OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

The assertion that was freely made by Oppositionists during the last session of Parliament that the British preference had practically killed trade with Germany, is not substantiated by the returns published of the last year's business with that country. In spite of the fact that Germany assumed an unfriendly attitude toward the Dominion, and imposed the maximum tariff rates upon Canadian goods, thereby ter fairly by saying that the council had received a rude awakening as to their wisdom in reposing confidence in this matter in their fellow-commissioners of Owen Sound division. Council had been informed at the June session that the bridge would probably cost $500 or $600, and now they find it costs over $2000, over a small creek like the Potawatamie, with a span of only 40 feet. Restriction must be placed on commissioners. The council as a whole were to blame. There should be an explanation, however, so that members could explain why such expenditure had been made. The Warden took exception to Mr. Richardson's remarks implying that

Is about the sum owing us on subscription, and we ask all our friends to make an effort during the next three weeks to help us. This slip will reach 4 classes of our subscribers.

WHICH ARE YOU IN?

- I—Those who are paid in advance. To these we extend our thanks and ask them to lay this aside or hand to some neighbor who may be interested in clubbing rates.
- II—Those who are in arrears and who received slips and envelopes recently and have not yet attended to it. We hope they will at once attend to it and put their label in advance before Christmas and greatly oblige.
- III—Those whose subscriptions are just expiring. We hope to retain every one of these, and will be pleased to have renewals early before the crash.
- IV—Those who have promised to pay in wood or otherwise. All right, friends, first good sleighing, bring it along.
