Step By Step the Stocum Treatment Cures Consumption.

Dr. Stocum, the famous scientist, whose lectures and demonstrations in New York and London this winter have astonished medical circles, has at last perfected his new system of treatment for the absolute cure of tuberculosis and all pulmonary diseases.

This triumphant victory over the deadly bacilli is far reaching in its effects, for there is no longer room for doubt that the greatest specialist has given to the world a boon that will save millions of precious lives.

Dr. Stocum's System of Treatment is both scientific and progressive, going as it does to the very source of the disease and performing the cure step by step.

First Step.—Killing the life-destroying germs which invest the lungs.

Second Step.—Toning the entire system and strengthening the nerves—filling the veins with tingling new life.

Third Step.—Building healthy flesh and fortifying against future attacks.

The Stocum Treatment is revolutionary because it provides a new application for every stage of the disease. The failures of inoculation by Paris scientists are overcome by Stocum through progressive drug force. The diseases leading to consumption are also mastered so that once the bacilli are removed from the lungs there remains no other germ-breeding menace.

The Stocum System cures grip and its painful after-effects, dangerous coughs, bronchitis, and every known form of pulmonary disease.

It makes weak lungs sound, strengthens them against any ordeal, and gives endurance to those who have inherited hollow chests, with their long train of attending dangers.

To enable despairing sufferers everywhere to obtain speedy help before too late, Dr. Stocum offers

TASTED BUFFALO JUSTICE.

London Lad of 17 Sent to Penitentiary

BECAUSE HE WAS ROBBED.

A Buffalo, N.Y., despatch says: David Johns, 17 years old, hailing from London, Canada, is the latest victim of the gang of sharpshooters and Buffalo Justice 71 which infests the railroad stations.

Johns came to Buffalo yesterday afternoon, and while waiting in the New York Central Station, on Exchange street, was approached by two men, who entered into conversation with him. They learned he was from out of town, suggested that all take a walk, and started to see the town. After they showed Johns the big buildings they made their way to a saloon on Michigan street, near Swan. Here he was prostrated with whiskey and relieved of about $20.

Johns met Sergt. Ryan, of the first precinct, and told him his story. Johns was unable to point out the men who roped him to buy drinks. He was so drunk that the sergeant decided to lock him up on the charge of intoxication. He was arraigned before Judge Graf, in the Sunrise Court, was convicted and fined $5. Not having the money he was sent to the penitentiary.

Every mother should see that her daughter from 12 to 18 years of age takes an occasional course of Miller's Compound Iron Pills.

BRITISH COULD SHOOT.

Fine Work of the Gunners at Magersfontein.

No praise can possibly be too great for the way in which the gunners served our fieldpieces throughout the day without a vestige of cover. Not content with a range of a mile, the three field batteries, the Eighteenth, Sixty-second and Seventy-fifth, lined up early in the morning, about 7 o'clock, and moved in to 1,200 yards, where they were well under rifle fire, and even their limbers were exposed. The howitzers, which had started at something under 3,000 yards, came up at 8 o'clock to 2,750 yards in order to get a more exact range on the trenches, while the horse artillery on the right, on a slight eminence which gave shelter to our cavalry, kept up a rapid fire right and left, and in front at a range which varied from 1,500 yards. It is impossible to give the exact number of yards in each case, because our guns had absolutely no target, but were now at the kopjes and now about two hundred yards shorter at the line on the valley where our gunners imagined the trenches to be. But enough has been said to show that they kept up a finely concentrated fire upon the front of the enemy's stronghold during the greater part of the day.

Lily Would Not Buy Him an Automobile.

New York Telegram: Because of report that Hugo de Bathe, the young husband of Mrs. Langtry, is in hospital in South Africa, speculation has been again roused in London as to why he separated so soon from his wife. The common idea was that Mrs. Langtry had tired of him, but she said by those who know that De Bathe grew quite ill, because the Lily wouldn't buy him an automobile.

Mrs. Langtry paid out much British money to keep her little husband happy and contented, and surely no flat in London was cleaner or more homelike than theirs. His tastes for luxuries developed to a point, however, where she could not gratify them without paying the oil stove, and without De Bathe left her. Just before leaving he was heard to sing in one of the clubs.

Lily won't buy me a mobile, a mobile, a mobile. She bought me a spider cart. But it almost broke my heart. When she said she wouldn't buy a mobile.

A Few Family Names.

British census reports of family names give in England and Wales 253,606 Smiths, 242,100 Joneses, with Williams, Taylor, Davies and Brown following in order. For Scotland Smith leads, followed by McDonald, Brown, Thomson, Robertson, Stewart and Campbell. Murphy is ahead in Ireland, there being 62,000 of them; then comes Kelly, 55,900; Sullivan, 43,600; Walsh, 41,700; Smith, 37,000; O'Brien, 33,400; Byrne, 33,000; Ryan, 32,000; Connor, 31,200; O'Neil, 29,100; and Dally, 29,000.

ONE WAY OF KILLING WHALES.

There is Little of Excitement or Danger.

Dr. Frederick W. True, of the Smithsonian Institution, who has just spent two months in whale hunting in Green Bay on the northeastern coast of Newfoundland, reports an interesting experience. He was sent out by the institution to study the humpback whale, and but eleven were of this variety. The story-book romance has gone entirely out of whaling as pursued by the Newfoundlanders. There is no frail whaleboat, with the grizzled old harpooner in the bow to strike the whale, but instead a little steam craft and a powerful gun.

This gun throws a large iron harpoon, with crossarms while he against the shaft until it strikes a solid body, and then project out and imbed themselves. The head of this harpoon is cigar-shaped and sharp-pointed and, as it pierces the whale's side, explodes as it pierces the whale's side, generating a gas, which serves to keep the fish afloat after the wrecking effect of the shock on its internal organs has left it a lifeless mass. A stout rope is attached to the butt of the harpoon, and by this the whale is kept in place until it thrashes madly through the water in a vain effort to escape its unknown enemy. Death rapidly ensues, unless, as sometimes happens, the projectile goes through the fish from one side, when a second shot is necessary.

A GALLANT FIREMAN.

Attacked by a Fierce and Persistent Foe But He Conquered it.

Lumbago Tortured Capt. Mangen for Years—His Doctor Recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills—Three Boxes Effected a Complete Cure.

Point St. Charles, P. Q., March 26.—We owe a great deal to our gallant fireman.

Their work obliges them to risk and often to sacrifice their lives in the most unselfish way.

And the hardships to which they are continually subjected soon tell on them.

The frequent draughts they are ordered at big fires, bring on Rheumatism, Lumbago and other Kidney troubles.

Lumbago is a common enemy of the firemen.

That is why so many gallant fire-fighters are compelled to retire while still young men.

Lumbago cripples them, weakens them, and unfits them for hard work. Dodd's Kidney Pills are specific for the positive and absolute cure of Lumbago.

Dodd's Kidney Pills drive Lumbago out of the system entirely. By strengthening and invigorating the kidneys, they provide pure, rich blood for the nourishment of the body.

Dodd's Kidney Pills make the kidneys filter Lumbago out of the blood. That is how and why they cure the disease so completely.

Capt. T. Mangen, of No. 9 Fire Station, this town, says: "I suffered from lumbago for years. My doctor advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I had been a member of the fire brigade for 28 years, and never would I get relief from these diseases. I had Dodd's Kidney Pills gave me. Three boxes cured me totally."

FROM PAIN TO HEALTH.

A Chippewa Lady Tells a Story of Suffering and Release.

Suffered From Heart Trouble for Years—Her Misery Further Aggravated by Kidney and Stomach Trouble.

From the Star, St. Catharines, Ont.

In the village of Chippewa, and along the Niagara frontier, there is probably no better known or respected resident than Mr. and Mrs. David Schabel. Both are of German descent and display much of that old-fashioned hospitality so often found in the fatherland. To a correspondent of the St. Catharines Star, who recently called at Mr. Schabel's home, Mrs. Schabel related the following story: "Years ago my physician told me I had heart disease. I have been troubled at intervals with palpitation and severe pains, and sometimes my heart would almost cease to beat. I would become dizzy, restless and frightened. At other times I slept badly and had troublesome dreams. I lingered in this state until last winter when exposure to cold affected my kidneys and completely prostrated me. The spring came, when my complaints were further aggravated by stomach trouble. I loathed food and could realize that I was daily growing weaker. My physician's treatment would sometimes slightly benefit me, then again I was worse than ever. Finally, after all hope was apparently gone and a large sum of money had been thrown away for medicines that did me no good, a friend strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, two boxes of which were brought me at the beginning of the summer of 1900. I noticed improvement, and continued the pills faithfully until I had taken eight boxes. I am now able to attend to all my household, feeling entirely cured. I have never enjoyed my health so strongly as now. The pills have had no symptoms of the old complaints. I feel that I am under life-long obligations for the benefit I have derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and will continue to praise them when opportunity offers."

TO A COQUETTE.

Although I may have no to-morrow, Have I not had yesterday? Of the future there's naught I would borrow.

Although I may have no to-morrow, Thou art fickle, I know, to my sorrow.

And so I'll rejoice while I may. Although I may have "No" to-morrow.

A Kitchen Hint.

It is well to remember in cooking vegetables that nearly all are injured by being boiled with fresh meat. The disagreeable odor of boiling cabbage or onions may be lessened by putting a very small amount of cayenne pepper in the boiling water.

German Slave Trade.

The German Government is making vigorous efforts to suppress the slave trade in the German-African colony, and for this purpose the police force there has been considerably augmented.

ART IN PICTURE-HANGING.

Good Effects to be Secured Only by Study.

To-day no one hangs pictures in pairs. The time when regularity of arrangement was considered the acme of elegance has vanished, and in its place has come a wild struggle after the unexpected by those who have nothing match anything else. The weird result their efforts produce is due to their failure to appreciate the fact that harmony, at least, must rule, even although uniformity has been discarded.

There must be a scheme to which the general tone of the pictures should conform. A dark carbon must not hang close to an etching drawn in delicate lines and bordered by a broad white mat. If water colors with their soft tints and oil paintings with their bolder tones, the former will be faded, the latter coarsened.

Let it be grasped in the first place, that certain things may go together, while others must be barred from the association. Etchings, photographs, drawings, some engravings, water-colors, pastels, may be assembled on friendly terms. Even then, however, there must be judgment exercised in the way they are placed. Contrary to the natural inclination, dark, heavily shaded pictures should not always hang in the strongest light, but should in some cases seek a sheltered position, away from the glare of the windows. Near the light may hang the pictures in fainter tints, the subdued water-colors, the fine engravings, whose best points need illumination. This order may sometimes be reversed when the shades of the eye unconsciously from the deepest tone to the lightest light—Harper's Bazar.

Didn't Patron—You advertise to cure consumption, don't you? De Quack—Yes, sir, I never fail when my instructions are followed. Indignant Patron—My son took your medicine for a year, and then died.

Dr. Quack—My instructions were not followed. I told him to take it for two years.—Ohio State Journal.

A Historic Misconception.

"Nero has been badly maligned by the historians. Careful research has proved him to have been a most exemplary character."

"How about his fiddling while Rome was burning?"

"A pure misconception. He was an active member of Appian's House Cleaning Club, and after they had got the fire under control he played for some time on the ruins."—Chicago Record.

Weak Children

How sad it is to see weak children—boys and girls who are pale and thin. They cannot enjoy the sports of childhood, neither are they able to profit by school life. They are indeed to be pitied. But there is hope for them.

Scott's Emulsion

has helped such children for over a quarter of a century.

Your doctor will tell you it is both food and medicine to them. They begin to pick up at once under its use. Their color improves, the flesh becomes more firm, the weight increases and all the full life and vigor of childhood returns again.

At all druggists, 10c. and 50c. bottles. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.
