WAVE YOUR FLAG.—Mr. J. A. Hunter has purchased 300 Union Jacks for presentation to the children on Empire Day celebrations. His loyal purpose is commendable and the youngsters will highly appreciate his fine gift costing considerable in bulk.

HONOR THE BOARD.—The School Board have at last secured a large handsome Union Jack to express corporate loyalty on national and other festive days. We are sure the expense, which is about $10, is moderate enough, and their patriotic action should be commended.

FOR TEMISCAMING.—Mr. George C. Watson, formerly of N. Egremont leaves this week for Temiscaming where his brother Adam is. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Hooper and family are also going and intend to make their home in that north land while Mr. Jas. Hooper is also in the party and will look around there for awhile. They secured their tickets last Saturday from Mr. R. MacFarlane, Jr. Mr. Watson leaves the Review with his family, and wants another to follow him to the new land. We wish them all well in their venture.

A writer in the Orillia News Letter has this to say of the mail order business of the great departmental stores:—"What many local merchants are doubtless trying to find out is how to prevent the loss of home trade resulting from the mail order system of the departmental store. There is only one preventive: You have to beat the departmental at its own game, and its game is advertising. It is the system of advertising as adopted by large city stores that attracts and appeals to the out of town customer. The mail order system in itself does not attract. It has no attractions unless they consist in the opportunity which is afforded of contributing to the revenue of the express and transportation companies. Advertising alone is the secret of success of shopping by mail—in fact every merchant knows, or ought to know, that advertising is the foundation stone and the keystone of departmental store achievements."

BRAVE KRUGER.—The Cape Town Owl is responsible for the following:—Ever since it became noised abroad that Oom Paul cut off a smashed thumb with a pocket-knife, he has enjoyed a reputation for personal courage worthy of one of the ancients. Well, Oom Paul went out in a coach-and-eight to stay the rout of the Boer forces when Cronje had been caught in his own trap at Paardeberg. Oom was in the veldt watching his brave burghers flying helter-skelter for their very lives away from the British Tommies. He was aghast that his brave burghers should take to their heels in such a wholesale manner, and he gave orders to his valiant bodyguard that if any more of them came past his coach they were to shoot them down. The battle went on, and by-and-by some wag of artilleryman sent a shell screaming over Oom's coach. Then there was a pretty how-d'ye-do. Oom forgot all about his brave burghers, and calling to Abel, his factotum, demanded that he should inspan and fly to Bloemfontein. "Aabel, Aabel, inspan, voet!" ("off, off"), or words to that effect, and away the old bird went to Bloemfontein. Arriving thither he thundered down the streets, not even staying to say good-bye to Steyn, scrambled into his special train that was waiting under full steam in the siding, and set off full speed for Pretoria. All that is the solemn truth. One shell sent Oom all the way to Pretoria, and yet he went mad because the poor devils of burghers would not remain and be made polled meat of by the English gunners.

ROCKY SAUGEE.

The seedling over and not having received any sunburns, or blistered with the flies and the boss well pleased with the work done I feel in humor to again write up a few items.

The young people here are divided in their opinion of where is the best place to spend the 24th. Some intend to go to Owen Sound, some to Markdale, while others less lofty minded intend to picnic at Minnie Ha Ha falls.

D Wilkie had a peculiar accident happen to a valuable horse while harrowing. Turning too short at the end of the field they overturned the iron harrows and one of them got his foot between the harrows and the doubletree. The other horse crowded against him throwing him on his side on the sharp teeth puncturing a number of holes in his side.

One of our go ahead farmers has a hired man that is a farm genius. He has made up a working team with a steer and a kicking mare. They were all so surprised with their strange companions that the steer forgot to hook, the mare to kick and F to say cuss words.

Mr Angus McCormick has returned from a two weeks trip to Manitoulin Is. bringing back with him three fine young horses.

Messrs McCoolle and Colbourne jolly angling sports from Guelph are up on their annual trip.

A young lady from here and a gentleman from Glenroden Dornierity are spending a few holidays in Markdale and Owen Sound.

Miss M Wilson is expected home this week from Proton and the monstache gets a few extra curls a day now.

Miss S A Ha-lip was visiting her friend Miss Morton this week.

Miss D Ewen contemplates taking a trip to Toronto on Wednesday.

Passengers on the stage last Tuesday morning were Messrs H McKinnon and J Dalglisch two trustworthly Bentinck men. The former had a ticket for Newdale, the latter for Brandon. Sorry to lose their genial friendship.

A number from here took in the Latona school concert and box social and were all well pleased with the night's enjoyment. The proceeds are to go to the benefit of the scholars. It is a pleasure to see interest taken by teacher and ratepayers with the welfare of the young such as is shown by Mr Grant and the people of his section.

By the minutes of the Glenelg council for the last meeting we see that they are looking after the affairs of the township past and present in a diligent manner.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed at our drug stores.

Edge Hill.

The farmers of this place have finished seeding and are now preparing for the root crop.

Miss Ada Banks who has been visiting friends in Havelock, has returned home again.

R J McColl and Ed Colburne from Toronto are up on their fishing trip.

Mr Timothy Ryan, 4th con Glenelg passed away last week, aged 70 yrs. He leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss.

John McGillivray and Miss Grace McNab were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Wednesday. We wish the happy couple success.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs Wm Weir is improving.

We are sorry to hear that Robert Allen of the 4th has been poorly this last week.

Mrs Forde of the 4th who has been laid up for some time is improving very slowly.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles at the drug stores.

Priceville.

Died, at Priceville, on Thursday night, the 17th May, Flora McKinnon, beloved wife of Allan McLean, native of the Isle of Trees, Argyleshire, Scotland, after a lingering illness borne with Christian patience aged sixty-five years. Mrs McLean was a resident of the Township of Glenelg for forty eight years. She was a woman that was highly respected by all who formed her acquaintance. She was an earnest and a true Christian lady and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church in this place. She leaves a lonely husband and family (all grown up) to mourn the loss of a beloved wife and mother. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery in this village on Saturday afternoon the 19th inst when a very large number of friends and acquaintances attended in respect to the departed and to sympathize with the living in their sad bereavement. Rev Mr Matheson presided

We see that one of the ex-councillors of Glenelg comes out in defiance through the columns of the press.

A happy event took place at the residence of Mr Hugh McInnes, Calgary, N W T recently when his sister, Miss Maggie McInnes, was united in matrimony to Joseph Shannon, Esq., of the same place. Miss McInnes is a daughter of Mr Duncan McInnes, Durham rd., Glenelg, and sister to John McInnes and Mrs Duncan McDonald of the same place. Her many friends in this part extend congratulations to Mr and Mrs Shannon wishing them a long and prosperous journey in life together.

Top Cliff is alive yet consequently we must keep within bounds so as to give justice to the able writer whose talent is hidden under the roof of his or her dwelling. We hope in future to see more from the pen of our friend so as to relieve us from taking a stroll across occasionally to that famous place.

We are pleased to see that many are now fixing up their plots in the graveyard which gives the place a Christian-like appearance and shows respectability to the remains of those whose ashes are mouldering in the dust.

ONLY ONE
There is but one Business College in Canada that owns the building it occupies and is not above stores, etc. on noisy streets. The NORTHERN Business College
Is that one. It occupies entirely a three story building, fitted up expressly for College work and separate from other buildings. The premises of most business colleges are unfit for study but everything is so that students can make the best possible progress at the "Northern."
