CRUELTY.—Lower Town residents complain of wanton cruelty to birds, cats &c., on the part of young lads with firearms. This is bad work as the carrying of such is forbidden, and besides better targets can be had than domestic pets.

"A FINE COUNTRY"—Such is the expression used by Mr. Adam Little as he writes ordering the REVIEW for his Western home in Lumsden "to see how the Grits and Tories of S. Grey are getting along." He says, "This is a fine country, crops looking well, and to see a field of wheat a mile long is something nice to an Ontario man. I have a good business here, lots of plough shares to sharp, but Tom Derby is with me and we manage. He likes it all O. K.

A SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTION. — The Standard Bank of Canada reports a most successful year. The net profits have been sufficient to pay the usual half-yearly dividend of 4 per cent., with a bonus of 1 per cent on the paid-up capital stock, amounting in all to $90,000, to reduce the office safes and furniture account $10,000, to transfer $15,000 to rebate of interest account, and to carry forward $28,283 to profit and loss. The sum of $100,000 has been taken from the profit and loss account and added to the reserve fund, bringing that up to $700,000. The total note circulation is $836,750 and total deposits $7,335,114. The total assets are $10,561,047, of which $6,571,324 are current loans and discounts.

The Hanover Post has the following complimentary references to our lacrosse boys who played a tie match there 10 days ago. "Carson, the visitors' point is a stalwart and sure defenceman, while Laidlaw in goal is almost impregnable. A number of shots struck him on the breast and other places, but he scooped them out in some way or other, and a quarter time was called without either side scoring. During the next fifteen minutes' play, the Durham boys scored a goal, McCracken doing the trick. McCracken is easily the star of the Durham home, and, as he is a nice stick handler, as well as a strong player, he was quite troublesome at times. The Durham boys, with the exception of Raeburn, play a clean, gentlemanly game, but the latter is too hot-headed and full of grit to play lacrosse.

Our Highland readers will be pleased to find in this week's supplement some poetry settling the question of the site of the Garden of Eden. That the Gaelic was the language of Eden has long been known but it is a late and happy discovery that the garden itself was in the "hielands a' the while."

HOME AGAIN—Came No. 4 Coy. 31st Reg. on Saturday night last, and a goodly crowd of sightseers were at the station to welcome the boys, bronzed and brown back from Niagara. The march from station to town was in solemn silence, but those who got a glimpse of the boys could not fail but be conscious of a precision and steadiness in their marching that did honor to their 10 days of camp life. Mayor Laidlaw had arranged supper for the Company at the Knapp House, and when justice was done to an elegant spread, the Mayor in a neat speech bade them welcome home. Capt. Snider felicitously thanked the mayor for his forethought in providing for them so handsomely, and took occasion to compliment his men for the manner in which they had conducted themselves personally and the readiness with which they had fallen in with camp discipline and requirements. Staff Sergt. Wm. Ramage corroborated the good opinions expressed and ye editors had a welcoming word. After acknowledging cheers, the boys marched to the drill shed and deposited her Majesty's clothing, &c., in the room adjoining the hay mow and got home on Sunday morning.

GOOD BYE.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson Given a Hearty Send off.

On Monday night last a large number of the friends of the retiring Methodist pastor Rev. Mr. Ferguson, met in the church to have a good bye word with him. Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P. was in the chair and addresses were given by Mr. M. Richardson, Mr. Frost, Mr. Irwin and others.

During the evening a presentation of a purse was made accompanied with an address couched in warm and endearing terms, to which Mr. Ferguson, though taken by surprise, replied in felicitous terms.

Such things as partings must be in the lot of Methodist Ministers, yet few if any of Mr. Ferguson's predecessors left such a conscious blank in the community as the prospect of his absence does. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson have endeared themselves to all by their broad mindedness, their Christian activity, and public spiritedness as citizens, and the best of good wishes will follow them to their new sphere.

REV. MR, FERGUSON,

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Three years have passed since first we met as pastor and people, and now that our union is at an end, we have come to say "good bye."

During the term of your pastorate amongst us we have found you ever faithful in the discharge of duty, ever ready to encourage us in our moments of weakness, ever willing to console us in times of trouble and ever able to shed light over the dark shadows that beset our Christian pathway.

Not only have you been faithful in the discharge of your social duties, but you have been faithful as a student, digging deep down after those things which give knowledge of a higher life, and sowing such seed as will bring forth fruit and bless us. Just as the wise husbandman studies the nature of the soil and adapts to it the seed which will, from existing conditions, produce the best results, so you seem to have studied the character of your people and prepared religous thought in such a manner as to bring forth the best fruits.

In the Epworth League too your wise counsel has often been our guide, your liberal views have been ever healthful, and our hope is that your wisdom may stamp character in our lives and serve as a solid foundation on which to build a true religous superstructure.

We must not forget your partner in life, whose kind, genial nature responded at a moment's call when any service she could render was at all in need, And now in parting let us wish you all a full and abundant happiness in this world and in the world to come life everlasting. We cannot exour feeling in any tangible way, but as a mere memento of our three years' soiourn together allow us to present you this purse, which we one and all, hope you may be long spared to enjoy.

Hoping you may all be abundantly blessed in your new field of labor. We wish you a kind farewell.

Signed in behalf of the church and League.
GEO. SPARLING,
S. CULBERTSON.

REV. WRAY R. SMITH.

The above gentleman is the new pastor of the Methodist church, in Durham and at Zion, and takes up his residence among us this week. On behalf of the town we extend to the Rev. gentleman and his wife a very hearty welcome.

He has been stationed for the past three years at Grimsby, where his work and life seems to have met with great appreciation. A recent issue of the Grimsby Independent, contains a lengthy notice of warm separation meetings between him and several courts of Foresters at which a gold-mounted fountain pen was presented him accompanied by an address couched in flattering terms of his pulpit ministrations and of the generous and kindly manner in which his pastoral duties had been fulfilled. Mr. Smith's reply was touching and appropriate.

The Epworth League also presented Mrs. Smith with a purse and address, every line of the latter breating affection to "a true and tried friend ever ready to assist us in League and Church work with wise words of counsel."

Rev. Mr. Smith has a reputation for his "chalk talks" and he gave a very interesting one to his Sabbath School Sunday before last, when the church was elegantly decorated with flowers and emblems.

JUNE NUPTIALS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon June 20th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Blackburn, when their daughter Jessie Emelyn Tunstead was married to Charles Davis Harris of Wardsville. Miss Gun rendered Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march, as the groom and his best man entered the parlor, followed by the bridesmaid and the bride leaning on the arm of her father, while Rev. Mr. Farquharson performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon trimmed with Valenciennes lace and carried brides' roses and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Tunstead was becomingly attired in white organdy and lace, and carried pink roses. The groom was assisted by his brother Mr. Wm. Harris. A sumptuous repast immediately followed the ceremony, and the toast of the bride was proposed by Mr. Robt MacFarlane, Mr. T. W. McLean proposed the toast of the groom which was responded to by Mr. Chas. Harris, while Mr. Wm. Harris toasted 'our host and hostess,' and Mr. Blackburn answered with a neat and witty speech.

Amid showers of rice and best wishes for a bright and happy future, Mr. and Mrs. Harris left on the evening train for Owen Sound from whence they will take a trip down the lakes.
