Addresses and Presentations.

Mr. John Clark Honored.
On Friday evening of last week a most successful Xmas Tree was held in Burns Church, Rocks Saugeen, in connection with the Sabbath School. As the evening was a most favorable one, the church was well crowded. The Xmas tree which was beautifully decorated was covered with many useful and beautiful presents for the children.
The chair was ably filled by the pastor Rev. Mr. Graham. The program consisted of songs, recitations and addresses, and the children under the careful training of Miss Maggie Clark, did their part very creditably. Mrs. Graham and Mrs. McCallum of Dornoch sang very sweetly while Mr. John Clark also gave some excellent songs. Short addresses were given by Mr. N. Clark, Superintendent of S. S., also by Mr. Purtherbough, Mr. John McCallum and J. A. McKinnon, teacher.
The congregation took the opportunity of presenting Mr. John Clark, who for years has acted as precursor in the church, with a beautiful fur coat and the following address, to which Mr. Clark made a very feeling and appropriate reply:
Dear Friend:
At this Christmas season when words and deeds of love are common and appropriate, we, the members and adherents of Burns' church, Rocky Saugeen, deem this a fitting opportunity to acknowledge in a feeble way your indebtedness to you for the ability and willingness you have ever shown in the important function of leader in the praise worship of God's House. With this in view we beg to accept as a slight token of the warmth of our regard, this fur coat which we trust you may long be spared to take comfort out of and to sing God's praise in his house on earth. Our prayer is that you and we may all be privileged to unite in the ring of the redeemed in the house of many mansions above. With kind regards to yourself and family.
Signed on behalf of the congregation.
(Gillan Boyd,
John McKinnon,
Dan McCormick.

Mr. Geo. Cushman Honored.
The following item from our Dromore correspondent was unavoidably left over last week. Mr. Geo. Cushman is the teacher and he leaves to go into business in Mt. Forest.
Dear Teacher,
It was with feelings of the deepest regret, that we, some time ago, learned that we were about to lose you as our teacher, and the more so, as we were still looking forward to the enjoyment of as pleasant days in the future as we had enjoyed under you in the past.
Now as it draws near the time when our relations as teacher and pupils must for the present, be severed, permit us to express the high regard we entertain for you as a kind, able and painstaking teacher, one whom we at all times found willing to assist us in trouble as well as to rejoice with us when we were glad.
In looking back on the past, it pains us to remember many acts of waywardness on our part, but at this parting, we ask of you to forgive and to forget them.
Accept then our best wishes for your future welfare, and also these presents. It would have afforded us much pleasure had we been able to make them of more intrinsic value, but we know you will regard them as a token of our esteem and affection, and we shall feel pleased to hope that in the use of them you will sometimes think kindly of your pupils here.
On behalf of the pupils.
Mary Taylor,
Hannah Dixon,
Gordon Geddes,
Hugh Renwick.

Miss Julia Weir Honored.
The pupils and friends of S. S. No. 3 Bentick, where Miss Julia Weir has taught four very successful years presented her last week with an address and an album, work-box and photograph frame as mementos to preserve happy and useful associations. Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone, with whom she made her home, also recognized her by the gift of a stationery box. Following is the address:
Dear Teacher,
The time has come for us to part and we are very sorry. We feel the force of the poet's words:
"Friend after friend departs,
Who hath not lost a friend,
There is no union here of hearts,
That hath not here an end."
We have been much benefitted by your four years stay among us. We have always found you anxious for our improvement and feel very sorry for giving you any extra trouble which we know we have done many times but trust you will forgive us. We take this opportunity of making you this small present to show that our hearts are warm towards you and that you leave us with our best wishes for your future welfare, hoping we will all meet in Heaven.
Yours Affectionately

Mr. John Brown Honored.
Last Friday night the workers of Baptist S. School here went to the residence of Mr. John Brown as a surprise party with kindly intentions. As he came home from his duties he got a genuine surprise. A pleasant time was spent, part of which was the presentation of an easy chair and the following address:
Dear Superintendent:
We, the officers, teachers and friends of the Durham Baptist Sunday School, have thought that in some way we ought to show you our esteem and appreciation of your faithful and long service in the master's vineyard.
And at this time too, when Christmas comes as a reminder of God's greatest gift to a lost world, we would take this opportunity, a few of us, in gathering at your home to encourage and help you in this noble, but oft trying work of imparting the truth as it is in Jesus to young minds that eventually may form them into his likeness.
We therefore take very great pleasure in presenting you with this token of our regard for your work, trusting that this gift, small as it is, may encourage you yet more in your life for our Lord and his service.
Wishing you and yours the compliments of the season, we beg to subscribe ourselves, the officers, teachers and bible class,
Mr. Brown made the following appropriate reply:
Dear teachers, officers, bible class and scholars—I thank you very sincerely for this unexpected manifestation of your esteem for myself, and your appreciation of my unworthy services as Superintendent of our S. School. While so I have to say that whatever measure of success has resulted from our labors, my thanks is due to God in the first place for his blessing on our efforts and secondly to you as teachers and officers of the Sabbath School for your genuine sympathy under the many trying conditions that attend S. S. work, and for your wise counsel in perplexities and your untiring patience with my many failures. And you as scholars for your faithful attendance at S. S. and your attention to the study of God's word, which is the sword of the spirit.
Wishing you all the compliments of the season and many returning opportunities to teach and study the word of life, I again thank you for your beautiful present and the spirit of kindness manifest therein.
Yours Very Truly,
John H. Brown.

Priceville.
The year 1899 is past and gone finished its term with the Thermometer from 20 to 25 below zero and that is bitter enough to be sure but hardly cold enough to freeze the nose off a brass monkey, but cold enough to freeze some of the ladies' ears coming home from church on Sunday.
In reviewing the year that has gone by with all its joys, pleasures and sorrows we cannot but think seriously how quickly the years of our pilgrimage fly. We are at the beginning of this New Year another year older than 12 months ago and who is there amongst us that are alive at this the beginning of the year 1900 that will see the close of the 19's, scarce indeed they will be and if there be such their life will be only sorrow and vexation of spirit. On this New Year's Day if we should visit many a home where joy and happiness reigned a year ago we find many a chance on this New Year's Morn. In one home we find the father who occupied the highest seat at the festive table last New Year's morn, but his place to-day is vacant. In another home the dear mother who with a joyful heart had the pleasure of having all the family together and took delight in ministering to their wants, her place is vacant also. In another home we find the daughter who was the joy and flower of the family is to-day laid aside in the cold and narrow home and the dear mother like the woman of old beholding the garments she wore is filled with grief. Lastly we come to the home where probably an only son has been taken away to fight the savages of South Africa and he stood like the brave with his face to the foe till he fell under the enemies bullets. So, that this world that we are living in now is always full of troubles, each one has got his own to bear.
As was previously announced, the Rev. Mr. Matheson preached an eloquent sermon under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. society in this town from the text found in 2nd Timothy 2nd chap. and 15th verse "Study to show thyself approved unto God a Workman that needeth not to be ashamed." On account of the severity of the morning very few from sister lodges attended.
The Sabbath School anniversary in connection with Presbyterian Church here came off last Wednesday 27 Dec. and was quite a success. Rev. Professor Connory gave at intervals some specimens of his talents as an Elocutionist. Our local talent by no means were left in the shade for the chair under the leadership of our obliging organist Miss Gerie McLeod gave excellent pieces during the evening. Also grand speeches from such Rev. gentlemen as Rev. D. Darroch, of Flesherton, Humphries, of Priceville, and Pastor Matheson, of the Presbyterian church. A beautiful drill by ten beautiful girls trained by Miss McLeod. Also recitations from the children. Supt. Corrie ably filled the chair. Receipts of the evening $46.50.

The Sons of Scotland had their entertainment on the evening of the 22nd Dec. and was quite a success. Piper Murray of Toronto cheered the hearts of lovers of Fiddlers and we could see the feet of many an aged saint moved as if affected by St. Vitas Dance at the sound of the Highland pipes. Reeve John McArthur in his usual witty manner ably filled the duties of chairman. Mrs. Wright, of Markdale, and Miss Marks, of Toronto, cheered the audience with their sweet songs during the evening, with grand speeches from Rev. Bushanan, of Dundalk, and Matheson, of Priceville. The committee was delighted with the result of the evening. Proceeds about $80.00.
Mrs. Gowland, of Bolton, is at present attending to her aged father Mr. Thos. Ginn of this Town, who was disabled by a fall sometime ago.
Messrs Walter Nichol, John McLeod, and James Atkinson all from the college, Toronto enjoy their holidays at their different homes.
Miss Rebecca Nichol, of Buffalo is spending her holidays at home at present.
Mr. Neil McLean, of Montana, is spending a few months at the old home with his mother and the family South East Glenelg. It is nine years since Neil left home and became a resident of Montana. Messrs Neil McLeod and James Burnes, of N. W. Territory, are spending a white with friends on the South Lake Artemesia at present.
Mr. Lorne Hogarth, of Whitby, son of merchant Hogarth of this town is spending his holidays with his father and mother.
Master Regie and Miss Mathews, of Toronto, spent holidays at Mrs. McIntyre south line Glenelg.
Postmaster N. McKinnon is suffering with some of Job's comforters or rather tormentors for the last couple of weeks. Dugald McLean spent Xmas with friends at Orangeville.
We are pleased to hear that Miss James who has been attending the Toronto hospital for appendicitis is getting better and will be able to be home in a week or two.
Dr. Boyle is at present spending his New Year's holidays with his father and mother in Toronto.
Arch McLeod, who has been away up west for the last few years, came home to his father's Mr. Wm. McLeod Southline Glenelg on Saturday last. With a happy New Year to the Editor and all readers of the REVIEW we close.

Discovered by a Woman
Another great discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night, and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at our Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. 4
