

Life of Dwight L. Moody.

(From the 100th Anniversary, Herald, Feb. 13th.)
When Dwight L. Moody died one of the greatest preachers of this or any other century passed away. No evangelist ever gained greater fame as a preacher and a man than Mr. Moody. His simplicity of language, his strong individuality, his implicit faith and his belief in the message he gave to men, stamped him as the greatest of all evangelists, a great thinker and a great reformer.

Again and again Mr. Moody requested before he died, that his son might be his biographer, and to assist him, Mr. Moody left him all his papers, his letters, his sermons and the family photographs. His son, W. R. Moody, is now carrying out his father's wish, and is writing his life. The work written by Mr. Moody's son has the endorsement of Ira D. Sankey, and of all the Moody family, and the officials of the Northfield Seminary. Several other lives of Mr. Moody are being published, all of which are commended by the family and friends of Mr. Moody; and the fact of such publication is very valuable to the family.

The authorized book which the son is writing, will be magnificently illustrated by a great number of fine half-tone engravings of Mr. Moody and of his family, of the Northfield Seminary and the life and work of Mr. Moody, and will be much larger and better made and illustrated than the unauthorized copies.

It is estimated that over one million copies of the authorized book will be sold within the next three months. All the profit arising from the sale of these books is to be devoted to the authors to the maintenance of the Institute at Northfield, founded by Dwight L. Moody. The work is published by The World Publishing Company, of Guelph Ont., and can be secured through C. C. McFadden.

SURPRISE PARTY & PRESENTATION AT ORCHARDVILLE.

A large company of people assembled last Thursday evening to spend a pleasant time with Mr. Caldwell and family before their departure to the West.

During the evening Messrs H and T Caldwell and also Mrs H Caldwell were each presented with a beautiful upholstered chair as a slight token of esteem from their many friends in this neighborhood.

Mr Caldwell and family have lived here for many years and are well and favorably known through this part of the country. They have won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends and acquaintances by their kindness and readiness to do others a service. Indeed there are few members of this community who would be so much missed upon departure. But although deep is the regret that we can no longer meet them as formerly, yet we know that what is our loss will prove gain to some other neighborhood where they will make their home.

After the presentation lunch was served which seemed to be enjoyed by all. This over, the rest of the evening was spent in music and pleasant conversation.

The party then dispersed after having expressed kindest wishes for Mr and Mrs Caldwell who intended leaving for their new home Tuesday morning.

ROCKY SAUGEEN.

The reign of one of the most temperate Ontario winters is about at an end. It is gradually superseded by warm days, a bright sky and joyous singing birds but the roads—O my!

The march "Westward Ho" still goes on. Messrs C and W Snider left last Tuesday for Dauphin. Mr M Cameron and family later in the week for North Dakota while Mr J Dalglish contemplates going out to Brandon to meet his son Peter there to look around to spy out the land while others say "That is the place for me."

Mr J McKechnie has purchased a fancy top buggy from Mr Calder. Who is the girl that is looking forward to pleasant drives?

Miss M Wilson left here Friday for Proton to nurse her sister Mrs Black, who is down with a fever.

On the eve of the departure of Mr M Cameron and family to the West a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at their residence and showed the esteem in which they were held by reading a farewell address and presenting them with tokens of love.

Mr D Jackson had a wood bee last Thursday and at night the tired energies of the workers were invigorated by seeing the fair ones appear. By morning they wended their way homeward after a night's dancing, feeling much refreshed. Everything passed off smoothly under the supervision of Mr Chas Tilly.

Who were the two youths from Glenora who strayed down near Durham Friday morning?

Mr T Ewen of Simcoe Co. spent a few days at his parental home here last week. On his return he took with him a team of horses and other necessities for starting farming.

Silver Bells. A happy event took place at the residence of Mr and Mrs D McQuarrie on Wednesday last being the marriage of their youngest daughter Miss Liza to Mr L A McLean. The ceremony took place in the presence of about fifty guests. They were made one by the Rev Wm Graham. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss M A Campbell and both looked charming and attractive, while Mr A McLean saw the groom through the ordeal. After the ceremony a magnificent repast was partaken of that reflected much credit on the culinary skill of Mrs McQuarrie and assistants. A pleasant evening of games, singing, &c., was enjoyed by all. Many an admiring look was cast on the presents. We wish Mr and Mrs McLean much happiness and prosperity.

The Big Store

J. A. HUNTER.

WE ALL FEEL GLAD to hear the robins and Spring Birds once more. The Easter Sun is so refreshing after our long cold winter and it makes each one of us feel as though we should discard our heavy winter clothing and look about for a nice Spring Dress or Suit. There is no longer any doubt about which Store has the finest assortment as they all say in one voice.

Deal with the crowd at The Big Store. Nearly everything you want all under one roof.

He's an "Absent Minded Beggar" who pays, pays, pays, more money for his goods than he can buy them for at The Big Store. Our trade is increasing daily, monthly, annually. The crowds are an evidence of the fact. Be one of the crowd if you wish to save money, as our prices are right. They never pinch the pocket. Look in and see out immense stock.

Almost a MIRACLE

OTTAWA, Sept. 9th, 1896. To the Phrenoline Medicine Co., Ltd. Ottawa.

GENTLEMEN.—I hardly know how best to express my appreciation of your valuable rheumatic remedy, Phrenoline. My son Gordon, who is 9 years old, has been a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for the past two years; was so bad at times that he had to be carried about on a mattress; was attended by two city doctors apparently without the slightest benefit; spent 10 days at Caledonia Springs, came home with no marked improvement; took three bottles of a Homeopathic remedy now being extensively advertised, which did not relieve him in the least. I was beginning to give up all hope of his recovery, when by chance I mentioned the case to a friend who strongly advised me to give Phrenoline a trial.

I did so, with the result that when my boy had taken only half a bottle he was able to get on his bicycle and ride like any other boy around the block.

I certainly feel that I cannot say too much in praise of your medicine, and shall do all I can to make known its value to others. Yours very sincerely,

(Signed) REUBEN CLARK.
