their appreciation of the thoughtfulness of yourself and your council which prompted your kindly address of welcome presented at the opening of the present session, and to say,—in Name—your town is fortunate in being called after one of the most astute and deserving Governors that ever administered the affairs of this country, whose excellent Report to the Home Government,—now a part of Canadian History—did much to restore harmony at a troubled period.

Evidences of the prosperity of Durham are readily seen in your railway facilities, excellent business blocks, fine pavements, mills and factories.

Vol. XXII, No. 26. Durham, June 28th 1900.

Hopville.

Intended for last week.
The Rev gentlemen who came to the special services here on Friday night, are now in charge of the Holy Eucharist and Parsonage.
Mr. Nelson, who lived within the town, died on Monday 11th. The funeral took place on Wednesday at the Methodist burying ground in front of the church. The Rev Mr Kenning and the Rev Mr Humphreys of Preville officiated at the house and church.
Mr and Mrs Deans, and Andrew Deans went away on Saturday 16th to Saint Marie.
On the 18th John Russell's barn was struck with lightning, caught fire, but was put out by the neighbors.
Proton Council went to Bells Corners to hold a Council meeting.

And Sanson, too—that's more of Greek

His name was Gilderoy;
He felled a bullock with his neive
When he was just a boy
They took him off to Stirling gaul, They little kent his might,
He walked off with the gates and all
At the dead hour of night.
And furthermore, our Heelant chiefs Have all got pagan names,
Such as Achilles—bless my soul—
The more's the burning shame, Fingal was Ajax, or the like, Ossian they made a Spartan; Macgregor was—who can tell what—Twas something about tartan.
There's no use talking about Greek.
It's just a kind of gabble.
A portion of the Gaelic tongue Spoiled at the Tor o' Babel.
The Greeks, you see, were not a clan, Although of the same tongue;
But just a sort of laboring men
That carried bricks and stone.
For instance there's the "Ihad" noo.
It's ruined altogether;
Twas first wrote in the Gaelic tongue
By Homer in Balquither.
The Greeks they got it at the last,
And spoiled it as you see,
Then swore that Homer was a Greek—
A most tremendous lee.
And no doubt you would like to know Where fair Glen Elen stood; Och hone, it was the bonnie place Before the awful flood.
A well, 'twas just in Inverness,
Some say 'twas in Argyll;
There's no use fecthin' 'boot a word—
'Twas the Heelants all the while.

ANTIQUITY OF THE GAELIC LANGUAGE.

The following has gone the round of the press in the Old Country seeking an author. Perhaps some reader of this paper can supply the name:
Before Apollo had a flute,
More than a hundred year,
Macgregor played his ain bagpipes,
His Heelant clans to cheer.
He had a boat, too, of his ain,
Made out o' Heelant wud,
Which saved the Macgregor's freens Frae droonin' at the flood.
For you must know the Gaelic tongue Was spoken in Glen Elen,
And Adam wrote his Heelant songs
The time his sheep were feedin'.
And Mrs. Adam's name was Grant,
She came from Abernethy;
She was a poetess, and wrote
"The Birks o' Aberfeldy."
Moreover, too, old Tubal Cain—
His name was Dougal Dhu,
But was misprinted in the book
When the printer had got fou—
He was a blacksmith till his trade,
And made the first claymore;
He also made the coat o' mail
That Noah's father wore.
And furthermore, tis gospel truth,
He did invent the bell,
Because, you see, he sold a dram,
And needed it himself.
Young Donald Vulcan served his time
With this same Dougal Dhu—
Five years he shoed Macgregor's horse,
And Dougal's bellows blew.
Now, "Noah" is a Grecian word
In Gaelic it's "Macpherson"
He instituted Heelant games
Just for his ain diversion, MacCallum Mohr, his son-in-law,
Was Lord, Duke of Argyll;
His mother's name was Janet Gunn,
A sister of King Coil.

WAR AS IT IS.—"Jack" McKay, of

Shelburne writes to his sister from S Africa. Here is a bit of his letter in last week's Shelburne paper which is about as graphic as we have seen: "I tell you, Belle, war is an awful thing. As we go along the advance party wherever they are (we were yesterday), go into the houses and take everything they want out, then fire the house and storehouses. We do this now because the Boers have been known to follow us up and live in the houses and keep their stores there. It is a pretty hard thing to pass these houses on fire and see a big family of children sitting out in the field watching all their stuff burning and no place to go. Of course the troops behind the advance guard take up the troops with the transport wagons take all the sheep and cattle in the country so that the Boers cannot get provisions when they come back. That is just what they did with the Cape Colonists. Before we struck the Orange Free State they had blown up our bridges, set houses on fire, torn down all telegraph wires, and now they are getting it back with interest.

provided that the advertiser is able to do what he advertises to do and a man is a fool to pay good money for advertising what he is not able to carry out for the public soon find out that such a man is a deception and a fraud. I am not professing to do business for fun or entirely for the other fellow's benefit but I have found during the twenty years that I have been doing business in Hanover and Durham that I can make the most money for my self by doing the very best I can in every instance to save money for my customers.
Every customer who once does business with me to his own profit continues to patronize me and gives me, not only his business, but his influence and this accounts for the very large business that I am doing to-day. Farmers are now busy and will not be paying much attention to business affairs while busily engaged on their farms. Some of them, however, will require to borrow money and I wish to say that I am at present lending at five per cent and in some cases at less. I am also paying closer attention than ever before to the collection of old debts and claims placed in my hands will be collected if it is possible by any means in the world to get the money—no charge for my trouble if nothing collected. I also buy old notes. I have had great success in settling up and arranging business entanglements and difficulties and in making settlements with creditors and any such business placed in my hands will be faithfully attended to for the profit, I think, of them who deal with me. I have always a number of farms in hand which I am able to sell at very low figures and on very easy terms. After so long a residence in this locality I have formed a connection with all the leading Loan Companies and when they have farms in hand for sale they are placed in my hands and I am thus always in a position to offer bargains. I have always on hand farms and other properties belonging to myself which I am always ready either to sell or exchange for other property. Just now I happen to have a splendid 100 acre farm and a very fine 64 acre farm, both well situated in Bentinck and each having good buildings. I will sell them or trade them. I also offer at a sacrifice Lot 28, Con. 2, W. G. R., Bentinck, 100 acres, belonging to a man who has gone out west and is bound to sell at some price. I place insurances in good companies at lower rates and in fact attend to all kinds of financial business. My rule continues to be "Always prompt—never negligent."
