Local and District News.

Lucas, Wright & Batson Barristers etc. at Middaugh House every Monday 10 a. m. to 4.30 p. m. conveying, money to loan etc.

The circus at present touring Ontario, is circling in for hard raps in our exchanges. It is a fake and vile affair. Happily they did not think it worth while to visit Durham.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday night. The new pastor Rev. Wray Smith will take up his residence here next week and begin his work the following Sabbath, July 1st.

Harriston voted last week on a by-law to loan $11000 to a Furniture Co., already in operation there. It was lost and the Tribune says "as a result the factory is closed down and the men are parading the streets." Got muffed we suppose.

UNDON PICNIC.—On Tuesday next, 20 inst., S. S. No. 1, Normanby and Knox Church S. School will have an old time program picnic and sports in Carson's bush. Tea served between 1 and 2. Mr. D. McDonald, the teacher is pushing it alone, hence it will be good.

Mr. Chas. Ryan met with a serious accident on Monday, while loading square timber at the station. A large stick slipped and pinned Mr. Ryan against the car breaking all the ribs on one side. Three physicians were summoned in consultation. At the time of writing Mr. Ryan was somewhat easier and it is therefore thought he may recover, but the injury is a very serious one. Flesherton Advance.—Later we learn that death supervened. The sorrowing friends have our sympathy.

THE LATE JOHN JACK, JR.—After several months of fluctuating hopes and fears the grim reaper asserted his power and on Friday last Mr. John Jack, Jr., breathed his last. The contributing cause of death was diabetes. Deceased was a young man of much promise, of kindly disposition, affable and free in his manner, and a devoted member of the Baptist church. His remains were laid to rest on Sunday, in the New Cemetery, a large number being at the funeral. Rev. Mr. McGregor conducted services at house and grave. To his widow, aged father, brothers and sisters we extend our sympathies.

CONTRACTS LET.—The Shed committee of the Presbyterian Church have let the contract of framing and closing in the new sheds to Mr. John Dunsmore for $55. Last Thursday and Saturday it was an inspiring sight to see dozens of men and teams working like niggers to level off the site behind the church and now that it is done and a fine approach made on the lot bought from Mr. Smith just alongside, everyone is more than gratified at the success attending their efforts. In a few weeks sheds capable of holding 40 teams will be available. The managers have also completed arrangements for the church extension. Mr. J. W. Crawford is the contractor, the excavations necessary are completed, and building will soon begin. The congregation is to be congratulated on the liberality which has made such necessary improvements possible.

DORMSUCH PRESBYTERIANS.—Last Friday night the hospitable home and fine grounds of Mr. Louis Smith were placed at the disposal of the congregation for a garden party. We think it must be pronounced the best of the season for there was a large attendance, a fine fraternal feeling and a fat purse, about $75 being netted at gate and booth. A raising at Corlett's on the town line no doubt hindered some from coming. Unfortunately, Rev. Mr. Farquharson and Rev. Mr. Little couldn't come as announced (though the name of the former was used without his knowledge), but with such a capable and versatile chairman as Rev. Mr. Graham supported by the equally able and versatile Baptist clergyman Rev. Mr. Campbell, Mulock and a hearty lay support, a successful program was carried out. The Durham choir was a host in itself and rendered music generous in quantity and excellent quality. Miss Margaret Gun, Miss Frankie Black and Mr. Will Lauder gave excellent solos. Miss E. McFarlane and Mrs. Buchan gave the fine duett. "The Crooked Bawbee" in good style. Messrs. Councillor McLean and C. Ramage gave recitations and a brief address was given by Mr. Yemen, dentist, Williamsford. The tables, we need scarcely say were bountifully supplied and a very generous support was given to the booth in charge of H. Riddell and R. Corlett who made visitors wonder where they acquired their skill and finesse as salesmen.

Pleased to be able to give a sketch of Camp life at Niagara in this issue.

The Brantford assizes, at which the trial of the alleged perjurer case, Clark v. Calder comes up, are held in that city next December.

Postmaster Smith expects to move into his new premises in the Calder Block on Saturday next. The inside fittings are of an elegant modern pattern and the boxes are of the keyless kind, opening by a dial arrangement. The new position will be a great convenience to business men.

Dr. F. D. Meikle has just arrived home after an absence of 8 months. As is well known he was in the Hospitals in Great Britain till the New Year. Since the middle of January he has been at various Hospitals in the United States. Among the cities he visited being New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston.—Mt. Forest Confed.

Miss Mary Wiley of near Orchard died last week and was buried in the Orchard cemetery on Monday. Deceased has been a resident of this township for many years living with her sister Ann mostly on the charity of the neighbors and an occasional grant from the town council. She came from Ottawa originally where she had seen better days.—Advance.

William White, son of Mr. John White, of Glenelg, passed away last Friday, aged 33 years 6 months. Deceased had been affected with heart weakness last winter which was followed by a stroke of paralysis, but had rallied, and his friends hoped for a speedy recovery. Disappointment came however, when another stroke followed and he passed away as above. William was married scarcely a year and a half and leaves a wife and a 6 months' old son to mourn the severe loss.

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION.—This was held at Keady, in the north of Sullivan last week, when about 150 delegates were present from the various congregations in Grey and Bruce, which is the territory represented. Rev. Mr. Norton O. S. was Moderator, and the next meeting is to be held in Port Elgin. The chief speakers present were Chancellor Wallace, of McMaster University and Rev. J. P. McEwen, Toronto; Mr. Masse, representing the Grand Ligne Mission, Quebec; Miss Trotter, Toronto, and Miss Baskerville, a returned missionary from India, whose presence gave a missionary impulse to the Convention. Rev. Mr. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Nettie Brown and Mrs. H. Burnett went from Durham.

WEDDING BELLS.—On the 6th of June at the residence of Mrs. Pettigrew, Leaning St., Hamilton, there was an interesting event when her eldest son, Herbert, was happily wedded to Miss Marion Morton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Morton, Durham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Jackson, of Emerald St. Methodist Church, Hamilton. The bride was dressed in white muslin and white roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Morton, looked pretty in pink muslin and pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Bernard Pettigrew, a brother of the groom. After receiving the good wishes of the friends a bounteous supper was partaken of, and the rest of the evening spent in games and music. The presents were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew will reside on McCauley St. East., Hamilton. The Review extends congratulations.

A SUCCESS.—The Ladies' Aid Society would be hard to please if they were not gratified on Monday night with the result of the concert. The hall was nearly filled with a most appreciative audience. Rev. Mr. Farquharson made an excellent chairman, and the program was high class in every particular. Miss Tessa McCallum made her first appearance here and for versatility and ability is pronounced the equal, if not the superior of anything in her line that has appeared in Durham. One scarcely knows whether her pathetic touches such as the mother lode or "Jamie" and "Barnies Cuddle Doon" or her humor in the "Bear Story", the Irish girl in the Kitchen, or "The Hotel Bed" is the more admirable. Her dialectical powers in either Scotch or Irish are first class, and her interpretation of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet showed that even here she was at home. Should Miss McCallum ever visit Durham again a welcome is assured her. Miss Jean Renwick fully sustained the high reputation she has acquired in Durham as a sweet and natural vocalist and her numbers were enthusiastically encored. Her rendering of "Love's Sweet Song" and of "Daddy" was particularly good. Dr. Brown, of Holstein, appeared for the first time in Durham. He has a voice of great compass, in fine control, and his fine presence, and clear enunciation admirably fitted him for a public entertainer. The piano solos by Miss Margaret Gun were difficult classical compositions but rendered with spirit and effect. The "Nocturne" by Liszt was a favorite. Miss Belle McKenzie most efficiently acted as accompanist. The proceeds amounted to about $50. By mistake the railway officials left Miss McCallum's trunk at Guelph giving her the annoyance of having to appear not in evening dress. The audience lost nothing however.

Mr. Geo. Turnbull, sr., has an interesting letter in another column on the Statute Labor discussion. We invite contributions on the subject.

Miss Minnie Ryan returned to her home last week from Detroit where she has spent the past two years.—Aytton Advance.

Rev. J. Garner an aged superannuated minister who still is not weary of the work preached twice in a very acceptable manner in the Methodist church last Sunday.

Mr. Daniel, a Victoria College Student gave an address on Wednesday evening in the basement of the Methodist church in the interests of the young people's forward movement for missions.

PROPERTY CHANGE.—Mr. H. Parker has bought from Mr. A. McLachlan the brick store at present occupied by Mr. C. L. Grant, and will in due course occupy it himself.

VARNEY S. S. PICNIC.—Will be held this year on Saturday, 23rd inst. in Mr. John Aldred's orchard where several of its predecessors were so successful. A good time with music and games is being planned for.

MATERIAL NOT MENTAL.—Owen Sound last week carried a Basket By-law by a vote of 667 to 71, a Furniture Factory By-law by 689 to 39, and defeated a by-law to give more school accommodation by 428 to 237.

WEDDED IN MT. HOPE.—The home of Mrs. Poole of Mt. Hope was filled with guests on Wednesday evening, June 13th, to witness the marriage of her daughter Miss Lily, well and favorably known here to Mr. Will Roadhouse of O. Sound. The handsome couple looked their best as they stood without attendant taking the vows that bind together "for better or worse, until death parts." The bride was becomingly dressed in cream cashmere with satin, lace and ribbon trimmings and carried a bouquet of moss, roses and ferns. Numerous and beautiful were the presents brought for the occasion. The young couple will reside in Owen Sound taking with them best wishes of a large circle of friends. The Methodist church has lost one of their valued members in the person of the bride, but such is life. Among the guests were some from Owen Sound, Durham, North Dakota and Iowa.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.—Tuesday morning at 6 a. m. was one of the fairest and brightest of June mornings. An ideal morning to get married in, and this was the day and the hour, in which one happy couple had determined to unite their fortunes in marriage bonds. The contracting parties were Rev. Robert Herbert, lately rector of Walter's Falls, now to be stationed at Port Dover, and Miss Frances A. R. Hughes, of Durham. The chancel of the church was prettily decorated with flowers and the morning sun through the stained glass window brightened the whole scene. Quite a number, chiefly ladies, had gathered even at that early hour. At the hour named the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother George, becomingly attired in a fawn colored travelling dress. As they marched up the aisle the wedding march was played by Miss Vollett. Arriving at the altar the groom placed himself at her side, both unattended, and there in the bright June morning they took upon them the vows of fidelity "until death do us part." Rev. Mr. Ryan was the officiating clergyman and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Newell, Markdale, and Rev. Thos. Farr, Atwood. At the close the bell rang out its congratulations. The happy couple then received the warm wishes of friends, and after the wedding breakfast left by train on a honeymoon trip. Mrs. (Rev.) Herbert was for some years a teacher, and is a cultured and refined young lady. The Review extends congratulations.

THE LATE JOHN McARTHUR.—On Sunday last at the age of 70 yrs. 7 mos. there passed away one of the very oldest settlers of Bentinck in the person of John McArthur, "Old John" as sometimes he was familiarly called. For some months gack he has been confined to the house and increasing frailty made the end not unexpected. For some years back he has been kindly cared for by his relatives, Wm. Smellie and family who resided with him. Mr. Smellie is a cousin of the deceased, as are also Donald McArthur Sr. Bentinck and the McDonald Bros. near Preeceville. Away back about 1844 the deceased came to this country with his parents and consequently saw every feature of pioneer life. He married a Miss McCormack several branches of whose family are still in the neighborhood. She died over 20 years ago very suddenly being stricken with paralysis in Mr. Cameron's store as some may remember. They had no living issue. John was an intelligent man, an earnest member of Burns Church, Rocky Sauguen, and in politics was an ardent Reformer. He was buried on Tuesday, in the Rocky Sauguen cemetery mid every token of respect. Rev. Mr. Graham conducted the services.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

This body for the first time in its history meets in Durham on the 23rd inst. Such an event awakens more than a passing interest and we believe the presence here of our County parliament will have the effect of arousing more interest in their work than has hitherto been the case.

The County for County Council purposes is divided into 8 divisions, each returning two members, thus making a total of 16.

The members of this body and divisions they represent are as follows:

Div. No. 1.—Owen Sound and Sarawak, Chas. Gordon, J. W. Frost.

Div. No. 2.—Kappel, Derby, Sullivan—Wm. Totten, Joseph Pringle.

Div. No. 3.—Glenelg, Bentinck, Durham and Hanover, C. McKinnon, H. Brig- ham.
