ushels sold at

brow at $16

tent off const ine and heavyer that the war has as of busings s men and seemant to an angul that they ec developments. ing how soon the mosey maket in tto red. for the spring ext week On the appreent date for toks the paper, the ates for payments stment of accounts d wholesale firms tart for the engu-Deret that till arance of liberal de on paper com: sil firms do not e sh pments.

neuts of wheat for

1 55 T 7 8899,000

orew studies if a

80.67 3.8 0737-8

0 65 14

"Heaven forbid!" cried the fond "At first I would not listen to such | who are their best friends! Trouble father sharp.y, a shudder of repula proposition: I said wait until you is always sure to follow, and a man are free to claim me publicly, then I | who will try to make a girl marry sion shaking him from head to foot. will gladly be your wife. But he was him secretly is not worthy of her love "Suppose," Miriam went on, as if very persistent; he would give me no or confidence, and will certainly bring she had not noticed the exclamation, peace; and every time we met he her to grief; if he is not honorable "that some man should win her love pleaded with me to go away with him enough and does not love her enough -her pure heart as Richard Heath- and be married. erton won mine-for I was as pure "At last I yielded to a certain ex- and wed her publicly, he is not deserv-

SPITE OF HIS

ture of poverts alone -- "

ford was deceived by him."

the thing up in shape.

home, you appeared in your simple,

but beautiful bridal robes, leaning on | too, how impressive Harris made the realized, for the time, how we were daring the wrath of Providence, by did himself honor in college.

ceremony. I shall never forget how I and as well beloved by my parents | tent. I told him firmly that I would | ing-he will never make her a faithful as Gertrude is to-day. Suppose this never consent to an elopement-that | husband. man should have a friend who should if I was ever married it must be in assist him in deceiving her, as I was my father's house, and everything nurse to take care of him while deceived, and her future happiness conducted in a respectable and legal | taught in one of the public schools of should be wrecked, as mine was manner. This made him angry at | New York city, as long as I was able, wrecked, and she should be obliged first, at what he termed my lack of which was some six years, and we to go through the world a heart faith in him, but finally, upon liked very comfortably until my health broken and deserted woman, burden- being told of my parents' proposed suddenly gave out. Then, of course, ed with a nameless babe to face a fu- visit to New York, he planned I was obliged to resign my position, the wedding you have described, and poverty began to pinch us with " For the love of Heaven cease! I and I consented that the mar- its gaunt and cruel fingers. I had cannot bear another word;" Mr. Lang- ringe should be kept secret, until afmaid cried with lips that were ab- ter his graduation and accession to the solutely colorless, an expression of fortune he expected, when, he prom-

keenest agony in his eyes at the ised, he would own me before his fam- cines; then I tried to do dressmakthought of his darling ever suffer- | ily and the world. ing such a possible fate as his com- "He played his game well-so well after any approved method, I could panion had portrayed. "You have that it is not strange that I never been deeply wronged I admit," he suspected but that that ceremony continued, rec vering himself after a | was legal-or that I was not his lawmoment: "I know that Heatherton ful wife. I had always despised anyplanned to do a dastardly thing- thing like deception or double-dealing, thousands of helpless and unfortun-I know that I did wrong in allowing and it wore upon me, mentally and ate women every year-and finally him to draw me into it, and I have physically, to think how I had dewished-many, many times-that I ceived my father and mother, whose that the pittance paid for such work could meet you again, to ask you lives were bound up in me. But I idol- was not quite so meagre. But poor to pardon me for even appearing to | ized my husband-as I believed Rich- | living and hard work, together with sanction his act, and to explain how ard Heatherton to be-and so I cheer- an ever present anxiety regarding I happened to be a party to it. But fully sacrificed myself to him. I told my boy's future, were fast wearing I was young, wild and heedless, I myself that his college course would me out, when Heaven sent me a kind thought only of fun and frolic at soon be complete,d he would soon at friend, who brought us both here to that time-never dreaming of his tain his twenty-fifth birthday, then the seashore, where I have been rapreal Intention; I, too, Mrs. Walling- all would be well, and my parents idly regaining my health and would forgive me, when they realized strength. "You deceived!" repeated Mir- how happy I should be in my new re- But, aside from my child; I care iam, in surprise. "In what way?" | lations,

"Sit down and let me tell you the "Richard Heatherton finished his continued, with exceeding bitterness, whole story of that night's doings," | college cours -- he passed his twenty- "all my own hopes were consumed Mr. Langmail said, as he rolled for- fifth birthday, and I confidently ex- to ashes more than thirteen years ward an easy chair for his com- pected that he would at once acknowl- ago; and yet I want to live until panion, and asked her to be seated; edge me and give me my rightful posi- Ned's princip'es are well grounded, then taking another opposite her, tion. I spoke of it several times, but until he can get a fair education he put me off with various excuses; and a good start in life; then I shall On that night, when you became But I had pride and spirit, and I in- be glad to lay my burden down if the victim of a great wrong, and sisted upon being owned as his wife. the all-wise Father is willing. only about ten minutes before we He tried to intimidate me with angry "Now let me go," she said, rising, started, on whiat I supposed to be words and repreaches, but I was "I do not know why I have told a frolle, Heatherton came to my firm; I told him he must voluntarily you all this, unless the sight of one room-you of course know that we do right by me or I would summon, who participated in the ruin of my were in the same class at college- | the withesses to our marriage and | happiness has served to unlock the and said that he and Mathews were | compel him to it.

try a couple of miles to no wife-that I had simply been of 'frolic.' Ah!" she cried in a he had, he should have openly de ous rifle fire from the Boer position. the house of a farmer, where we his toy-his plaything, to help pass | voice that stung her listener to the should find two pretty girls all by away some of the tedious hours of his soul, "why in the world so cruel themselves and ready for a frolic. The | college career. farmer and his wife had gone to New | "Can you conceive what such a to go scot free when they sin so York to attend some anniversary statement meant to me? No; no man | boldly and are so indifferent to meetings connected with the denom- can ever understand how the sensitive consequences? Why does the world had only been momentary, and she mation to which they belonged. He soul of a woman is rent and bruised tolerate the wrecking of the lives soon sat up, eager to learn moresaid they-he, Matthews and the and crushed when she learns how she of pure, innocent girls, and then regarding the wonderful revelation his weapon across the river, and adgirls-had planned to have a mock has been duped and tricked into pour- receive their betrayers, with smiles which Mr. Langmaid had just dismarriage, to be followed by a wed- ing out all the tenderest and most and favor, upon the topmost wave closed, a new hope lighting her wan the left flank of the Canadian reding supper and a joily good time sacred affections of her nature, only of society, while their victims are face and animating her heavy heart. generally. Everything was to be to have them trampled upon and spurned as too vile to cumber the "Can it be true?" she murmured, the face of a heavy Boer fire. From carried out in lirst-class style; Miss mocked at, while she is spurned as a earth? They should be branded with trembling lips, the light of a the left flank the Maxim gun did We may congratulate ourselves upon -was to act as bride; her friend, man who has ruined her.

"It all came like a thunderbolt to worse than murderers. You four col- "Every word of it," solemnly af-Miss Arnold, as the bridesmaid; Mathews as the best man; and, he added, me. At first I could not lege chums were no better; and yet firmed her companion, "as I will prove 'we want you to go along as com- believe it; but when he mocked at to-day you all doubtless have wealth to you. Perhaps you know that Mathpany for the parson, who is a friend my misery, then I knew it must be and influence and occupy high posi- ews, Heatherton and I were in the The War Office authorities, in reply of Mathews and has promised to do true. I raved and he only laughed at tions in society, while I—your vic. same class and completed our studies to an inquiry from Hon. W. F. Borden, 1,400 deaths by wounds. Usually me. Then I fell upon my knees and | tim "--"I readly assumed, believing that pleaded with him—pleaded for my busy during the last few weeks of the ling the Royal Canadian Regiment, losses. In the Spanish-American war, life, my happiness, my honor. I told proaches," Mr. Langmald interposed, term, and I, at least, was too much now in active service in South Africa, as we are told this week by the it was understood by all to be an out-and-out frolic, and that him of the little one who would ere with visible emotion, for he was engaged with my work to give a great up to full strength. The total losses everything was just as Heatherton long come to claim his love and the woman's deal of thought to that 'frolic,' after of the regiment in killed, wounded, had represented; and when he added heritage of his name, but his nature wild despair, while her sad story it was over. I rallied Heatherton upon sick and missing are 109. The Militia were appalling. One-fifth of all the that he had provided a large hamper of his God blooself When I was assured had aroused the keenest remorse over it once or twice, but he acted so Department will therefore enlist a soldiers in the great base and collectgood things, champagne included, the of this and the usplessness of my his share in the ruin of her life and strangely I fancied that he was someting camps contracted the disease, and his share in the ruin of her life and life a of this and the uselessness of my hopes. "Do not judge me too harshly, what ashamed of it, so I never re- lieutenants will have to be chosen to 7 per cent. of these died. In Camp Iew minutes after our arrival at your Heatherton's arm, and accompanied by that was dear and pleasant to me. Mathews and Miss Arnold. You know, and went away and hid myself until sacred things on that memorable later I understood. Commencement lery. Recruiting will be ordered to in the Transvaal to date it has my baby came to me and my strength evening. But I was even more passed, we each took our degree, and morrow, to be carried on under the caused barely 250 deaths, all told, and returned; then I took up the burden shocked and dismayed when a Heatherton immediately left New supervision of district officers com most of these have been in Ladywas suddenly shocked into my man- of my life, with what courage I could, few weeks later Mathews con- manding. The unit will be mobilized smith. The American expert, of hood and better nature by the solemn and tried to face the world single fided to me the bold thing he was a member of a number of so in Ottawa, according to present arcourse, points to neglect of sanitary ity with which he conducted that handed and alone, but with a broken which he had dared to do at that cieties, and I wondered that he did rangements, and will embark on the precautions and fouling of the water service; he awed me, for of course I heart and every particle of hope utbelieved that it was all mockery. I terly crushed out of my nature." gayest of us all—the life of the party annual reunions. I had been at home the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality; and the secret of our established for the preference will be given to applie fatality.

CHAPTER IX. making light of such sacred things. Pen cannot protray the anguish which he found it almost impossible in New York-looking as if he were and I resolved that I would never lend that was written upon the face of to control. He was a wild, harum- in deep trouble. myself to anything of the kind again. that beautiful woman; the despair scarum fellow, but he had the kindest "'Langmaid,' he said, 'I have a But these impressions were off that shone from her eyes, that wailed heart in the world and never willfully confession to make to you.' somewhat, when, later, we gathered through the tense tones of her natur- caused any one a pang. Heatherton "'All right; go ahead,' I said around the temptingly spread table ally sweet voice; and William Lang- deceived us all, regarding his real in- wondering what I could be. and gave ourselves up to feasting and maid felt both humiliated and con- tentions, for he represented to us "'I'm afraid I have got myself into fillarity. Everything was carried out demned, as he looked upon her and that he was simply going out to your a deuce of a scrape," he remarked deto perfection; you made a charming listened to her, and realized that he home for a froke and that it was so jectedly. bride-Heatherton was, apparently, had helped to doom her to the fate understood by you and your friend. "'How so?" I inquired. the happiest of grooms-Harris a that she had described.

those directly concerned in the affair, what he had at the time supposed to he also intended to deceive you and ary?' would have dreamed of such a thing be merely a frolic-in a spirit of mis- make you believe that he was going "Yes,' I briefly responded, but ried mails. Her gross tonnage is 5, Yet never a goal-but ends the way! chief and simply for the sake of hav- to make you his legal wife-that you flushing over the remembrance. "A mack marriage!" repeated Mir- ing a "good-time."

"it was the most sacred of ceremonies agined or suspected, until it was too ning to make you his dupe and ruin he said, hitching uncasily in his chair. perpendicular, 445; her breadth, 52; to me. I had not a suspicion, for late to avert the evil results, that the your life." months afterward, but that every- affair had been anything but a mock | "Just how Mathews became assured | through me at his words. thing had been conducted in good marriage in the sight of everyone, ar- of this I did not know for some time "'Well, it wasn't a farce-it was faith-all the hollest feelings of my ranged just for a joke, and to give after, as I will explain later, but dead earnest in every particular.' soul were stirred within me, as I an occasion for merry-making. breathed those vows which made me, "And have you never seen Richard you had believed yourself his pro- aghast. as I telleved, Richard Heatherton's Heatherton since?" he asked, when mised wife for a long time; he knew "'Just this,' Mathews replied; 'I'll wife. Oh! how could you have lent | Miriam paused in her recital.

judged me so lest to a sense of all that "Never; I should have returned his eventually his purpose, if he did not him her whole heart in return. He was high and hely." Miriam interrupt letter unopened, if he had written to that night. He could not bring him proposed a runaway marriage to ed, with quivering lips, "Oh! it was a me: I would have scorned any aid he self to reveal his suspicions to you, her, but'-and here is where your terrible deceased! Do not attempt might have effered me," was the spir- for he could not prove them, and story agrees in every particular with he opened his lips to speak again, "but that he and all who had ever known in your lover; so he resolved upon "but she refused, saying that she listen while I tell you how! I was led me should never find me,or learn any- a bold stroke, and, instead of curses must be married in her own home, into the wretched trap. I first met thing about me. I blotted myself out of Richard Heatherton at a fashionable existence, as far as any connection party, given by an aunt who lived in | with my old life and friends was con-

New Haven, and who thought it might | cerned" please her brother's unsophisticated "Your father and mother--" began daughter to see something of the ways | Mr. Largmaid, sorrowfully. of high life in the city: I was a simple | "Are both dead," she interposed, country girl, but I had been tenderly with a sharp ring of pain in her tones reared, well educated, although I had | and with white line, "My father had a never been much in society. Mr. Hea- | shock of paralysis the week following | therton appeared to be attracted my flight and lived but a few days. toward me from the moment of our | My mother survived him and the introduction, showed me considerable shame of her only daughter less than attention at that time, and upon var- | three months," lous occasions afterward, while I | "And Miss Arnold?" "Is married; but I have never seen gave him my whole heart at the very her since I left home. Mr. Mathews "We met frequently, during the next | I met by chance on the street in New few weeks, and it was not long before | York one day about a year later. He ! he confessed his love for me and asked | recognized me and looked appalled, me if I would be his wife. I believed evidently at my changed appearance, length cried, in a hollow, almost farmer, and James George Boucher, than liver complaint, and consequent Receipt Book. film to be sincere, and readily gave him He acted as if desirous to speak to unrecognizable voice.

for he could not claim me openly, he 'Oh, Mr. --" said, until after his twenty-fifth birth- 'You need not try to offer anything lightly or frivolously now. I de- siding. Possession of a large amount of money, affair," the injured woman interrupt—say that you were legally married which some relative and his father ed, passionately; "you reckless men to Richard Heatherton on that quisite kindness and thoughful benehad promised to settle upon him, if he rulued my life between you-you were never-to-be-forgotten night; that volence in that rarest of gifts-fine use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the For piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment is an instrumental in blighting the future you have every right in the world breeding .- Bulwer.

ASTHMA of as noble a boy as ever lived, and there can be no excuse for any of you. I have done the best I could PERMANENTLY CURED. for my darling-for he has been my one gleam of comfort amid all my For a Number of Years Mrs. Whetham, misery, and in spite of my shame and sorrow that I have doomed him to a Asthma. Doctors Said Nothing Could nameless existence. Oh, why will girls Help, but Catarrhozone Cured Her be so foolish as to allow men to per-After All Else Had Failed. sunds them to deceive their parents. "For a number of years," writes Mrs. Whetham, "I was a great sufferer from ing, but, never having learned to fit that device of greedy capitalists which saps the life and courage of so many drifted to Boston, where I had heard nothing for life," Miriam Wallingford asthma. I tried without avail a great nomber of remedies and spent a great deal of THE HALIFAX GARRISON NOW. money on doctors and specialists, but noto seek the consent of her relatives. "While Ned was a baby, I hired a It is pleasant and convenient to use." saved something, for I had deceived a fair salary, but this was soon swallowed up by doctors' bills and medi-not get work enough to support us, the germ life and healing up the sore irriso I had to come down to shop-work,

Twenty-five cent trial size for 10c in Putnam's Corn Extractor cures corns and warts without pain in 24 hours. Try it.

to bear his name, and to call his son by it," Mr. Langmaid solemnly Joy never kills, but it often paralyzes for the time being. Miriam Wallingford swayed dizzily for a moment where she stood, then fell back into the chair, from which she had risen a few moaway for the second time that day. "You poor, crushed and heartmaid, as he sprang again for a glass of water and vigorously sprinkled her face.

"What a wretch Heatherton was! What fools and knaves both Mathticipating in any scheme so wicked. serves, rushed forward also upon the fused to have anything to do with whole regiment had orders to this secret chambers of my heart to let it; and if Mathews had good reason | effect. The charge was a magnifigoing out into the coun- "Then he told me that I was you read the sequel to your night for suspecting the truth, as it seems cent one, and was met by a murdernounced Heatherton, or at least have | The British troops were falling fast. warned Mr. Wallingford of his in and ultimately were forced to re. Thursday, the 15th inst., and A Comand unjust? Why are men allowed tentions."

covered; the loss of consciousness der River. ued, passionately, "for they are eyes.

at the same time. We were all very have cabled that they favor recruit-"You know what followed—how, a word of entreaty, and left him, vowing the word of entreaty, and left him, vowing that I would never look on his face one, you appeared in your simple."

The second was one not to be resisted.

The second with the second of 'As I have already said," contin- during the remainder of the term, but of Capt. Rogers, who is ill, though not Such a camp is worse than two Spion that night; but his gayety was all about a month when one day, Mathassumed to cover up a nervousness ews came to see me-we both lived model of a parson; and no one, save He had joined that "frolic"-or 'pulling the wool over our eyes; that Farmer Wallingford's last Febru-

he knew that you loved the man, that "'What do you mean?" I cried, Jones, the head of the firm of Messrs. living that old.

also that Heatherton would never begin at the beginning and tell you Four eff to such a sacrileg: ?-and you "Never. Why should I wish to see a marry any gir! who did not occupy a all about it. Heatherton had been believed that it was nothing more than a jest to me?"

"Ye—and yet—"

"Have you never heard from him?"

"It does not seem possible that you could have looked into my face and in your trouble?"

"Never: I should have returned his in your trouble?"

"Never: I should have returned his in your trouble?"

"Never: I should have returned his in your trouble?"

"Never: I should have returned his in you he would accomplish be honorable and sincere, and gave the provide for your man who had wilfully crushed me—who had not due to his own. He wild not due to charge him with his months—just for the sake of a filtress."

"Have you never heard from him? —did he never write to you, or offer to charge him with his suspicions, for he fet that the was determined to provide for you in your trouble?"

"Never: I should have returned his in your he would accomplish be honorable and sincere, and gave the provide heart in return."

"Never: I should have returned his in your heart in return." and reproaches, Miriam Wallingford, and before witnesses, or not at all. (To be Continued.) you owe Albert Mathews your deepest gratitude, for it was through his innate honor and manliness and his man you afterwards believed your-

A LARGE FENCE COMPANY.

Invested.

instead of being the dupe of an unprincipled man, and the ruined wovarious companies incorporated last forebodings of the future. The astonished woman seemed sudweek. The largest is the Dominion denly turned to stone, by this won. Fence Company, with a capital of monster and the loving mother a scold ease. derful declaration, while she stood $750,000. The charter is granted through the influence of a torpid liver. Then you can use Dr. Chase's Kidstaring at her companion, a dazed, to Hon. John Dryden, Brooklin; Chas. Who can tell how many quarrels are ney-Liver Palls with greater confidence incredulous expression on her color- Mills, Hamilton, architect; David brought on, and how many happy than any patent medicine, knowing Henderson, Acton, merchant; Wm. Mc. homes are broken up by this same that they are the most successful pre-"What can you mean? Oh! do Gregor, Windsor, manufacturer; Fred. influence? not make a miserable jest of my erick Fenton, Toronto, physician; shame and wretchedness," she at John Henry Douglas, Warkworth, able or more gloomy and discouraged physician and author of the famous London, manufacturer. The head of biliousness and dyspepsia. The kidneys, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pille my promise to marry him. He wanted me, but I waved him off and passed that I am too much appalled by will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver completed, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will manufacture and trade in Iron pathy with a sluggish liver, and the liver, liver complete, him off and passed will be a liver with a sluggish liver, and the liver will be a liver with a sluggish liver will be a liver with a liver will be what you have told me, to speak and wire fences, metallic roofing and bowels become irregular and consti- pepsia, constipation, kidney disease, thing seemed to belp me. At times I was | Montreal report says: W. Richmond | measurement, minimum of 34 inches; so bad that I found it necessary to have Smith, the Star's correspondent in height, medium, 5 feet 5 inches. Unthe doors and windows open to get my South Africa, cabling of the fight at married men only will be accepted. lief. Finally our druggist asked me to try Paardeberg, says that the Canadians The recruits must at the time of ap-Catarrhozone; all his customers, he said, reached there the morning of Febru- plication be enrolled in a corps of the spoke well of it. I did try it, although I ary 18th, after a forced march of active militia within the limits al did not expect to receive any benefit from | 23 miles during Saturday night from ready explained, and have performed it. In a few days I began to feel a little Jacobsdal. The sixth division was in at least one annual training. To pass better and kept on using Catarrhozone, and the field and a cavalry brigade was the medical examination required for That was about four months ago, and since engaging the main body of General enrollment in the permanent corps then no symptoms of my old trouble have | Cronje's army. The Canadians ad- of Canada. Men not enrolled in the acreturned. I take pleasure in recommending | vanced to the banks, and jumped into tive militia, but who have previously Catarrhozone as a perfect cure for asthma. the Modder River, which was four belonged to it and have performed an-The success of Catarrhozone Treatment feet deep. Cronje's men held a strong mual training once, are eligible, profor Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis and Throat position on the north bank of the vided they first enroll in a corps of Troubles has been unique. It never falls river. A, B and E companies made the active militia within the limits to cure the most chronic cases, and the the advance firing line, D and C act laid down, and are carried on the method of treatment, that of inhalation of medicated air, is a very pleasant and effective as reserves.

Mount Forest, Ont., Suffered From Canadians Had a Brilliant Part in it.

del as supports, and F, G and H acted strength of such corps. Officers, non-medicated air, is a very pleasant and effect as reserves.

it does the curing. It spreads to all por- action until the afternoon of Sun- sidered and returned as "on comtions of the lungs, bronchial tubes and day. The Canadians faced the Boer mand of their respective corps. Offinasal passages, where it exerts a direct fire unflinchingly. They compelled the cers, non-commissioned officers and action on the cause of the disease, killing admiration of the British officers un- men serving in the corps will be paid der whose observation they were, the rates of pay and allowance pro-Complete outfit, consisting of beautifully Their advances were made in short vided for the active militia, which polished hard rubber inhaler and sufficient | rushes of thirty paces and it was | they will draw, in the case of offiliquid for six weeks' use, $1; extra inhalant | done in splendid style under Major | cers, from the date upon which they 50c per bottle. At druggists or by mail. Buchan. Capt. Arnold, of Winnipeg, report for duty, and in the case of stamps. N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, who was seriously injured (and non-commissioned officers and men has since died), was gallantly from the date of enlistment. leading his company when he fell,

A GALLANT CHARGE. there was little cover, the casualties B. C. Left half from M litary District steadily upward. At 5 o'clock the trict No. 1, at London. C .- Military the Cornwalls being moved up to half from Military Districts Nos. 3 their support. An order to charge and 4, at Kingston. Left half from the enemy was given by the Colonel the Ottawa Brigade. E .- Military Disof the Cornwalls. This command did trict No. 5, at Montreal. F .- Right ments previous, where she fainted not apply to the Canadians, but half from Military District No. 6, at when our men saw the British sol- St. John's, Que. Left half from Milidiers rush forward the example was tary District No. 7, at Quebec. G .broken woman!" cried William Lang. | contagious. The Canadians gave a Three sections from Military District line to the right joined in the from Military District No. 12, at

ATTACK BEATEN BACK. Seeing this, F Company, from Quetire, after they had covered two hun- pany by Thursday, the 22nd inst. E. But the fainting woman quickly red dred yards to the north of the Mod. and F Companies will be concentrated displayed great gallantry in getting by Saturday, the 17th inst. then refers to the casualty list, from disease in this South African which has been published.)

Recruits for South Africa. made him so moody and so unsocial of Capt. Arnold and to take the places 000 cases, and nearly 600 deaths. cants who have served in the militia cape, says the Outlook, both in the and who are unmarried. The terms of Transvaal and the Soudan, has been spects identical with those announced when the Royal Canadian Special Service Battalion was organized.

The Troop Ship.

The Monterey is just the vessel for Strathcona's Horse. Five hundred stalls for horses are to be fixed at Long the waiting-many the tear! Mathews alone suspected that he was "'Do you remember that frolic at Halifax. The Monterey has been on the Dull the sigh-alive the fear! Canadian service for the past two Weak the will-the effort faint! years, and since July, 1899, has car- Deep the sigh-low the plaint! 455.04, her net registered tonnage Never a dark-but bears a day! were giving yourself to him in good | "'I-I suppose you never dreamed 3,489.30, her horse-power, nominal, Never a strong-but feels a pain! iam Wallingford in an agonized tone: As he said, he had never once im- faith, when in reality he was plan- that it was anything but a-a farce?' 750, and indicated, 340; her length, Never a fall-but brings a gain! games for their amusement, and A. L. I didn't suppose there was a man

Elder, Dempster & Co., is presenting to each trooper a pound of tobacco in half-pound tins, marked "Lord Strathcona Horse," one-half to be given as they embbark and the other as they

It is expected that the Monterey will sall from Hallfax for the Cape in three or four weeks. The voyage will occupy about twenty-one days.

For Halifax Garrison.

The qualifications for enrolment are; Age, between 18 and 45 years; chest You simply breathe in the medicated air: These latter were not brought into serving in a battalion will be con-POINTS OF ORGANIZATION.

Companies will be organized at the The entire Canadian regiment re- following points: A.-Right half from mained under fire all day, and as Military District No. 11, at Victoria, in dead and wounded kept mounting the Ottawa Brigade. 1 .- Mitary Dis-Canadian regiment was reinforced, District No. 2, at Toronto. D .- Right cheer, and every man in the firing No. 8, at St. John, N. B.; one section Charlottetown, P. E. I.: H .- M litary District No. 9, at Halifax. Companies will be formed of four sections of 30 men each. District officers commandews and I were to be drawn into par- bec. which was in place with the re- ing will apportion the number to be enrolled from the'r district among the We both should have utterly re- Boer position, thinking that the corps entitled to furnish men, according to the strength of such corps.

I CINTS OF CONCENTRATION. Companies B, C and D will be concentrated at Ottawa not later than at Quebec City not later than Friday, Capt. Bell. with his Maxim gun, the 16th inst.: G and H at Halifax giment. Every step he took was in Our Boys Seem to Have Better Health Than Expected.

LOW DISEASE RATE.

Wallingford—the farmers daughter thing too vile to be tolerated by the with the mark of Cain," she continuous long-lost joy gleaming in her lovely splendid work all day. (Mr. Smith the extraordinarily low mortality, campaign. Even including deaths from typhoid and dysentery in the besieged towns, the total, so far pert appointed to investigate the "I left my home, my parents, all by the reckless trifling with such ling hard to make up for lost time; but has joined the Imperial Light Artil- 80 per cent. of the entire death-rate. the scrupulous protection of the water supply, or, where this was already tainted, rigid insistence upon the use of the filter and the teakettle.-Bildeford Weekly Gazette.

CONTRASTS.

"'No,' but a great shock went her depth of hold, 27 1-2, and her total | Clara-They say Nell is going to capacity for water ballast 2,863 tons. marry a man old enough to be her The troops will find pianos and grandfather. Maude-Is it possible!

BILIOUSNESS AND DYSPEPSIA

to excuse it," she went on wildly, as ited response. "But I took good care he knew you had the utmost faith Mathews," Mr. Langmail interposed. Have a Common Origin in Liver Complaint—Dr. Chase's Treatment For the Liver.

> Carlyle justly attributed the ill-tem- ada and the United States to-day, and per, which made him a monster in the the only one that acts directly on both reverence for womanhood that you were that night made a legal wife, A Capital of $750,000 to be eyes of the world, to a bad liver. He There is more cheerful, unsolicited was bilious and dyspeptic, suffered testimony in favor of Dr. Chase's Kid-An authorized capital of more than with stomach pains and headache, was ney-Liver Pills than any other pills a million dollars is involved in the depressed in spirits and had gloomy sold. You scarcely meet a person who

Nothing makes one feel more miser- immense experience as practising

To strike with one blow at these and rheumatism. One pill a doze, 25 most popular remedy known in Can- absolute and guaranteed cure.

has not used them personally or heard How often the kind father becomes a of their wonderful powers over dis-scription met with by Dr. Chase in his

| backache, Bright's disease, lumbago,