There will be no services in the Methodist church next Sunday the pastor Rev. Mr. Ferguson being absent at Conference.

Arthur McIntyre who shot his father in Toronto is to be placed in a Reformatory for four years. The lad took his sentence in a painfully careless manner.

The millinery department of Ireland & Co's Store is rushed with orders they have just opened up a new lot of children's and misses fancy straw and leghorn hats.

BURNED.—Saturday last Mr. John Smith got face and neck badly burned by escaping steam through some neglect of the engine or boiler. We hope it may have no serious results.

No. 4 Co., 31st Regiment (not Battalion now) is called out by Captain Snider for practice on the two Saturday evenings previous to June 12, when the regiment leaves for Niagara Camp. He wants some good recruits.

CEMENT.—Some very flattering offers and correspondence has been received in connection with the movement for the establishment of cement works here. We confidently expect to see a charter secured soon, and other practical steps taken.

The provincial poultry exhibition of 1900 which was voted Owen Sound by the Association last fall will not be there. The minister of agriculture has decided that the show will be held permanently in Guelph in connection with the fat stock exhibition.

THE EXCURSION.—The emphasis on the "The" means the giant excursion being worked up for June 12 next by Mr. Geo. Binnie, Secy. of the S. Grey Farmers' Institute, to Guelph and the O. A. C. An advertisement in another column gives rates &c.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church intend holding a high class concert in the Town Hall June 18th, at which Miss McCallum, the well known elocutionist will recite. Miss J. Renwick, who pleased so well before, will sing. Dr. Brown of Holstein will also sing.

PASSED AT GUELPH.—The result of the Easter examinations of the O. A. C. appeared in last Saturday's Globe. Amongst the successful ones in the first year we notice the name of C. H. Dixon Dromore, a son of Mr. W. L. Dixon, who has taken honors in Agriculture. Congratulations Chas.

ALMOST COMPLETED.—Ireland & Co. announce that they are almost free from the necessary confusion and annoyance caused by the extensive improvements made on the store. They have appreciated very highly the patience of their customers at the inconvenience they met with of late and trust the new conditions will make shopping both pleasant and profitable.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—On Saturday night last as Mrs. Reynolds and daughter were proceeding homewards when near Edge Hill, they were both accidentally thrown from the buggy, the daughter escaping safe, but Mrs. Reynolds being caught in the harness, was dragged across a lot before being liberated. She was taken in to Mr. Thos. Banks, and being badly shaken up it will be some time before she is around again.

THREE TO PICK FROM.—Last week's Dundak Herald cheerfully announces that the elections are soon commencing and picks upon Dr. Landerkin as the Reform Candidate, but is not precise enough to announce the Conservative one. It does the next best thing however: the choice for South Grey Conservatives says the Herald lies in Matthew Richardson, Flesherton, John McArthur, Priceville, or Chas. McKinnon, Durham. There now, is a good list to choose from, although knowing ones say there is a dark horse, looking up that will outpace any of the three named. We shall soon see however as a Convention has been called for Saturday June 9th, in Durham, to select a candidate.

PASTURE.—We will pasture cows or young cattle at $3 per head for this season, payable in advance. There is a run of about 40 acres, good grass, well watered and shady. Apply at once as a limited number only will be taken in.
R. MCGOWAN.

Last week Mr. E. B. Campbell, of Glendon, received from his son Fred, a flag of the Orange Free State. The design is red, white and orange in stripes. In the same parcel came a coin of the South African republic on which were engraved the well-known features of Paul Prager. A number of friends of Corporal Campbell were also remembered with flags.—Mt. Forest Cou.

ABOLISH STATUTE LABOR.—We would call attention to the timely, practical letter of Mr. Dan. McDougall in another column, on this subject. We hope the matter may be thoroughly discussed and some action follow to do away with this ancient system now of little value. What Municipality will move?

NEW SHEDS.—The Presbyterian body here have often had the subject of church sheds before them but it always ended in talk. Now however they mean business and on Monday and Tuesday some 6 or 7 teams belonging to country members, with some town helpers have dug into the banks behind the church and will soon have a nice area levelled off on which to erect sheds. Most of the timber and lumber is already on the grounds.

A BEAUTY FLOWER.—Our local florist Mr. Wm. Gorsline, every now and then has something nice in rare flowers. Monday last he had a cactus blossom and for the first time in 12 years. The cactus is of the bottle kind and the flower is a perfect specimen having sepals and petals, the latter of a beautiful pink shade and making a whorl of about 5 inches in diameter. Stamens were attached to the petals and very numerous on the under side, the 10 pronged pistil projected beyond the stamens.

DIED IN OMAHA.—Mr. Adam Cochran, well known here as one of the members of the old firm of "A. & A. Cochran," Foundry men, died at the home of his son, Haggart, in Omaha, on Saturday last. For a year or more he has been in delicate health, but it was only for the past 6 weeks that serious results were expected, the trouble being Cancer of the stomach. His wife is also seriously ill. For many years Mr. Cochran was a prominent figure in Durham life, and was successful in business. He built the fine residence now owned and occupied by Dr. Jamieson M. P. P. Two brothers and two sisters of that generation survive him, Robert of this town and Roderrick, Mrs. Haggart and Mrs. Russ. Mr. Jno. Cochran, at present a guest at Mrs. Jackson's is a grandson of the deceased and kindly gave us notice of the death.

THE ECLIPSE.—Monday forenoon last observers were gratified by an almost cloudless view of the solar eclipse. The diminution of light was plainly visible about 6 o'clock, so much so as to suggest to those not aware of it, or who had forgotten, an impending storm. The carolling of birds was stilled and a weird appearance came over everything. In the Southern States where the total phase covered a belt of 50 miles wide the sky was very favorable and many fine observations have been taken which will increase our knowledge of the wonderful and beautiful corona, only visible at total eclipses. The moon will suffer a partial eclipse on the night of June 12 at a convenient hour, but it will be a long time before her orbit will again swing between us and the sun in such a way as to give us an eclipse of the sun so nearly total in the 40's of N. Latitude. One observer says not for 100 yrs.

AN EXAMPLE.—A Palmerston paper says, and Durham town and Council may look on: "The attention of Palmerston Town Council is respectfully directed to the example set by the Council of the little village of Drayton in voting the following grants: $90 to the band, $83 per week for street watering, and $150 to the Public Library. Our Council grants just one-third this amount to the Public Library, and grants it with apparent reluctance. A vote of $150 annually would be a moderate one for a town the size of Palmerston, and would suffice to put the library on a sound basis financially. If the Council refuses to increase its present grant, and refuses also to take over the library, there would appear to be no choice for the directors but to make an assignment. If they are forced to do so, we may learn too late what a valuable institution the Public Library has been. [Note.—If Durham Public Library had depended on Council grants it would long ere now have vanished. This year though a grant would be very acceptable and we invite enquiry by our council into its position.—Ed. Review.]

Dated, May 28th, 1900.

EMPIRE DAY.

Young Durhmites in their Glory.

Wednesday of last week, May 23, was a red letter day for the young people of the town. It was Empire Day and as they formed in procession at the school—over 300 strong—and were each presented on leaving the grounds with wavy flags, they were as happy a lot as one could wish to see. It only lacked some martial music in the van to make this "army with banners" a mimic representation of more serious work.

They scampered up the stairs of the Hall and it seemed as if they and their flags would leave small room for their elders, but quite a number of these crowded in and nearly all (not quite) got sitting room.

Mayor Laidlaw was made Chairman and opened with appropriate references to the day, the Empire of Ontario, G. W. Ross, who broached the subject at a meeting of teachers in Montreal 4 years ago. The rest of his address was those of Rev'ds McGregor, Farquharson, C. Ramage and Prin. Allan were all couched in a patriotic strain, extolling the virtues of our Queen, describing the wonderful expansion of the empire, holding out to the young people the patriotic example furnished us by the present war and inciting them to patriotism was.

A number of appropriate recitations and solos by Misses Llowyn Moran, Jessie Laidlaw and Edna Shorey were pleasing numbers.

As we intimated last week the trustees have furnished a fine new flag for the school, but they were too modest to attend the meeting to receive thanks.

About 300 flags were presented by Mr. J. A. Hunter and the children thoroughly appreciated them.

A number of Kindergarten songs were rendered by the little ones.

THE 24TH.

Never before has there been witnessed such enthusiasm over the Queen's Birthday as in the closing year of the century. Of course every succeeding year added to the life of our aged and respected sovereign calls forth at once more wonder and more gratitude. But not this alone has made 1900 surpass all its predecessors. The striking series of victories for the last two months, above all the relief of Mafeking a few days before, had the empire tuned up to a pitch of patriotism, which easily attached itself more warmly than ever to honoring the Queen.

In Britain by all reports enthusiasm ran high. Canadian Clubs in many United States cities observed the day loyally. Every province in the Dominion had celebrations, banquets, or something else and some of the nicest things taken from French papers in Quebec. Every place can't celebrate, and Durham on this occasion beyond the display of flags, the snapping of fire-crackers, jumping &c. was part of the arranged program. A part not planned was the fire at night, which destroyed Plewes' Mill.

At the Falls there was evidence that the picnic was more popular than ever. A crowd estimated at 5 or 6 hundred loyally explored the caves, roved in the bush, sampled the sandwich, listened to loyal addresses or tipped the light fantastically to the music of the violin, while the music of falling waters was present all day. The short and spicy program was conducted by Reeve Staples as Chairman. Appropriate and loyal addresses were given by him, by Mr. Geo. Binnie and by Mr. Wm. Irwin, Miss Ivy McGovern, Chicago, a friend of the Kelley's and Culberts, gave a clever recitation. Songs were sung by Miss Werner, Mrs. W. L. Falkingham and daughter Miss Florence and Mr. Thos. Thomas. Mr. Wm. Arrowsmith was violinist, and he was assisted by Messrs. Wm. Aytton, Jas. Wilson and Guy Williams. Owen Nat. Show went both the races. The booth kept by Mr. Wm. Timmins, was a favorite spot, and his sweets and cooling drinks were all sold out. Mr. Falkingham's success has been remarkable and he intends next year to introduce some new features which will further add to the attractiveness of a picnic at this picturesque spot.
