They Have a Grand Family Name and a Regal Family Mansion--High Dignity of a Christian.

Washington report: In this discourse Dr. Taimage, who during his journey homeward has seen much of royal and imperial splendors in passing through the capitals of Europe, child of God; text, Judges vill., 18, "Each one resembles the children of a king."

symbolic of imperial authority.

tions by the relationship of the cross; all of us are children of the King. First, I speak of our family name. When we see a descendant of some one greatly celebrated In the last century, we look at him with profound interest. To have had conquerors, kings or princes in the ancestral line our line was a King and a Conqueror. The star in the east with baton of light not by trampling them down, but by one world and the chief joy of an- | beach, the odors of the garden, the harother. The storm his frown. The sun- | monies of the air. his breath. The earthquake the stamp morning. You must take several broken hearts can hardly notd your of his foot. The thunder the whisper | walks around it. The family property | peace. You feel as if you would speak of his voice. The ocean a drop on the of this royal house of Jesus is so great out and say: "Oh, blessed day, speed tip of his finger. Heaven a sparkle that we must take several walks to on! Toward Thee I press with blison the bosom of his love. Eternity the get any idea of its extent. Let the tered feet over the desert way. My twinkling of his eye. The universe the first walk be around this earth. All eyes fail for their weeping. I faint to heal a heartbreak or hush a tem- in them and the cattle that pasture come and the sound of voices that will this life their portion and are des- men who swindled Kerr, and they are Spain, Italy, Garmany, Austria-Hunpest or drown a world of flood immen- them-all these mountains and the not speak. Speed on, oh day of reun- titute of the salvation of God shall thought to be the same. sity with his glory. What other family precious things hidden beneath them ion! And then, Lord Jesus, be not an- sooner of later be surprised in the times a lion or a dragon or an eagle. | nativity. For us they will wheel into | heaven!" famb standing against it and a dove the day for which all other days were first president entertained the promflying over it. Grandes: of all es- made. In the third walk go around inent men of this and other lands. It cutcheons! In every battle I must the eternal city. As we come near it, was a very interesting spot. But, oh, have it blazing on my flag-the dove, hark to the rush of its chariots and the banqueting hall of the family the cross, the lamb, and when I fall, the wedding peal of its great towers. | mansion of which I speak! Spread the wrap me in that good old Christian The bell of heaven has struck twelve. table, spread it wide for a great mul-

Ashamed of Jesus, that dead friend, On whom my hopes of life depend: No! When I blush be this my shame-That I no more revere His name.

Next, I speak of the family sorrows. If trouble comes to one member of the after the body is lowered into the grave, for all the relatives to come to the verge of the grave and look down into What think you of the family prop- West Assinitoia Conservatives have it. First those nearest the departed erty? It is considered an honor to renominated Mr. N. F. Davin, M. P., come, then those next of kin, until they marry into a family where there is for the Commons. have all looked into the grave. So, great wealth. The Lord, the bride- The condition of Hon. 'Mr. Mar- heed, and beware of covetousness!" sent four of his chargers down to The British commercial agent in when trouble and grief go down groom of earth and heaven, offers chand, Premier of Quebec, is re- Truly it is an awful sin, since the Cape Town. The general belief is Russia, Mr. Cooke, has just issued a family, they go down through them all. the words of the Canticles, "Rise up, The Department of Agriculture has adulterers, thieves, drunkards, rev- to take up the post of Commander-in- trans-Siberian railway. Siberia, he The sadness of one is the sadness of my love, my fair one, and come away."

The bepartment of Agriculture has decided to issue a directory of the British army, which Lord shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

The Department of Agriculture has decided to issue a directory of the British army, which Lord shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

Wolseley will vacate in October. 'Anpenal settlement, but a young country persons at the end of the line touch the endowed with all the wealth of earth pany has been awarded a contract man was vile, profans, or a wicked sport in Orange River Colony has thousands of settlers over the vast doshock. Thus, by reason of the filial, Almost every family looks back to es for the Government of New Zea- ing a covetous workling. maternal and paternal relations of life, a homestead-some country place land. we stand so close together that when where you grew up. You sat on the trouble sets its battery all feel the doorsill. You heard the footsteps of Central Vermont Railway, fell over perty. His income was great. Pros- of receiving their final pay prior to lng countries, and other important inthrill of distress. In the great Christian the rain on the garret roof. You board from the steamer Bohemian, perity attended him. His ground embarkation. It is hoped that the dustries are expected now to develop reaved? We are all bereaved.

Their streaming eyes together flow For human guilt and mortal woe.

If you rejoice at another's misfortune

in 1848 putting them to no inconveni- | mountain, until sky lost. The forests | plants of eternity. is peace. The Romanoffs of Russia, and sets minaret and dome aflame, queens of eternity. the Hohenzollerns of Germany, the stoops to paint the lily white and the A family mansion means reunion.

But I preach of a family more po- lamps to burn! Light for the down- How you wake up the old piano that barns, my goods and my soul. 2. How tential, more rich and more extensive cast and the lowly! Light for arching has been silent for years. Father and shortsighted! He spenks of many -the royal house of Jesus, of whom eyes and burning brain and wasted cap. mother do not play on it. How you years as a certainty, 3. How selfish! arrested at Montreal, Canada, a made music at his birth. From thence blessed God for throwing such a chear as when you saw them last, but their cient atheists. What a wretched the brass filings that were taken do, bucks. into his cabin, and to the sick it seems and their cheek roseate with the flush | yet, those who know not God have | discovered the fraud. The men mak- | Spring lambs, each. lifting them up. St. John saw him on a light from the other shore which of celestial summer. a white horse. When he returns he bounds this great deep of human pain What clasping of hands! What emwill not bring the nations chained to and woe. If the sun seem like a song bracings! What coming together of his wheel or in Iron cages, but I hear full and poured from brazen instruthe strike of the hoofs of the snow- ments that fill heaven and earth with say, "I thought there were no tears 20. But God said—Sooner or later siderably less than he first asks, so be nurchased the brick for $13,000. white calvacade that brings them to great harmonies, the moon is plaintive in heaven." There must be, for the God will speak and our worldly plans the purchased the brick for $13,000. and mild, standing beneath the throne Bible says that "God shall wipe them will be interfered with. Thou fool— He shipped the brick to the First will be interfered with. Thou fool— National Bank in Denver and the Our family name takes luster from of God, sending up her soft, sweet voice away," and if there were no tears His folly is fourfold. 1. He forgets National Bank in Denver, and the cheat was at once discovered. The the star that heralded him and the of praise, while the stars listen and spear that pierced him and the crown sea, 20 mother ever more sweetly there now could he wipe them away? God. 2. He approrpriates all he rether was given him. It gathers frag- guarded the sick cradle than all night. They cannot be tears of grief or tears ceives to himself. 3. He counts these brick was brass, and worth $6.81. specting the foreign wheat crop, and yet, as the crop has been reached, inthat was given him. It gathers frag- guarded the sick cradle than all night of disappointment. They must be things soul food. He thinks not of

tions of gladness and thanksgiving earth to come and dine! and triumph.

and the neighboring woods for nuts, SUNDAY SCHOOL stead is of interest to you. I tell you of the old homestead of eternity. "In my fahter's house are many man- INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. XII. When we talk of mansions, we think of Chatsworth and its park nine miles in circumference and its conservatory that astonishes the The Rich Fool .- Luke 12: 13-23 world, its galleries of art that contain the triumphs of Chantrey, Canova and Thorwaldsen, of the kings and queens who have walked its stately halls, or flying over the heather, have hunted the grouse. But all the dwelling places This was evidently a family dispute temptations and are in great danof dukes and princes and queens are about the property that was to be ger. as nothing to the family mansion that divided. is already awaiting our arrival. The hand of the Lord Jesus lifted the pil- Hom. Com, A judge or a divider-In the parks. Angels walk there and the not assume either a legislative power good of all ages. The poorest man in to alter the settled rule of inheritances. that house is a millionaire and the or a judicial power to determine conlowest a king, and the tamest word he troversies. speaks is an anthem and the shortest | 15. Take heed-"Covetousness is a life an eternity.

It took a Faxton to build for Chatsworth a covering for the wonderful So much of his property is willed to his shall be as though the cherubim had it, and the soul is the man. they were asked what kind of people sons and so much to his daughters and swung before the throne a thousand 16. A parable—To teach, 1. How which to live he will lay up for ease they had seen. They answered that so much to benevolent societies. Our censers. I have not seen it yet. I am short and transitory life is. 2. That and pleasure; he will eat, drink and to 44 1-2c. the people had a royal appearance. Lord Jesus hath died, and we are as- in a foreign land. But my Father is riches are of no avail for prolonging be merry. While thus thinking; care. "Each one resembled the children of sembled to-day to hear the will read. waiting for me to come home. I have it. 3. That the duty of all, both rich less, heedless and forgetful of God Who lower at 53c. a king." That description of people He says, "My peace I give unto you." brothers and sisters there. In the and poor, is to be rich towards God. had permitted him his prosperity, he Hay and Straw-Ten loads of hay is not extinct. There are still many Through his apostles he says, "All Bible I have letters from there, telling Brought forth plentifully—He did not is startled by a voice saying, "This sold steady at $10.50 to $13 a ton. who have this appearance. Indeed, things are yours." What, everything? me what a fine place it is. It matters acquire his wealth dishonestly, but it night thy soul shall be required of and two loads of straw at $10 to they are the sons and daughters of Yes, everything! This world and the not much to me whether I am rich or was given him by his Creator. What thee." Temporarily blest, but eter- $10.50 a ton. the Lord Aimighty. Though now in next. In distinguished families there exile, they shall yet come to their are old pictures hanging on the wall, or loves me, or whether I go by land he used it in a proper manner instead goes into eternity a spiritual pauper. exile, they shall yet come to their are old pictures hanging on the wall. or loves me, or whether I go by land of hoarding it up. thrones. There are family names They are called the "heirlooms" of the or by sea, if only I may lift my eyes 17. He thought within himself-The ness,"-H. D'Forest Gaffin. that stand for wealth or patriotism or estate. They are very old and have at last on the family mansion. It is worldly rich are often miserable, They intelligence. The name of Washington come down from generation to genera- not a frail house, built in a month, have, "1, Discontent, 2. Anxieties and among us will always represent pat- tion. So I look upon all the beauties soon to crumble, but an old mansion, cares, 3. False hopes, 4. The terror of riotism. The family of the Medici of the natural world as the heirlooms which is as firm as the day it was losing their possessions." "Mere multistood as the representative of letters. of our royal family. The morning built. Its walls are covered with the plication of his wealth, and the sel-The family of the Rothschilds is sig- breaks from the east. The mists travel lvy of many ages, and the urns at the fish enjoyment of it, take up all his nificant of wealth, the loss of $40,000,000 up, hill above hill, mountain above gateway are abloom with the century thoughts." What shall I do--That loaned Russia $12,000,000, Naples $25,- Tree's leaf and bird's wing flutter with halls, and Esther and Marie Antoin-000,000, Austria $40,000,000 and England gladness. Honey makers in the log and ette and Lady Huntingdon and Cecil $200,000,000, and the stroke of their pen beak against the bark and squirrels and Jeremy Taylor and Samuel Ruthon the counting room desk shakes chattering on the rall, and the call of erford and John Milton and the widow everything from the Irish sea to the the hawk out of a clear sky, make you who gave two mites, and the poor Danube. They open their hand and feel glad. The sun, which kindles con- men from the hospital-these two last there is war, they shut it and there flagrations among the castles of cloud perhaps outshining all the kings and

Bourbons of France, the Stuarts and buttercup yellow and the forget-me-not Some of your families are very much Bacon. One of the greatest evils to- in all probability have a chance to Guelphs of Great Britain, are houses blue. What can resist the sun? Light scattered. The children married and day is the spirit of "greed" which has see behind prison bars the man who Crawford peaches, 65 to 85c.; Lawton the history of their respective nations for the shepherd guarding the flocks | Charleston. But perhaps once a year | 18. This will I do-Man proposes. 1. afield! Light for the poor who have no you come together at the old place. How boastful! He says my fruits, my tive! Light for the smooth brow of bring out the old relics and rummage | There is no provision made for others, day or so ago, as they were about grapes, $2.75 to $3 per crate; Canachildhood and for the dim vision of the garret and open old scrapbooks 4. How unworthy! His idea of life is a to turn another trick, and the po- dian grapes, 15 to 25c. per basket; the octogenarian! Light for queen's and shout and laugh and cry and talk low one: indolent case, eating, drink- lice believe they are the men who bananas, $1.25 to $2 per bunch. coronet and for sewing girl's needle! over old times, and, though you may ing and merry making.-Taylor. Build swindled Kerr. Kerr is the President Let there be light! Whose morning is be 45 years of age, act as though you greater-This was the decision he of the First National Bank of Hast- Export cattle, choice, per cwt. $1 85 to $5 10 this? My morning. Your morning. Our were 16. Yet soon it is goodby at the reached. He desired more room for his lings, Neb., and when a man fame Export cattle, light, per cwt... 4 25 to 4 50 Father gave us the picture and hung car window and goodby at the steamit on the sky in loops of fire. It is the boat wharf. But how will we act at heirloom of our family. And so the the reunion in the old family mansion night. It is the full moon. The mists of heaven? It is a good while since spirit, was no way interested in a with the brick. Kerr took filings from from shore to shore gleam like shatter- you parted at the door of the grave. barn full of corn or a bag ful, of gold. It and had them assayed. The assay ed mirrors, and the ocean, under her There will be Grace and Mary and The soul has exigencies and desires was so high that he figured it out glance, comes up with great tides Martha and Charlie and Lizzle and which these things will in no way that the brick was worth $18,000. panting upon the beach, mingling, as it all the darlings of your household, not satisfy." Take thine ease, etc. - It is evident that genuine gold Stockers. were, foam and fire. The poor man pale and sick and gasping for breath, This was exactly the creed of the anlight through the broken window pane eyes bright with the luster of heaven portion for an immortal spirit! And from the brick, else Kerr would have heard, neither have entered into the Let David come with his harp and Ga- of these things." heart of man the things which God brief with his trumpet and Mirlam | Thoughts. Covetousness is a gross

Commentary .- 13. One of the company-Probably a stranger in crowd, who had been listening to the well as to the righteous. One thing, address Jesus had been delivering to however, is very certain, that those His disciples. Speak to my brother- who are rich are exposed to many inordinate desires. Such a disposition of the goats, and the vulture of sin hath diameter. But our Ville of the Walley as one object is gained, the heart goes alighted on your soul and not the Dove diameter. But our Lily of the Valley out after another. Man's life conshall need no shelter from the blast sisteth not, etc.-"Our happiness and Next, I notice the family property. and in the open gardens of God shall comfort do not depend upon our hav-After a man of large estate dies, the put forth its full bloom, and all heaven ing a great deal of this world." The relatives assemble to hear the will read. shall come to look at it, and its aroma life of the soul doth not depend upon his increased prosperity offers him opence, and within a few years they had are full of chirp and buzz and song. The Queen of Sheba hath walked its portunity to do something for his poor brethren, does not even enter his mind, selfishness strikes the key-note.-Lange. Because I have no room-The poorest beggar in the country, who SWINDLED A BANK PRESIDENT, did not know where to obtain the next meal, could not have been more anxhoard them "all" up.

14. Man-Apparently in reproof .-

rance from the frankincense brought long this pale watcher of the sky tears of gladness. Christ will come death. This night—Immediately, approached W. T. and L. Gordon, to be deficient 6,000,000 bushels to to his cradle and the lilies that flung bends over the weary, heart sick, slumber and say: "What, child of heaven, is with no time for preparation. Is thy wealthy men of Danville, Que,, and the quality the box of alabaster that broke at his framed, black tasseled picture of the down under the gladness of this property of the soul required to soil them a brick All the solled property of the soul required to soil them a brick All the solled property of the solled property of the soul required to soil them a brick All the solled property of th feet. The Comforter at Bethany. The night? It is the heirloom of our family. down under the gladness of this re- is, thou shalt be called upon to leave wanted to sell them a brick. All the lowered as compared with last year. union? Then I will help thee." And this world and meet thy God .He has details were gone through with as in But Beerbohm estimates the quanwith His one arm around us and the lost all. "He comes before His Judge | the case with Kerr, and an assayer | tity in store in first hands, Aug. 11, other arm around our loved ones He | with a lost name-God says, "Thou said the brick was worth $10,000. the stock affoat and the reserve in shall hold us up in the eternal jubi- foo! "; a lost soul; a lost world - The swindlers were willing to sell it farmers' hands at 38,440.000 bushlight his smile. The spring morning You cannot see a large estate in one While I speak some of you with and a lost heaven." Whose shall those picions of the purchasers. They noticely also less last year—an additional deficiency flying dust of the chariot wheels. Able these valleys, the harvests that wave from listening for feet that will not an individual case. All who make They answer the description of the ed, but all this may yet be modified. name could ever boast of such an il- and the crown of glacier they cast at gry with me if after I have kissed same way." For himself-For himself arms! Great families wear their coat nents, are ours. In the second walk my heart. Oh, be not angry with thought of the good he ought todo of the country: of the coach, or on the helmet when and see stretching off on every side a But all these neunions are heaven enthey go out to battle, or on flags and | wilderness of worlds. For us they circling heaven, heaven overtopping | heaven. We can be rich towards ensigns. The heraldic sign is some- shine. For us they sang at a Savior's heaven, heaven commingling with God by turning what we possess over to God. Our coat of arms, worn right over the line and with their flaming torches I was at Mount Vernon and went | 22. Be not anxious for your life. this life to cause undue anxiety and yourself. unrest. "Prudent care is not forbidden, but only anxious, distracting care." We should be diligent in business and yet trust God for all things. the world may see that I looked to the that never weep, the temples that manner of fruits for the table. Take surely give the smaller-food and ference to me. Dove of the Spirit and clung to the never close, the loved ones that never the clusters from the heavenly vine- raiment. The God who provides for Cross and depended upon the Lamb of part, the procession that never halts, yards and press them into the golden the ravens, the lilies and the grass God, which taketh away the sin of the trees that never wither, the walls tankards for that take. On baskets (vs. 24-28) will surely provide for that never can be captured, the sun carry in the bread of which if a man | His disciples. The farmer who feeds claim, "Eye hath not seen nor ear and entwine them among the arches. Father knoweth that ye have need robber. Your oldsfriend, > hath prepared for them that love him!" with the timbrel, for the prodigals are form of selfishness and is very of-As these tides of glory rise we have at home, and the captives are free, fensive to God. Those who trust in to retreat and hold fast lest we be and the Father hath invited the riches are sure to come to want. The swept off and drowned in the emo- mighty of heaven and the redeemed of soul is the real man; the body is only the house the man lives in. The way to lay up treasure for one's self is to be rich towards God.

PRACTICAL SURVEY.

All are persecuted. Does one suffer You thrashed the orchard for apples being in the water twenty minutes. bring to him he had. From this para- almost certain to be held in October. tralia.

learn that this world is not a world of retribution, and that temporal prosperity may attend the wicked. SEPTEMBER 16, 1900. bation. God is displeased with the wicked, yet he causeth the sun shine and the rain to fall on the just and the unjust. Good generalship, a wise and careful financiering. economy and frugality exercised will the bring rich returns to the wicked, as His character. "Thou fook" God calls him such. In the midst of plenty his covetous, avaricious disposition lars and swung the doors and planted matters of this nature Christ would hungers for more. He had been, and was still, making temporal and finan cial matters his greatest aim and end For this he has great concern, spends his time chiefly, gives all his labor, and utterly neglects his infinitely greater sin which we have need constantly to interest-the salvation of his soul. All watch against." Of covetousness-All who do so are extremely foolish. Again, his foolishness is seen in his trying to satisfy his soul with temporal things. This cannot be. His end. "Thou fool, this night," etc. Thinking only of time and temporal build greater. Having many years in oats sold 1-2c higher at 29 to 31c. Take heed and beware of covetous-

Doubtful Veracity.

Denver report.-William Kerr, the ious. To bestow my fruits-A wise man kind-hearted Nebraska bank presi-$18,000 gold brick for $13,000, will dozen; potatoes, 30 to 35c. per bushel; swindled him. The gold brick for berries, 5 to 7c. per basket; plums, which Kerr paid $15,000 was worth | 30 to 40c.; musk melons, 15 to 20c.

Three gold brick swindlers were earthly goods. He was planning to along with a gold brick to self he took to the scheme like a sommer 19. I will say to my soul-" The girl to ice-cream. He went out into no other, and many of them not even | ing the sale said they needed money | this .- Clarke. Eat, drink, and be and would sell for $15,000. Kerr has merry-The ambition of many world- been in the banking business a long lings seems to rise no higher than time, and has learned that when a man wants money he will accept con- Hogs, corn fed ...... 5 374 to 0 00 his possessions must be left behind; for $5,000, and this aroused the sus- els, compared with 41,656,000 bushthings be-"It will not matter to fied the detectives, but went on with of 3,216,000 bushels. The French him into whose hands they pass. the scheme, and as the swindlers were crop is largely short of last year's. This is only an emphatic way of say- having cashed the cheque which the bumper crop, but the current esti-Gordons had given them they were mate of reserves of previous crops 21. So is he-Here is a personal arrested and thrown into jail. They indicate a supply of French wants application of the truths taught to gave their names as Stephen Pratt, in this crop year. The grade of the His hearers and also to us. This is Abner C. White and John Saunders. wheat has been stated to be lower-

Insult Added to Injury. the feet of the Alpine hurricane—all Thy blessed feet I turn around to only. A covetous man gains riches to following letter, which he evidently reasonable to place the indications of Henceforth swing out the coat of these lakes, these islands, these conti- gather up the long lost treasures of please and gratify himself, with no intended to mail after he had got out deficiency abroad at 10,000,000 bushof arms on the dress, or on the door go among the street lamps of heaven me. One look at Thee were heaven. with his wealth. Is not rich towards "My Dear Mr. Gordon, I write to all these countries have just reaped in by the old game called the gold may advance the markets now, or brick. Take a knife, scratch it, and soon, it looks safer to expect good you'll find nothing good inside. You're | prices in the last half of the present heart, hereafter shall be a cross, a add to the splendor of our triumph on into the dining-room in which our (R. V.)-Do not allow the things of be. You can't make an imbecile of a good thing, tho- and always will year. "The brick isn't worth $8.

bors will take you for an escaped for this season. With more grain lunatic. They won't feast a man | moving they would be better. flag, so that the family coat of arms It is high noon. We look off upon the littude are to sit at it. From the charlets which never fade the eyes Tree by the river gather the twelve themselves. Cry, howl, and do the created considerable activity in shall be right over my breast, that all chaplets which never fade, the eyes Tree by the river gather the twelve things—the life and the body, will water cart act—that makes no dif- wholesale circles. The house sales > grave. I'll send you a copy of a improved the feeling in the country. that never sets, until we can no longer eat he shall never hunger. Take all his chickens will certainly feed his your deception, so that you'll not sale trade circles at the coast citgaze, and we hide our eyes and ex- the shot-torn flags of earthly conquest | children. "O ye of little faith," "your | take me for the snidest kind of a les. The business situation at Win-"From Arizona."

Significant Signs.

of the war as close at hand. Lord fair for this season. Roberts is making preparations to How necessary the injunction, "Take | return to England, and has already family the sorrows of one ought to be swung on the gate. You ransacked just above the Lachine Rapids. He brought forth plentifully. The pleature of all. Is, one persecuted? the barn. You waded into the brook. was rescued by three Indians after sures and positions that money could before the general election, which is of Siberia is curiously like that of Australia and positions that money could before the general election, which is Leading Wheat Markets. Following are the closing prices at

Duluth, No. 1 north. 075 3-4 ---Duluth, No. 1 hard, 0773-4 ---Minneapolis, No. 1 northern ... ... ... 0733-1 ---Minneapolis, No. 1

Toronto Farmers' Market. Wheat-Two hundred bushels of red fall wheat sold unchanged at 69c, and good; presumptuously calculating on 200 bushels of goose steady at 65 to row; he will tear down his barns and Oats-Three hundred bushels of new Barley-One load sold steady at 43

The fall trade has not yet fully begun. Local dealers quote offers for timothy, alsike and red clover. Alsike is quoted at $6.50 to $7 per bushel and $7.50 for fancy lots. Red Clover-The new crop has not yet been harvested. Dealers here quote $5.50 to $6 per bushel. Timothy-The market is developing at $3.75 to $5 per 100 lbs. In Toledo to-day October opened at $6.40 and closed at $6.37; cash closed

Toronto Fruit Market.

Receipts of fruit to-day down at the wholesale depot were heavy. Tomatoes, 10 to 20c.; cucumbers, 10 to 15c.; pears, 20 to 40c.; apples, 20 to 40c. will desire no more than what he can dent, who thought he was buying an $1 to $1.50; green corn, 3 to 5c. per per basket; cho'ce apples, per barrel, celery, 35 to 50c. per dozen; huckleberries, 65 to 90c. per basket; southern

Wheat Crop Abroad. gary and Fussia, all are reported by some authorities as deficient, either

Bradstreets' on Trade. Wholesale trade at Montreal shows a little more activity this "If you try to sell it your neigh- week. Country remittances are fair this week have been large. There is "I'm too foxy for you to pinch. a better feeling in business circles "Your shame will follow you to the at London. The good harvest has nipeg is encouraging. Business at Hamilton is quite ac-These swindlers are unknown to tive. Large shipments of fall and the police here by the names they | winter goods continue to be made and orders coming forward are very encouraging. Labor in the city is well employed and the outlook for the There are many signs that the local trade is bright. Prices are genmilitary authorities regard the end | erally firm. Country remittances are covetous are classed among idolators, that Lord Roberts is coming home very optimistic report on the great However, there is not a word in the other indication of the same kind is with a great future before it. The rail-Scriptures to prove that this rich that the personnel of the army tran- way has already diffused hundreds of for constructing 68 passenger coach- sensualist. He was lost through be- been paid off and disbanded, and the main, and is opening gold deposits Imperial Yeomanny and Scouts em- which it has not hitherto been possible His circumstances. One word tells it; ployed in that country have arrived to work at a profit. Siberia already Mr. R. H. Ingram, Treasurer of the he was rich. He had a great pro- at Cape Town, also with the object ranks among the leading gold-produc-