

BOER PLOT DISCOVERED

To Capture Lord Roberts and Shoot All Officers

TEN CONSPIRATORS IN JAIL

Boers Retreating Ahead of Buller De Wet Has Again Escaped

A Complaint From Invalidated Canadians

Pretoria Cable—A plot to seize Gen. Roberts and to shoot as many as possible of the British officers here has been discovered and ten men charged with complicity have been arrested. Other suspects are being closely watched, and it is expected that they will shortly be taken into custody.

The system of granting passes to Boer wives (the only form of leniency is proving false, and there is a current need of a stricter policy, it is reported that the Boers are treating the natives brutally wherever they occupy a place that has been passed by the British troops. Their usual method of punishment is flogging. Every night shots are heard round the town. The firing is done by the Boers, who frequently discover Boer spies trying to enter or leave the town.

The supplies here for the army are abundant, with the exception of forage. Few of the local farmers bring anything to market, and the few that do are sold at a price which is so low that the merchants will then replenish their stocks. The military authorities are still in doubt as to how to deal with the Boers, who are still in possession of the town. The Boers are still in possession of the town. The Boers are still in possession of the town.

Confirmed by Other Correspondents. The London Cable (General Buller) confirms the discovery of a plot to shoot all the British officers in the capital and to seize General Roberts. The Boers are now in a state of unrest and are now in a state of unrest and are now in a state of unrest.

De Wet Again Escapes. London Cable—General De Wet, the Boer commander, who according to the correspondents was certain to be captured by Buller's forces, has thrown an unexpected success around him, has succeeded in crossing the Vaal River, and according to one report a large part of his force have met with success in their foraging parties. De Wet's escape is a serious blow to the British, and is a serious blow to the British.

Swazis Res Less. Lorenzo Marquez Cable says—The Swazi Queen, who has been sending a steady stream of messages to the British, has been sending a steady stream of messages to the British, has been sending a steady stream of messages to the British.

Boers Had 300 Men. London Cable—The Boers had 300 men, and were in a state of unrest and are now in a state of unrest and are now in a state of unrest.

Boers Like a Snowball. Berlin Cable—The Foreign Office has received a report that the Boers are like a snowball, and are now in a state of unrest and are now in a state of unrest.
