famine in Ontario is imminent owing to the long hauls of it. The G. T. R. has now to make. The "youngest inhabitant" will never see this country short of gravel, though they may see it more appreciated.

DONT SCALD.—Merchants are continually being reminded by wholesale buyers to warn poultry raisers against scalding fowl. They should be dry picked, and should be starved 21 hrs. before killing. They object to paying for pens at poultry price. The mild weather makes it advisable to hold poultry.

DORNOC FORESTERS.—This Court has bills out announcing a grand Concert and Pie-Social on Friday evening 15th inst. Admission only 15c and 10c. Dr. Jamieson M. P. P. and Mayor Calder are deliver a addresses and Rev. Mr. Little, Grand Orator for Central Ontario of the I. O. F. will also be present. Vocal and Instrumental music of the best. Remember the date.

HIGHER RATES.—On Jan. 1st, 1900 a new tariff will be issued by the Life Insurance Companies. An increase of about 10 per cent will be made on all the rates. This is caused by the low rate of interest realized on investments, the tax levied by the local government, and by the Fielding bill which forces all companies to make their estimates on a 3 1/2 per cent basis. The difference will be from about $2 on the straight life plan to $6 on the fifteen year endowment.

HOW TO COOK.—Pope says:—"The vulgar boil, the learned roast an egg." But if he had lived until now he would know there are twenty other ways of cooking one. Marion Harland tells them all in the volume of "Cooking Hints," the fourth volume of the "Bits of Common Sense Series." You can obtain these books, the Weekly Globe, which has been for over 55 years and is now Canada's leading family newspaper, and the Durham Review, almost 21 years old, from now to Jan. 1, 1901, for $1.75. Sent free. Postage prepaid.

Mr. H. H. Miller, of Hanover, has moved into his new office, built last summer. The Post says it is a "building 24x10 feet, two stories. The ground floor is divided into three compartments. The front office is lit up by a single pane of plate glass 6 x 10 feet. Back of the front office is the stenographer's room, and private office. The whole is finished in polished oak. The offices, and the hall in second storey are heated from a coal heater in the basement. The workmanship throughout is first class." The Review congratulates Mr. Miller.

CANADIAN LOYALTY.—No concern in this country enjoys the confidence of the Canadian people more than the "Family Herald and Weekly Star," of Montreal. Every promise they make is carried out to the letter, regardless of cost. The promise of a fitting souvenir for the closing year of this century is more than fulfilled. Nothing more suitable than the two pictures "Battle of Alma" and "Pussy Willows" could be imagined. Old subscribers are showing their loyalty to their favourite paper by renewing early and in many cases getting a friend to become a subscriber as well.

Double Supplement this week and still much matter crowded out.

Mr. Jas. Atkinson milk-dealer, has rented his farm for a short term to his brother Joseph and brother-in-law Wm. Weir, and intends to have a look at the West.

SUPPEN DEATH.—A married daughter of Mr. White, living near Markdale died very suddenly on Sunday last from blood poisoning.

The arbitration case, Just. Campbell informs us, re the projected new school section near Varney which was to be decided here yesterday, was not held owing to the absence of Warden Gordon of Owen Sound.

Mr. Jas R Gun, was taken last week with a serious eye disease which caused him severe suffering. His brother Dr. Arthur came up to see him on Monday and after consultation between father and son, it was decided that he should leave on Tuesday for hospital treatment. We hope a few days will see him all right again.

Town Council met last night and closed the meeting begun on Monday. (See on supplement.) By-laws were passed, appointing election officers etc., giving right of way on Albert St. for telephone poles and imposing a license fee of $50 on cigarette sellers. We believe the resignations of Messrs. Sparling, Kinnie and Moore were not accepted. Particulars next week.

The Toronto Weekly Sun, the best farm and home paper in Canada, can be had combined with the Review and Family Herald and Weekly Star (including the Star's premium picture) for $2.05, combined with the Review and either one of the Weekly Globes, Witness, or Western Advertiser for $1.80, combined with the Review and Weekly Mail $2.00 or twice a Week Hamilton Spectator for $1.25. Orders for any of these combinations to be sent to Sun Office, Toronto or Review Office, Durham.

SILVERWARE STOLEN.—A banquet was given to Rev. J. C. McCracken, lately by his fellow citizens to congratulate him on his safe return from the ocean peril of the 'Scotsman.' The banquet over, the silverware was left in the basement while the ladies listened to the lecture. The husband of the caretaker had been arrested and after local examination committed to Walkerton gaol for trial, the evidence pointing his way. His name is Hoffman.

MR. LAIDLAW TO RETIRE.—We regret to learn that owing to a recent discovery of heart trouble Mr. Laidlaw has decided to sell his business and retire for a few years at least, as this seems the only remedy. This will be a good opening for a live business man in one of the best business stands in town; where Mr. Laidlaw has been doing a good business. We trust Mr. Laidlaw's retirement may be only temporary.

GREAT FEIX.—Some Aberdeen youths had a great time one night last week. It was the evening of the marriage of a popular young lady to a stalwart Glenelgite, and not being invited the gentlemen! wags determined to cause some trouble to those who were. The bride was all but blocked with timber obstructions, and some had to make a detour through the fields. The wags will be pleased to know every body got there safely and had a snug and happy evening's entertainment, while they were muddling away in the mud and rain piling up logs against the gate as a further obstruction to the retiring wedding party. If it is any satisfaction to them it was a little trouble for the first night to throw a panel down. Dark night boys. Dark deeds, but dark reflections are not with the wedding party.

NOVEMBER NUPTIALS.

Last Wednesday, Nov. 29, the home of Mr. John D. Clark, Aberdeen was the scene of a pretty wedding, the occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter Agnes to Mr. Samuel Jackson of the Glen, Glenelg. In the presence of a number of relatives and neighbors the solemn vows were pronounced that made them one. Rev. Mr. Graham, Dornoch, was the officiating clergyman and was assisted by Rev. Mr. McGregor, Durham. The ceremony took place at 6 p. m. and as the bride entered leaning on her father's arm, the wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Gun. Warm and hearty congratulations followed the ceremony and preceded the sumptuous supper where justice was done to an elaborate and elegant spread the table being specially adorned with a 5 story wedding cake bedecked with streamers of roses and silver leaves.

The bride was attired most becomingly in a dress of lead-colored cashmere, trimmed with white satin, lace and ribbon, while the bridesmaid, Miss Maggie McKinnon of Toronto, looked handsome in a grey serge, trimmed with cream satin.

The groom was assisted through the ceremony by his brother Mr. Thos. Jackson.

The Review wishes the young couple who are widely known and esteemed many joyful years of wedded life. We give a list of the presents which were valuable and useful:
